VOL. 1.

CENTRAL POINT, OREGON, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1906.

NO. 35

Local and Personal

J. R. Gibbon had his name enrolled on the HERALD list this week.

George Merritt, who has been seriously ill for the past week, is improving.

Mrs. F. H. Hopkins, who has been visiting in Portland for ten days, is expected home today.

Holiday goods, all kinds and descriptions, at the Central Point Pharmacy.

Pliny Strange, business manager of the Medford Tribune, is dangerously ill with typhoid pneumonia.

A few choice 5-acre tracts adjoining Central Point for sale by Downing & Emry.

Dr. Camp, who has been seriously ill at the home of her son, C. S. Sanderson, for some time, does not improve.

Buster Brown has something to say to you this week in regard to holiday buying. Read Hatfield's new ad and "wise up" on some of Buster's wisdom.

Holiday goods; Christmas presents; New Year gifts at the Central Point Pharmacy.

Tomorrow will be the shortest day of the year. The lazy man who fails to get enough sleep to do him these nights should hire a cheap boy to help him sleep.

Ralph Harder, buttermaker at the Central Point Creamery plant, and I. A. Marrison attended the recent meeting of the Oregon Dairyman's association which met at Ashland.

Select a Christmas present for your wife, mother, sister or sweetheart, as the case may be, from the mammoth stock of holiday goods at the Central Point Pharmacy.

Attention is called to the new holiday ads of Cranfill & Robnett, Mary A. Mee, Fansher & Fansher, Weeks & Baker, "The Toggery" and the Medford Book Store in this impression.

The revival meetings at the Christian church continue, with several conversions. A special service for young people will be held tomorrow evening. A new baptistry is being constructed in the church.

FOR SALE—A six-room dwelling in Central Point, in good repair. Barn, good water, some fruit. A bargain. Inquire at this office.

A big delegation of the United Artisans of this place attended the grand rally at Jacksonville Tuesday evening. They report having had a fine reception at the hands of their Jacksonville neighbors.

Mrs. Fred Sifers, of near Tolo, was in town Saturday doing her Christmas shopping. Mrs. Sifers has succeeded in growing lemons at her Tolo home that in size and general excellence compare more than favorably with the California product.

There is an excellent field here for some practical sawmill man to acquire a tract of timber within reach of Central Point and install a sawmill to supply the local demand for lumber. Such timber tracts are within reach and the market is here beyond question. There is money in the proposition and the man who gets in first will be in luck.

Central Point has the "edge" over Portland these days in this: Portland is "up against" a strike, because the electric car men have struck. Central Point has no strike, because the electric car line has not yet struck Central Point. How does that strike you? It struck us as very striking.

Frank Hawk is busy installing his new electric triphammer in his machine and blacksmith shop this week. The machine is so nicely adjusted that he can break the crystal on your watch with a tap from the 1000 pound hammer. He does not insure the watch, however.

Lost—Last Saturday, either in Central Point or Medford, a gold Eastern Star pin. Finder please return to Geo. L. Neale, Central Point, or leave at the HERALD office.

A. E. Moore, who has been connected with the Medford Mail for several years, has severed his connection with that paper and recently assumed the editorial management of the Daily Tribune, of that city. Mr. Moore is an experienced newspaperman, and under his direction the Tribune shows marked improvement.

Buster Brown is after you again this week—and every week—with excellent advice regarding business matters in the grocery and clothing line. L. Hatfield is Buster's regular chum, in this town, and after you read the "Buster Brown" ad you should call into Hatfield's store and have him tell you what he knows about it. It is worth while.

The Medford laundry wagon will call for work in Central Point each Monday afternoon and Friday morning. Expert ironers from City Hall French laundry, San Francisco, employed. First class work guaranteed. 7-tf

A party of members of the Artisans lodge consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson, Mr. and Mrs. Cook and Messrs. Nichols and Applegate visited the lodge of that order at Jacksonville Tuesday evening and report having been most royally entertained. After the assembly session the visitors were entertained at a sumptuous spread in the banquet hall, at which 100 plates were laid. Dr. Manion, of Portland, supreme examiner of the order, was present, as was also Organizer Ely. Dr. Manion is reported to have adopted a small edition of a San Francisco earthquake refugee at the close of the banquet, and as her dollship is said to be totally destitute of conventional apparel, the doctor is said to be devoting his spare moments to mastering the art of needle work and to replenishing her wardrobe.

Growing Aches and Pains

Mrs. Josie Sumner, Bremond, Tex., writes, April 15, 1902: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for three years. I would not be without it in the house. I have used it for my little girl for growing pains and aches in her knees. It cured her right away. I have also used it for frost bitten feet, with good success. It is the best liniment I ever used." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Central Point Pharmacy.

Friday, December 14th being Miss Myrtle Corum, our teacher's birthday, her scholars, to show their good will, assembled in the evening at the residence of Mr. Bissell, where she is boarding, and presented her with a handsome photo box. The presentation was made on behalf of the scholars by Miss Rose Nealon. The response by Miss Corum showed how well she appreciated the esteem of her pupils. All present enjoyed the occasion greatly.

On Saturday evening Mrs. E. B. Bissell entertained the members of her Sunday-school class at her pleasant home in a manner that made them proud of their teacher.

The Agate school takes a two weeks' vacation, which enables the teacher, Miss Mas Nealon, to spend the holidays at home.

Our Christmas tree is an assured success, and the only thing now troubling those in charge is how they will find room for all who will attend.

