

Heavy Travel Oregon Bound.

(Special Correspondence.)
 PORTLAND OREGON, SEPT. 9, 1907.
 My, but how Oregon is growing! The same glad note of progress—new buildings, new people—comes from many sections.

Great interest is manifested in the Oregon Irrigation Association at Grants Pass this week.

The Oregon State Fair at Salem gives assurance of being the best ever held. There is a disposition here to make "Portland Day," Sept. 19th, a greater success from the standpoint of attendance than ever before.

Secretary Taft's reception by the Oregon Development League broke all records. Many people went to the Armory as early as six o'clock. The entire state was represented upon the platform and in the audience by well-known Oregonians, and all of them have a better understanding of the Panama Canal than ever before.

The advertising habit has certainly struck Oregon. Almost every bank, business house and factory in Portland and throughout the state are distributing leaflets in their correspondence.

The noted Kikujiro Ishii, Chief of the Japanese Bureau of Foreign Commerce, was recently entertained here, and he took pains to say that war between his country and the United States was impossible.

Both the wheat and hop crop were much less injured by rain than was at first reported.

A Tillamook cheese is on display here, which weighs 356 pounds and represents the product for one day of 190 cows. It will be cut and sold at retail for Thanksgiving.

The Country Club & Livestock Association have bought a site for their home and work will begin at once.

Travel is enormous. Many families are coming to the state and for many hours during the day the Union Station shows an activity similar to that witnessed at a great national convention. They are ticketed for all points throughout the state, and this travel will continue until the close of the colonist rates, October 31st.

Portland artists are to be congratulated upon securing better photographs of Secretary Taft than have ever been taken before. None of his pictures in the Eastern papers compare with those printed here, and pictures made here will be used by the correspondents who accompany the Secretary from this time forward.

The MANUFACTURERS' RECORD of Baltimore, the leading industrial paper of the South, devotes two pages to Portland and the Northwest in a recent issue. The SATURDAY EVENING POST will discuss the same subject in its issue of Saturday, Sept. 21.

Our Big Clubbing Offer.

Arrangements have just been completed whereby the Central Point Herald is enabled to make one of the greatest clubbing offers ever made by an Oregon newspaper. Here it is: Central Point Herald, per year, $1.50. Oregon Journal (semi-weekly), $1.50. Pacific Monthly " " " " $1.00.

Total - - - - - $4.00.
 Our price for all three, only

$2.50

The Semi-weekly Journal is the leading semi-weekly newspaper of the state. It gives all the general and state news and in addition gives the complete and correct market reports twice each week. In the Friday issue a page of "Funny Pictures" for the children, a page of short stories, and other features make it a welcome visitor in every home.

The Pacific Monthly, published at Portland, is the leading magazine of the West. It is ably edited and beautifully illustrated. Its stories are clean, wholesome and interesting, all with more or less of a flavor of the West. Special articles on irrigation, stock-raising and similar industries are at once entertaining and instructive.

The Central Point Herald is a strictly local newspaper. The HERALD does its best to set forth the advantages of the Rogue River Valley, particularly that portion immediately adjacent and tributary to its town. It labors for the advancement and upbuilding of Central Point and vicinity and is entitled to the support of every citizen of this section of the Valley.

Take advantage of this great offer at once. It will only stand for a limited time. Three Publications that you need for the price of two. You save $1.50 and that's "worth while."
