

PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC

THE DIRECTORY.

NO. 51, K. of P.—Meets every Tuesday at 7:30 in their hall, centrally located. E. C. D. S. YOUNG, Sec.

W. H. S.—Meets every Tuesday at 8:00 in K. of P. hall, centrally located. E. C. D. S. YOUNG, Sec.

A. M.—Meets at Tuesday of each month. W. M. C. BROCK, Com.

G. A. R.—Meets at Tuesday of each month. W. M. C. BROCK, Com.

U. S. NO. 46.—Meets at Tuesday of each month. W. M. C. BROCK, Com.

A. M.—Meets at Tuesday of each month. W. M. C. BROCK, Com.

U. S. NO. 46.—Meets at Tuesday of each month. W. M. C. BROCK, Com.

A. M.—Meets at Tuesday of each month. W. M. C. BROCK, Com.

U. S. NO. 46.—Meets at Tuesday of each month. W. M. C. BROCK, Com.

January 27, 1898.

Read the add J. A. Ellis has for furniture elsewhere.

Be sure and see those Canton gang plows for sale by Meador & Co.

Queen, Zenith and White sewing machines for sale by E. Peoples.

R. J. Ginn made a trip to Portland Tuesday and is expected home today.

For Sale Cheap—A good air-tight heater, nearly new. Call at this office.

Rev. Johns is conducting protracted meeting in Spaulding chapel at Hay Canyon.

Chas. Orrick was in the city last Saturday and made a final proof on his homestead.

Remember the special school meeting in Moro, January 30th, at 3 p. m. for the purpose of voting a tax levy.

Chas. E. Jones, the Wasco merchant, has one of the most complete stocks of general merchandise in Sherman county.

Quite a party of Grass Valleyites attended "Diamonds and Hearts" at the opera house last Saturday evening.

When you want anything in the book or magazine line, write to Jones' Book Store, 291 Alder street, Portland, Oregon. Send for a free catalogue.

Miss Cora Stanton who has for several months been employed as cook at J. J. Wiley's, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ellis at Wasco.

Capt. John Lewis gave a very entertaining lecture at the opera house last Thursday evening, on his experience in Libby prison.

Dr. O. C. Hollister, of The Dalles, passed through Moro last Thursday on his way to attend the son of Mr. Scott, at Grass Valley.

Conductor Harris of the Columbia Southern has moved his family from Wasco and now occupies rooms fitted up for him in the Republic building.

The Columbia Southern brought a special train from Wasco last Saturday evening for the benefit of those who desired to attend the play, "Diamonds and Hearts."

Dr. Olive Hartley was up from Wasco Monday, it being her second trip to Moro in search of office rooms. She was unsuccessful, however, in securing a location, and thinks she may find it necessary to build.

Rev. Wm. F. Holl, who has been here since last July is transferred by the Board of Home Missions of the Evangelical Lutheran church to Tacoma, Washington, and bade farewell to his friends in Moro last Friday.

A much needed sidewalk has been constructed this week from the Moro Hotel to the railroad. It is a great improvement and business men and residents in other portions of our city should "Go thou and do likewise."

A traveling salesman who will soon visit this city, has sent the following conundrum and answer to the trade, on his card announcing when he will call on them: "Why did we beat Spain? We are strong as Sampson; we are Schley as a fox; we are Miles long; we possess Merritt; we are Hobson's choice, and what more Dewey want?—Sample Case."

The proprietors of the Dufur roller mills have this summer removed their old machinery and replaced it with the very latest improved machinery and are making a flour that is not excelled on this coast, every sack being warranted to give satisfaction. This mill does an exchange business, giving 34 pounds of No. 1 flour for a bushel of wheat, or 80 pounds of bran and shorts heavy for a bushel. They are now running day and night and will be able to supply you at any time. Give them a trial.