Geo. L. Neale has secured two boxes of fine apples from the orchard of W. P. Myers and will express the same to the Masonic and Eastern Star lodges at Condon, his former home, and where Mr. and Mrs. Neale still hold their membership in these orders, for use at the annual banquets which follow the annual installation of officers. This will not only give his lodge friends there a chance to enjoy some of the best fruit on earth, but will also prove a good advertisement for this valley.

For Sale—Lot of fine furniture and stoves. Bargains. See Chas. Gay.

THAT'S IT!!!

Cough yourself into a fit of spasms and then wonder why you don't get well. If you will only try a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup your cough will be a thing of the past. It is a positive cure for Coughs, Influenza, Bronchitis and all Plumonary diseases. One bottle will convince you—at your druggist, 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Central Point Pharmacy.

DIED

Oliver Bursell, an old and respected resident of Central Point, died at his home here Monday evening, aged 62 years, 7 months and 4 days.

Deceased had been in failing health for several months, but lately his condition was not considered particularly serious until two days before his death, when he suddenly grew worse.

He was a native of Sweden, but had been a resident of this country for many years.

A widow and three children survive him. The children are: Mrs. Ellen Benson and Victor Bursell, of this place, and Arvard Bursell, who is a student in the Medical College at Portland. The latter reached home Tuesday morning in response to a telegram.

The funeral service was observed at the home at 1:30 p. m. yesterday, being conducted by Rev. T. M. Jones, interment being in the Central Point cemetery.

People are Waking Up on the orchard proposition in the Rogue River Valley. A good orchard on the right kind of land is very attractive.

The right kind of an orchard will prove a bonanza; the wrong kind is sure to prove a "white elephant" on the owner's hands. A man who is not in touch with the orchard business cannot put you right on the proposition any more than a blind man can lead a blind man. If you want to avoid getting left with a "white elephant" on your hands, do business with the Rogue River Land Company, Medford, Oregon.

They are in touch with the orchard business, thoroughly familiar with every tract in the valley, know what each district is best adapted for, and they will see that you are put right in every instance. Every man who has ever bought through this agency can sell to-day for a great advance over his purchase price. This is endorsement enough. Consult any business man, bank or orchardman in the valley as to their reliability.

Big Fortunes in Copper.

COPPER

In single industry in the world is now paying so large a profit on the amount of money invested as the copper industry. During the last 20 years the copper mines of the United States and Mexico have paid in actual dividends, $300,000,000. Since January 1st, of this year, ten copper companies alone have distributed in earnings nearly $15,000,000. Shasta and Siskiyou counties, California, are today producing more pounds of copper, for the amount of money invested than any other district in the United States.

The mining of copper is making more millionaires than any other industry in the world and is making them quicker. To make large profits on a small outlay, in copper, one must purchase shares in a company that has just begun operations but which can prove that it has great deposits of the metal, and which is selling its shares at a low price in order to obtain funds to purchase equipment and enlarge its operations. The advancing price of copper and the growing demand and consumption of the metal have made copper mines the most sought after of all mineral properties. There are countless opportunities for profitable investment in the development of the natural resources of the West, but only those who have visited the Blue Ledge mining district, situated in Siskiyou county, California, can, in the slightest degree, appreciate the vast opportunities for profitable investments in that new and thriving copper camp. Properties owned by the Joe Creek copper company are: First National, Greenwood and Deadwood, all situated as than one-half mile from the famous

Blue Ledge mine which is being developed on an immense scale by New York capitalists. Development on the First National is steadily advancing, the cross cut tunnel, driven from the foot wall, beside the vein, has already reached a depth of 100 feet and an additional 50 feet will have been driven before the vein will be encountered. The outcropping of the vein is from 50 to 100 feet wide and traverses the First National and Greenwood their full length—3000 feet.

Development work under competent management will be energetically advanced throughout the winter months. This property is surrounded by the Cook and Green, Bloomfield, Midnight and Blue Ledge mines.

Among the stockholders of this company may be mentioned Simon Shaw, mining operator, prospector and miner; Wm. Angle, retired merchant, Medford; Edgar Hafer, manager of the Iowa L. and B. Co., Medford; A. A. Davis, capitalist, Medford; J. W. Chapman, banker, Red Lodge, Montana; Wm. Hart Hamilton, of Hobbs, Wall and Co., one of the owners of the Blue Ledge, Crescent City, Cal.; J. F. Reddy, mining operator, Medford; H. C. Garnett, merchant, Medford; Geo. Putnam, Oregon Journal, Portland; J. A. Adams, mine owner, Medford; Mrs. J. A. Adams, Medford; Geo. P. Mims, mining operator, Goldfield, Nev.; Chas. Conrad, merchant, Portland; Max Hallorin, merchant, Portland; J. Wetzel, attorney, Portland; L. S. Thompson, capitalist, New York; Wm. Payne Thompson, capitalist, New York; H. W. Carney, manufacturer, Cleveland, Ohio; and E. N. Warner, merchant, Medford.

The Joe Creek Copper Company is now offering a limited number of its treasury shares at 5 cents.

MADE A GOOD CLEAN UP

About fifteen months ago Mr. John Weinstrom, one of the Montana Copper Company's chemists at the Bull's Head plant, on San Francisco bay, invested $100 in Mohawk stock at around twelve cents a share. The other day it is understood he disposed of the shares at a price averaging over $15 per share or in the neighborhood of $15,000—a very fair clean-up in the coin of the realm.
