Local and Personal

Harry Smeed arrived from Condon, Gilliam County, last Friday.

Big consignment of lard cans just arrived at Leever's, the hardware man.

Harry Smood and Ellis Clark left Sunday evening for a trip to Eugene.

A few choice 5-acre tracts adjoining Central Point for sale by Downing & Emry.

Remember that Joe Boswell cleans, presses and patches clothing—makes "new clothing" out of old clothes.

The ladies of the Christian Church will give a dinner and bazaar at the Christian Church on Thanksgiving day. Your patronage is solicited.

Mrs. F. M. Alford, of Gazelle, Cal., arrived here Sunday evening and will spend a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Chittenden.

Select a present for your wife or sweetheart from the jewelry stock at the Central Point Pharmacy. New and up-to-date. 11-1f

August D. Singler, resident agent at Medford for Eilers Piano House, was in town yesterday looking after the interests of his firm. His card will be found in another column of this impression.

R. C. Hensley had a lively runaway Monday, his team becoming frightened at the stockyards south of the depot. They made a circle of a good part of the town, wrecking a telephone pole and breaking the wagon tongue before being stopped.

A complete line of watches has just been received at the Central Point Pharmacy. Call and examine this stock before placing your order. 11-1f

G. S. Moore is having his billiard and pool parlor in the rear of his place of business refloored, and other extensive improvements are contemplated. Mr. Moore's place is one of the most popular in the city and the billiard and pool department is liberally patronized.

D. W. Kuntzen, of Applegate, arrived Sunday from Klamath County, where he has been for a few months employed on the government reclamation work. Mr. Kuntzen is just recovering from an attack of typhoid which he contracted after going east of the range.

FOR SALE—A six-room dwelling in Central Point, in good repair. Barn, good water, some fruit. A bargain. Inquire at this office. 1f

Ben Little was the successful aspirant in the recent examination for rural mail carrier from the Central Point post office. The service will commence on November 16 and will serve the Agate and Table Rock sections. The post offices at these two places will be discontinued.

A. H. Boothby, a former pioneer resident of this valley, and for many years engaged in the lumbering business in Jackson County, was in town last Saturday accompanied by his son. They were here looking over some residence property with a view to locating here permanently. Mr. Boothby has been living at Fort Klamath for several years, but disposed of his interests there recently and returned to Jackson County.

A lusty son was born to the wife of Clyde Applegate, of this city, Sunday. The new arrival tipped the beam at the nine pound notch when he weighed in at the "ring side," and his father is said to weigh about a ton since the happy event. The HERALD has it on good authority that the young man will be named Peter, Jr., to distinguish him from his grandfather, he who levies official tribute on the taxpayers of Jackson County.

Hon. H. Von der Hellen, former representative from Jackson County, returned last Saturday from a trip to Walla Walla, Wash., where he accompanied the party of legislators, headed by Governor Chamberlain, who went to the Washington city to investigate the jute mill at the state penitentiary near that place, with a view to installing a similar industry at the Oregon penitentiary. Hon. W. I. Vawter, of Medford, joint representative from Jackson and Josephine counties, was also a member of the party.

ELECTION RETURNS

Tuesday's election resulted in a majority of 60,000 for Hughes (rep.) in New York, with remaining ticket in doubt. Republican landslide in Colorado; Idaho in doubt, with chances favoring the democrats. Other states about normal.

Mrs. Eddy's Case.

The sensational story printed recently by the New York World and, simultaneously in most of the larger papers of the country, to the effect that Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, the discoverer and founder of Christian Science, is dead or dying, that she is a mental and physical wreck, and that for months she has been impersonated in her daily drives by another person, has been branded by the Concord Evening Monitor, a reputable newspaper published in Concord, N. H., Mrs. Eddy's home city, as being maliciously false in every particular. By way of substantiating its claim, the Monitor publishes several columns of denials from bankers, state officials and other prominent residents of Concord, all of which deny in toto that there is a word of truth in the stories published. The witnesses in Mrs. Eddy's behalf who have been examined by the Monitor are, without exception, friends, neighbors and acquaintances of the illustrious woman, and in every case their testimony is in direct contradiction to the stories circulated by the World. They unite in saying that Mrs. Eddy is "keen of intellect, strong of memory, a surprising illustration of longevity, bright eyes, emphatic expression and an alertness rarely to be encountered in a person of such advanced years."

Whether or not we accept all of Mrs. Eddy's beliefs and teachings, all intelligent persons who have taken the trouble to investigate the history of her cult, even superficially, must admit that she has promulgated many truths and that she and her followers have healed the sick and helped humanity in many ways without the apparent aid or any material remedy.

Thanksgiving Ball.

