

Social Events.

A most pleasant occasion was enjoyed by the whist club last Saturday evening at the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holmes at their home on Third street. About twenty members of the club and several other guests were present and the evening was delightfully spent at progressive whist. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess at midnight.

Earle Moore, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Moore, celebrated his twelfth birthday Monday evening after school, and in honor of the occasion he entertained some fifteen or more of his boy-friends at his home on Second St.

Rheumatic Pains Relieved.

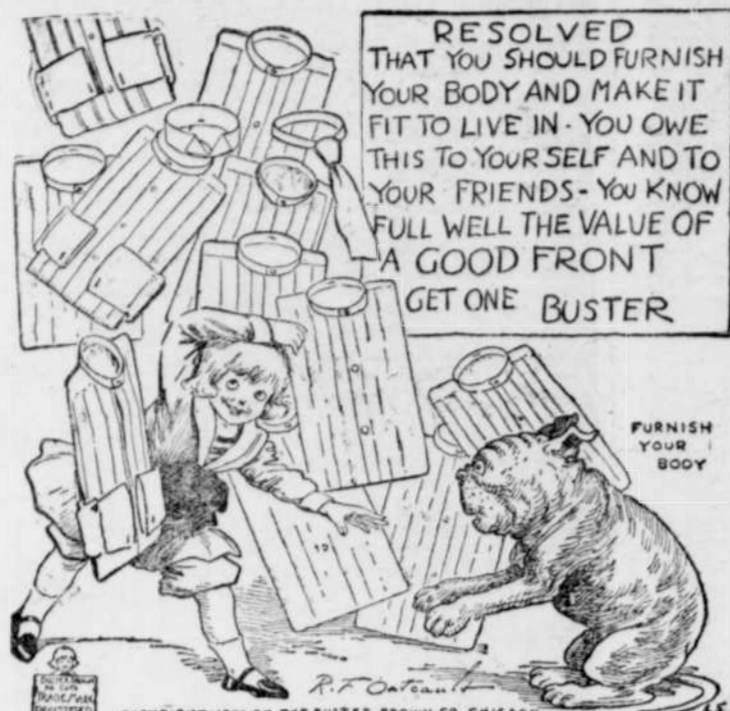

E. F. Crocker, Esq., now 84 years of age, and for twenty years Justice of the Peace at Martinsburg, Iowa, says: "I am terribly afflicted with static rheumatism in my left arm and right hip. I have used three bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it did me lots of good." For sale by Mary A. Mee.

YOU'LL COME RIGHT UP to our way of thinking and understand our way of doing business just as soon as you have made your first visit to our store and seen things. It is true that our system is different from others, but inasmuch as we have an increasing list of patrons who are satisfied with our goods, our service and our prices, we think we may fairly claim that the people approve of our business methods and believe in us.

Lose on Appeal.

Ex-Congressman J. N. Williamson, Dr. Van Gessner and Marion Biggs, who were convicted of conspiracy and subornation of perjury in connection with Crook County land frauds more than a year ago, met with an adverse decision in the U. S. Court of Appeals in San Francisco Monday. Their only recourse now will be an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States. The men have already been sentenced in the United States District Court at Portland to from five months to one year's imprisonment on McNeal island.

The Wrong Jam.

Haskell—What's Bobby crying for? Mrs. Haskell—Oh, the poor boy caught his finger in the pantry door. Haskell—If'n! He evidently didn't get the jam he was looking for that time.—Pick-Me-Up.

The responsibility of great wealth is a serious thing, but most of us are made of sterner stuff and are willing to do our duty.

Nothing but experience will convince youth that the bank account of health isn't exhaustible.

A beautiful aphorism is invaluable to hand out to a complaining brother when you regard his case as hopeless.

FRIEND TO FRIEND.

The personal recommendations of people who have been cured of coughs and colds by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have done more than all else to make it a staple article of trade and commerce over a large part of the civilized world.
