Isaac Estes, of near town, recently sold 90 acres of fine land to Mr. Williams, of Jacksonville.

Homer Mansfield, formerly engaged in the butchering business at Tolo, has removed to Glendale.

Frank Huston, accompanied by his sister, Miss Florence, was in the city last week from their home in Trail.

Frank Adams, foreman of the Willow Springs ranch, was in the city Saturday transacting business.

Mr. and Mrs. Cap Rowlings, of Medford, visited their daughter, Mrs. Geo. Fox, in this city for a day or two last week.

W. C. Leever and W. J. Freeman drove down to Medford Friday evening to attend the grand conclave of the Rogue river boosters club.

L. L. Love and son, Ira Love, of near this city, are in Portland as witnesses before the U. S. circuit court in some land matters being investigated there.

Henry Holton, of Trail, who has been at work at the Blue ledge mine where he was engaged as a carpenter, came in from that place Friday on his way home.

Mrs. J. M. Gibson has sold her residence property on the west side to Geo. B. Ross. Mrs. Gibson has purchased two lots near the school house and will build a modern cottage there.

Mrs. S. A. Pattison and two children arrived from Boise, Idaho, Friday morning to join her husband here. They will occupy the Mrs. Thompson cottage in the northeast part of town.

J. E. Lancaster, who spent a few days in Portland last week, returned Friday evening. Mrs. Lancaster, who has been visiting for a few weeks with her parents at Eugene, returned with him.

I. F. Williams is having a new building erected on his property adjoining the hotel Williams. The lower floor will be occupied as a tailoring establishment and the upper story will be finished into sleeping rooms as an annex to the hotel.

W. A. Owens, with the Cranfill & Robnett store, recently sold a 35 acre tract adjoining the townsite on the south to A. Caley. The consideration was $150 an acre. The tract is all creek bottom land and is considered a bargain at that figure.

G. W. Beale, of Big Butte, was in town for a day or two last week attending to business matters. To Mr. Beale belongs the distinction of being the first man to have his name entered on the HERALD'S subscription list with a year's subscription paid up in advance. May his shadow never grow less.

S. R. Fraser and C. A. Trebesch, who recently purchased the Geo. B. Ross property on Main street, expect to remodel the building and put in a stock of general merchandise. Last week they purchased two additional lots adjoining the Ross property from James Kincaid, making them a full half block of ground. Later—We understand this deal is off.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spencer, who have been visiting their niece, Mrs. William Moreland, in this city for some time, left for home Friday morning. Mr. Spencer recently sold a valuable wheat ranch in Gilliam county and will now enjoy life in the Lane county capital, where they have purchased a fine home.

A Stock of Groceries Arriving this Week

L. HATFIELD, Central Point

Ben Bealle shipped a car of hay from this point Wednesday.

I. B. McDonald, of Table Rock, was in town Wednesday on business.

D. L. Grigsby, of Agate, was in town on business Wednesday.

J. W. Hicks, who resides north of town, was a caller at the HERALD office Tuesday.

Mrs. N. J. Thompson expects to spend the summer visiting friends in California.

The HERALD acknowledges a pleasant call from Mesdames Moreland and Hoagland Tuesday.

F. A. Bybee, democratic candidate for sheriff's nomination, was in the city Tuesday looking after his campaign interests.

Wilson & Chapman, the house builders, are erecting a neat cottage for Frank Cochran, just south of the Williams hotel.

J. P. Hoagland, who has been serving as a U. S. grand juror at Portland for some time, returned from that city Friday.

The Eagle Point band will hold a picnic on top of Table rock next Tuesday, May 1st. A ball game will be played and a good, social time is anticipated.

W. W. Scott, who recently sold his ranch home near the foothills west of town, will soon commence the erection of a home on lots lately purchased in Central Point.

A number of interesting news letters and contributed articles besides much local news matter is unavoidably crowded out this week. Bear with us friends until we get started.

John Griffiths is building a snug cottage on his property at Sunnyside, adjoining Charlie Gay's home. Sanderson & Sons have the contract and are about to complete the carpenter work.

Rev. Merle, former pastor of the Baptist church in this city, who recently sold his eight-acre place on the Jacksonville road to James A. Larrabee, is removing to his homestead near Butte Falls.

J. R. Cook has taken a position with the Condon Water & Power company and will devote his time to arranging with the people of Eagle Point and surrounding country for the introduction of a light and power line into that section.

John T. Albert, representing the International Harvester company, was here during the week looking for business. While here he established an agency with the well known implement firm of Freeman & Wiley.

Sam Leland, a well known farmer of Sams valley, was in town Friday on business. Mr. Leland drove a valuable horse attached to a light buggy that morning and a short time after hitching the animal at the rack the horse dropped dead. The animal seemed to be in his usual health and the cause of his sudden death is something of a mystery.

F. M. Hopkins, owner of the big apple orchard adjoining Central Point, arrived from Portland Sunday accompanied by his family. We understand Mr. Hopkins will erect a fine residence during the coming Summer and make a permanent home at that place.

"A Trip to the Holy Land," a pleasing and instructive entertainment by G. Maluf and sister, native Syrians, will appear at the opera house tomorrow, (Friday) evening. The Malufs come highly recommended by press and pulpit of all sections and should have a good house. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

W. H. Norcross, one of Central Point's most successful fruit growers, recently purchased a 30-acre tract adjoining his home place one-half mile east of town from Geo. B. Ross, the price being $2800. Mr. Norcross expects to put out the tract to pears next season. He already has 24 acres in bearing apples, portions of which have netted him as high as $900 an acre.