Central Point lodge, No. 193, I. O. O. F., will give a grand ball in the opera house on Thanksgiving evening, which promises to eclipse anything in the terpsichorean line ever given in Central Point. The best music in the valley will be furnished, the floor will be put in finest condition and nothing will be left undone that is necessary to add to the enjoyment of the occasion. Invitations will be sent to neighboring lodges and a large attendance is expected from all sections of the valley.

Value of The Home Paper

Good schools, good churches and good roads are a grand thing to have in a community. In order to have these things people must be educated to take pride in all these. Your home paper can and will do more to encourage all of these things than any other agency. The school children read with pleasure home happenings and as they grow up become interested and useful citizens. Give the children the home paper to read. It costs you but a trifle.

Council Meeting.

The town council met in regular session Monday evening, with Chairman J. W. Jacobs, Councilmen Fox and Owen and Recorder Boswell present.

After attending to routine business the office of Councilman H. Warner was declared vacant, he having removed from the town, and upon motion S. A. Pattison was elected to fill the unexpired term.

The question of municipal water-works was discussed informally, and other matters relative to the future growth and progress of the town were given attention.

The reception committee is composed of Prof. A. J. Hanby, Mrs. Stella Purkepile, Miss Elizabeth Gibson, Mrs. A. J. Hanby, Miss Carrie Martin.

The instructors for the institute include: State Superintendent J. H. Ackerman, B. F. Mulkey, president State Normal at Ashland; Superintendent R. F. Robinson of Multnomah County; W. F. Cameron, Superintendent Ashland city schools; Miss Cornelia Marvin, State Librarian; M. B. Signs, Superintendent Medford schools; Chas. H. Jones, editor Oregon Teachers' Monthly; J. Percy Wells, Superintendent Jacksonville schools; Superintendent Lincoln Savage, Josephine County.

All teachers in the public schools of Jackson County are required to be present at the annual institutes.

Keep it Out of the Paper

"Keep it out of the paper" is the cry which the local newspaper hears almost daily. To oblige often costs considerable, though the party who makes the request thinks the granting scarcely worth saying "thank you" for. A newspaper is a peculiar thing in the public's eye. The news gatherer is stormed because he gets hold of one item and abused because he does not get another. Young men, and often young women, as well as older persons perform acts which become legitimate news for publication and then rush to the newspaper office and beg the editor not to notice their escapades. The next day they condemn the same paper for not having published another party for doing the same thing they were guilty of, forgetting, apparently, their request to keep out a legitimate news item.

Eastern Star Meeting.

A party of ladies and gentlemen from this place attended the last meeting of the Eastern Star lodge at Jacksonville and all report an exceptionally pleasant evening. Among those present from Central Point were the following: Mr. and Mrs. L. Hatfield, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Robnett, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Neale, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Norcross, Mr. and Mrs. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Leever, Mrs. Veaght and Mrs. Louella Wright.

Table Rockets

Table Rock post office will be discontinued after November 15th, and our mail, after that date, should be addressed to us at Central Point, R. F. D., No. 2.

The boys observed Halloween in the usual senseless manner.

Road Supervisor J. I. Fradenberg put in some good work on the road leading to Sams Valley recently.

Two of our energetic farmers have developed a stand of bees that swarm at night and take their hives along.

Not enough rain yet to enable our farmers to start their plows.

Hon. J. D. Olwell was out here Monday in a big automobile, which caused much rubbernecking—the auto, not John D.

Several Indians from Klamath County camped at Agate last Friday night. It is reported that the drag store at that place did a rushing business that night at the expense of poor Lo.

Things are sure coming our way. The morning after Halloween we found in our front yard a bee hive, presumably well filled with honey, and a fine squash was roosting on a gate post. The carving on the squash was so well done that it presents a striking likeness to the generous donor.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

A barefaced lie isn't nearly so dangerous as a two faced lie.

The man who wins is his own excuse for occupying the earth.

It always looks so foolish to see another fellow suffering with the toothache.

We don't notice other people's faults so much when they are paying close attention to our virtues.

The world is growing better, but not at such a rapid rate that it is likely to yearn to support you and your family just out of the goodness of its heart.

A new hair ribbon is as dear to a little girl's heart as his big automobile is to her dad.

If the man in the moon isn't a high liver, he looks it.

People are Waking Up

on the orchard proposition in the Rogue River Valley. A good orchard on the right kind of land is very attractive.

The right kind of an orchard will prove a bonanza; the wrong kind is sure to prove a "white elephant" on the owner's hands. A man who is not in touch with the orchard business cannot put you right on the proposition any more than a blind man can lead a blind man. If you want to avoid getting left with a "white elephant" on your hands, do business with the

Rogue River Land Company,
Medford, Oregon.

They are in touch with the orchard business, thoroughly familiar with every tract in the valley, know what each district is best adapted for, and they will see that you are put right in every instance. Every man who has ever bought through this agency can sell to-day for a great advance over his purchase price. This is endorsement enough. Consult any business man, bank or orchardman in the valley as to their reliability.