A very quiet home wedding took place at the residence of G. F. Boyd, near Moro, last Sunday, January 21, 1898. The contracting parties being Miss Emma Boyd and John Collier, of Moro. Rev. M. F. S. Henton officiating. Numerous presents were received among which were some handsome dishes. Mr. and Mrs. Mowry, Miss Ida Mowry and the Misses Rust were the only guests present. The Republic extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Collier, hoping their years of wedded life may be happy and prosperous.

Besides building a large addition to the Blue Barn, as stated in our last issue, N. W. Thompson is having the whole inside of his livery stable remodeled. The old office has been torn out and replaced by a pleasant room 10x14 feet, which will be comfortably furnished. The driveway in the main part of the barn has been widened several feet, besides many other improvements. When completed there will be ample room for 50 rigs and stabling 50 horses. It will then be the largest and best equipped livery stable in this portion of Eastern Oregon.

Drills! Drills! Superior Drills, Hoe, disk, and pin drills. For sale by F. H. Meador & Co.

A. E. Lake visited The Dalles Thursday.

W. H. Moore made a trip to Portland Wednesday.

A petition is being circulated for a court house.

S. L. Lawrence of Wasco was in the city Monday.

Edgar Lewis was down from Grass Valley Sunday.

John Fulton and wife Biggs were Moro visitors Monday.

Clyde Smith and James Haul of Rutledge were in Moro Tuesday.

The Dufur flour mill will sell flour in 20 barrel lots at $2.75 per barrel.

Quite a number of new telephone poles are being put up this week.

Jas. Stewart, the Monkland sheep-grower was in Moro yesterday.

Prof. Peery has recovered from the measles and is able to be around again.

Flour, coal and lumber in exchange for wheat at the North Pacific mills in Wasco.

S. H. Lonsdale, representing Mayes & Crowe of The Dalles, was in Moro yesterday.

A. E. Lake returned Wednesday from Des Chutes river, where he had been fixing his boom for logs.

J. H. Elliott and G. P. Wikoff have each purchased Canton plows of Meador & Co. this week.

F. H. Meador & Co. have a fine line of plows, harrows, and all kinds of farm implements. Don't fail to see them.

Thompson the photographer now has his show-case of sample pictures up and invites the public to call and inspect the work.

John Foss and his sister, Mrs. Mitchell, returned on Thursday evening from a visit with their parents at Athena.

Wm. Holder has put in a marble top counter for his soda fountain and says it improves the taste of the beverage wonderfully.

You can get one of the best sewing machines on the market for $25. Call and examine the one on exhibition at this office.

McCaleb & Bressler and W. V. Johnson have been improving the road in front of their stores very materially this week by grading it up.

Meetings have been held by Rev. Lawson, of Mayville, at the Baptist church every evening this week and will be continued over Sunday.

Harvey Smith, a successful sheep-grower of Grass Valley was in attendance at the Wool Growers Association at The Dalles Tuesday.

Milbra Grange met at Erskineville last Saturday and elected officers for the ensuing year. The installation will take place Saturday, February 4th and all are requested to attend.

It is reported that Geo. Vanlandingham is circulating a petition for a saloon at Grass Valley, and we also understood that their is a provision on the statutes which prohibits the establishment of a saloon within one mile of the Academy.

C. Mooney came up from Portland Monday evening to put in several new telephones for Moro business houses. Mr. Mooney is authority for the statement that Moro has more phones in use than any other city in Oregon in proportion to its size.

The C. S. train last Thursday was delayed by the engine getting off the track. No serious damage was done and the company promptly arranged for the transfer of passengers to Grants by team. On Friday the engine left at the same place but was quickly pulled on and the train proceeded on its way.

A traveling salesman who will soon visit this city, has sent the following conundrum and answer to the trade, on his card announcing when he will call on them: "Why did we beat Spain? We are strong as Sampson; we are Schley as a fox; we are Miles long; we possess Merritt; we are Hobson's choice, and what more Dewey want?—Sample Case."

The proprietors of the Dufur roller mills have this summer removed their old machinery and replaced it with the very latest improved machinery and are making a flour that is not excelled on this coast, every sack being warranted to give satisfaction. This mill does an exchange business, giving 34 pounds of No. 1 flour for a bushel of wheat, or 80 pounds of bran and shorts heavy for a bushel. They are now running day and night and will be able to supply you at any time. Give them a trial.

A very quiet home wedding took place at the residence of G. F. Boyd, near Moro, last Sunday, January 21, 1898. The contracting parties being Miss Emma Boyd and John Collier, of Moro. Rev. M. F. S. Henton officiating. Numerous presents were received among which were some handsome dishes. Mr. and Mrs. Mowry, Miss Ida Mowry and the Misses Rust were the only guests present. The Republic extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Collier, hoping their years of wedded life may be happy and prosperous.

Besides building a large addition to the Blue Barn, as stated in our last issue, N. W. Thompson is having the whole inside of his livery stable remodeled. The old office has been torn out and replaced by a pleasant room 10x14 feet, which will be comfortably furnished. The driveway in the main part of the barn has been widened several feet, besides many other improvements. When completed there will be ample room for 50 rigs and stabling 50 horses. It will then be the largest and best equipped livery stable in this portion of Eastern Oregon.

Drills! Drills! Superior Drills, Hoe, disk, and pin drills. For sale by F. H. Meador & Co.

A. E. Lake visited The Dalles Thursday.

W. H. Moore made a trip to Portland Wednesday.

A petition is being circulated for a court house.

S. L. Lawrence of Wasco was in the city Monday.

Edgar Lewis was down from Grass Valley Sunday.

John Fulton and wife Biggs were Moro visitors Monday.

Clyde Smith and James Haul of Rutledge were in Moro Tuesday.

The Dufur flour mill will sell flour in 20 barrel lots at $2.75 per barrel.

Quite a number of new telephone poles are being put up this week.

Jas. Stewart, the Monkland sheep-grower was in Moro yesterday.

Prof. Peery has recovered from the measles and is able to be around again.

Flour, coal and lumber in exchange for wheat at the North Pacific mills in Wasco.

S. H. Lonsdale, representing Mayes & Crowe of The Dalles, was in Moro yesterday.

A. E. Lake returned Wednesday from Des Chutes river, where he had been fixing his boom for logs.

J. H. Elliott and G. P. Wikoff have each purchased Canton plows of Meador & Co. this week.

F. H. Meador & Co. have a fine line of plows, harrows, and all kinds of farm implements. Don't fail to see them.

Thompson the photographer now has his show-case of sample pictures up and invites the public to call and inspect the work.

John Foss and his sister, Mrs. Mitchell, returned on Thursday evening from a visit with their parents at Athena.

Wm. Holder has put in a marble top counter for his soda fountain and says it improves the taste of the beverage wonderfully.

You can get one of the best sewing machines on the market for $25. Call and examine the one on exhibition at this office.

McCaleb & Bressler and W. V. Johnson have been improving the road in front of their stores very materially this week by grading it up.

Meetings have been held by Rev. Lawson, of Mayville, at the Baptist church every evening this week and will be continued over Sunday.

Harvey Smith, a successful sheep-grower of Grass Valley was in attendance at the Wool Growers Association at The Dalles Tuesday.

Milbra Grange met at Erskineville last Saturday and elected officers for the ensuing year. The installation will take place Saturday, February 4th and all are requested to attend.

It is reported that Geo. Vanlandingham is circulating a petition for a saloon at Grass Valley, and we also understood that their is a provision on the statutes which prohibits the establishment of a saloon within one mile of the Academy.

C. Mooney came up from Portland Monday evening to put in several new telephones for Moro business houses. Mr. Mooney is authority for the statement that Moro has more phones in use than any other city in Oregon in proportion to its size.

The C. S. train last Thursday was delayed by the engine getting off the track. No serious damage was done and the company promptly arranged for the transfer of passengers to Grants by team. On Friday the engine left at the same place but was quickly pulled on and the train proceeded on its way.

A traveling salesman who will soon visit this city, has sent the following conundrum and answer to the trade, on his card announcing when he will call on them: "Why did we beat Spain? We are strong as Sampson; we are Schley as a fox; we are Miles long; we possess Merritt; we are Hobson's choice, and what more Dewey want?—Sample Case."

The proprietors of the Dufur roller mills have this summer removed their old machinery and replaced it with the very latest improved machinery and are making a flour that is not excelled on this coast, every sack being warranted to give satisfaction. This mill does an exchange business, giving 34 pounds of No. 1 flour for a bushel of wheat, or 80 pounds of bran and shorts heavy for a bushel. They are now running day and night and will be able to supply you at any time. Give them a trial.

A very quiet home wedding took place at the residence of G. F. Boyd, near Moro, last Sunday, January 21, 1898. The contracting parties being Miss Emma Boyd and John Collier, of Moro. Rev. M. F. S. Henton officiating. Numerous presents were received among which were some handsome dishes. Mr. and Mrs. Mowry, Miss Ida Mowry and the Misses Rust were the only guests present. The Republic extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Collier, hoping their years of wedded life may be happy and prosperous.

Besides building a large addition to the Blue Barn, as stated in our last issue, N. W. Thompson is having the whole inside of his livery stable remodeled. The old office has been torn out and replaced by a pleasant room 10x14 feet, which will be comfortably furnished. The driveway in the main part of the barn has been widened several feet, besides many other improvements. When completed there will be ample room for 50 rigs and stabling 50 horses. It will then be the largest and best equipped livery stable in this portion of Eastern Oregon.

Drills! Drills! Superior Drills, Hoe, disk, and pin drills. For sale by F. H. Meador & Co.

A. E. Lake visited The Dalles Thursday.

W. H. Moore made a trip to Portland Wednesday.

A petition is being circulated for a court house.

S. L. Lawrence of Wasco was in the city Monday.

Edgar Lewis was down from Grass Valley Sunday.

John Fulton and wife Biggs were Moro visitors Monday.

Clyde Smith and James Haul of Rutledge were in Moro Tuesday.

The Dufur flour mill will sell flour in 20 barrel lots at $2.75 per barrel.

Quite a number of new telephone poles are being put up this week.

Jas. Stewart, the Monkland sheep-grower was in Moro yesterday.

Prof. Peery has recovered from the measles and is able to be around again.

Flour, coal and lumber in exchange for wheat at the North Pacific mills in Wasco.

S. H. Lonsdale, representing Mayes & Crowe of The Dalles, was in Moro yesterday.

A. E. Lake returned Wednesday from Des Chutes river, where he had been fixing his boom for logs.

J. H. Elliott and G. P. Wikoff have each purchased Canton plows of Meador & Co. this week.

F. H. Meador & Co. have a fine line of plows, harrows, and all kinds of farm implements. Don't fail to see them.

Thompson the photographer now has his show-case of sample pictures up and invites the public to call and inspect the work.

John Foss and his sister, Mrs. Mitchell, returned on Thursday evening from a visit with their parents at Athena.

Wm. Holder has put in a marble top counter for his soda fountain and says it improves the taste of the beverage wonderfully.

You can get one of the best sewing machines on the market for $25. Call and examine the one on exhibition at this office.

McCaleb & Bressler and W. V. Johnson have been improving the road in front of their stores very materially this week by grading it up.

Meetings have been held by Rev. Lawson, of Mayville, at the Baptist church every evening this week and will be continued over Sunday.

Harvey Smith, a successful sheep-grower of Grass Valley was in attendance at the Wool Growers Association at The Dalles Tuesday.

Milbra Grange met at Erskineville last Saturday and elected officers for the ensuing year. The installation will take place Saturday, February 4th and all are requested to attend.

It is reported that Geo. Vanlandingham is circulating a petition for a saloon at Grass Valley, and we also understood that their is a provision on the statutes which prohibits the establishment of a saloon within one mile of the Academy.

C. Mooney came up from Portland Monday evening to put in several new telephones for Moro business houses. Mr. Mooney is authority for the statement that Moro has more phones in use than any other city in Oregon in proportion to its size.

The C. S. train last Thursday was delayed by the engine getting off the track. No serious damage was done and the company promptly arranged for the transfer of passengers to Grants by team. On Friday the engine left at the same place but was quickly pulled on and the train proceeded on its way.

A traveling salesman who will soon visit this city, has sent the following conundrum and answer to the trade, on his card announcing when he will call on them: "Why did we beat Spain? We are strong as Sampson; we are Schley as a fox; we are Miles long; we possess Merritt; we are Hobson's choice, and what more Dewey want?—Sample Case."

The proprietors of the Dufur roller mills have this summer removed their old machinery and replaced it with the very latest improved machinery and are making a flour that is not excelled on this coast, every sack being warranted to give satisfaction. This mill does an exchange business, giving 34 pounds of No. 1 flour for a bushel of wheat, or 80 pounds of bran and shorts heavy for a bushel. They are now running day and night and will be able to supply you at any time. Give them a trial.

A very quiet home wedding took place at the residence of G. F. Boyd, near Moro, last Sunday, January 21, 1898. The contracting parties being Miss Emma Boyd and John Collier, of Moro. Rev. M. F. S. Henton officiating. Numerous presents were received among which were some handsome dishes. Mr. and Mrs. Mowry, Miss Ida Mowry and the Misses Rust were the only guests present. The Republic extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Collier, hoping their years of wedded life may be happy and prosperous.

Besides building a large addition to the Blue Barn, as stated in our last issue, N. W. Thompson is having the whole inside of his livery stable remodeled. The old office has been torn out and replaced by a pleasant room 10x14 feet, which will be comfortably furnished. The driveway in the main part of the barn has been widened several feet, besides many other improvements. When completed there will be ample room for 50 rigs and stabling 50 horses. It will then be the largest and best equipped livery stable in this portion of Eastern Oregon.

Drills! Drills! Superior Drills, Hoe, disk, and pin drills. For sale by F. H. Meador & Co.

A. E. Lake visited The Dalles Thursday.

W. H. Moore made a trip to Portland Wednesday.

A petition is being circulated for a court house.

S. L. Lawrence of Wasco was in the city Monday.

Edgar Lewis was down from Grass Valley Sunday.

John Fulton and wife Biggs were Moro visitors Monday.

Clyde Smith and James Haul of Rutledge were in Moro Tuesday.

The Dufur flour mill will sell flour in 20 barrel lots at $2.75 per barrel.

Quite a number of new telephone poles are being put up this week.

Jas. Stewart, the Monkland sheep-grower was in Moro yesterday.

Prof. Peery has recovered from the measles and is able to be around again.

Flour, coal and lumber in exchange for wheat at the North Pacific mills in Wasco.

S. H. Lonsdale, representing Mayes & Crowe of The Dalles, was in Moro yesterday.

A. E. Lake returned Wednesday from Des Chutes river, where he had been fixing his boom for logs.

J. H. Elliott and G. P. Wikoff have each purchased Canton plows of Meador & Co. this week.

F. H. Meador & Co. have a fine line of plows, harrows, and all kinds of farm implements. Don't fail to see them.

Thompson the photographer now has his show-case of sample pictures up and invites the public to call and inspect the work.

John Foss and his sister, Mrs. Mitchell, returned on Thursday evening from a visit with their parents at Athena.

Wm. Holder has put in a marble top counter for his soda fountain and says it improves the taste of the beverage wonderfully.

You can get one of the best sewing machines on the market for $25. Call and examine the one on exhibition at this office.

McCaleb & Bressler and W. V. Johnson have been improving the road in front of their stores very materially this week by grading it up.

Meetings have been held by Rev. Lawson, of Mayville, at the Baptist church every evening this week and will be continued over Sunday.

Harvey Smith, a successful sheep-grower of Grass Valley was in attendance at the Wool Growers Association at The Dalles Tuesday.

Milbra Grange met at Erskineville last Saturday and elected officers for the ensuing year. The installation will take place Saturday, February 4th and all are requested to attend.

It is reported that Geo. Vanlandingham is circulating a petition for a saloon at Grass Valley, and we also understood that their is a provision on the statutes which prohibits the establishment of a saloon within one mile of the Academy.

C. Mooney came up from Portland Monday evening to put in several new telephones for Moro business houses. Mr. Mooney is authority for the statement that Moro has more phones in use than any other city in Oregon in proportion to its size.

The C. S. train last Thursday was delayed by the engine getting off the track. No serious damage was done and the company promptly arranged for the transfer of passengers to Grants by team. On Friday the engine left at the same place but was quickly pulled on and the train proceeded on its way.

A traveling salesman who will soon visit this city, has sent the following conundrum and answer to the trade, on his card announcing when he will call on them: "Why did we beat Spain? We are strong as Sampson; we are Schley as a fox; we are Miles long; we possess Merritt; we are Hobson's choice, and what more Dewey want?—Sample Case."

The proprietors of the Dufur roller mills have this summer removed their old machinery and replaced it with the very latest improved machinery and are making a flour that is not excelled on this coast, every sack being warranted to give satisfaction. This mill does an exchange business, giving 34 pounds of No. 1 flour for a bushel of wheat, or 80 pounds of bran and shorts heavy for a bushel. They are now running day and night and will be able to supply you at any time. Give them a trial.

A very quiet home wedding took place at the residence of G. F. Boyd, near Moro, last Sunday, January 21, 1898. The contracting parties being Miss Emma Boyd and John Collier, of Moro. Rev. M. F. S. Henton officiating. Numerous presents were received among which were some handsome dishes. Mr. and Mrs. Mowry, Miss Ida Mowry and the Misses Rust were the only guests present. The Republic extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Collier, hoping their years of wedded life may be happy and prosperous.

Besides building a large addition to the Blue Barn, as stated in our last issue, N. W. Thompson is having the whole inside of his livery stable remodeled. The old office has been torn out and replaced by a pleasant room 10x14 feet, which will be comfortably furnished. The driveway in the main part of the barn has been widened several feet, besides many other improvements. When completed there will be ample room for 50 rigs and stabling 50 horses. It will then be the largest and best equipped livery stable in this portion of Eastern Oregon.

Drills! Drills! Superior Drills, Hoe, disk, and pin drills. For sale by F. H. Meador & Co.

A. E. Lake visited The Dalles Thursday.

W. H. Moore made a trip to Portland Wednesday.

A petition is being circulated for a court house.

S. L. Lawrence of Wasco was in the city Monday.

Edgar Lewis was down from Grass Valley Sunday.

John Fulton and wife Biggs were Moro visitors Monday.

Clyde Smith and James Haul of Rutledge were in Moro Tuesday.

The Dufur flour mill will sell flour in 20 barrel lots at $2.75 per barrel.

Quite a number of new telephone poles are being put up this week.

Jas. Stewart, the Monkland sheep-grower was in Moro yesterday.

Prof. Peery has recovered from the measles and is able to be around again.

Flour, coal and lumber in exchange for wheat at the North Pacific mills in Wasco.

S. H. Lonsdale, representing Mayes & Crowe of The Dalles, was in Moro yesterday.

A. E. Lake returned Wednesday from Des Chutes river, where he had been fixing his boom for logs.

J. H. Elliott and G. P. Wikoff have each purchased Canton plows of Meador & Co. this week.

F. H. Meador & Co. have a fine line of plows, harrows, and all kinds of farm implements. Don't fail to see them.

Thompson the photographer now has his show-case of sample pictures up and invites the public to call and inspect the work.