and clerks must be electors of the town of Central Point or of the ward for which they are appointed, but an error in the call for election, or the qualification of the judges and clerks of election shall not invalidate the election, provided the same has been conducted fairly and honestly in the judgment of the council.

Section 6. Immediately after the close of the polls the ballots shall be counted and the returns made out and certified by the clerks and judges of election. The ballots shall be placed in packages and the packages securely sealed, and within twenty-four hours thereafter the returns shall be filed and the packages containing the ballots deposited with the recorder.

Section 7. Within five days after any election the common council shall meet and canvass the returns, and the recorder shall, upon order of the council, issue and deliver to the person or persons declared elected a certificate of election under his hand and the seal of the town.

Section 8. The council, sitting as a canvassing board, is the judge of the qualifications and election of the mayor and the councilmen, and in case of a contest between two or more persons claiming to be elected thereto, must determine the same, subject, however, to review by any court of competent jurisdiction. Contests for all other offices must be governed by the laws of the state regulating proceedings in contested elections for county offices, but in case two or more candidates shall have an equal and the highest number of votes for any office provided for in this act, the common council shall decide the election.

Section 9. All persons elected or appointed to any office shall be legal electors of the town and shall, before entering upon the duties thereof, take and subscribe an oath or affirmation to support the Constitution and laws of the United States, the Constitution and laws of the State of Oregon, and faithfully to perform the duties of the office to which he may have been elected or appointed, to the best of his knowledge and ability, and comply with such other prerequisites as may be required by ordinance.

Section 10. In case any vacancy shall occur in any elective office, the same shall be filled by the common council by electing some qualified person to fill such vacancy.

Section 11. Whenever the town shall have been divided into wards, each ward shall elect one councilman in each year, unless in case of filling a vacancy and then they shall elect one for one year and one for two years.

They shall choose one of their number to preside over the council and perform the duties of mayor for such year in the absence of the mayor or during his inability to act. He shall be designated and known as the "Chairman of the Council," and for such year, during all times when the mayor is absent or unable to attend or act in any matter, such chairman shall have and exercise the powers and perform the duties of mayor; and if at any meeting both the mayor and chairman are absent, the councilman present shall elect one of their number chairman pro tem, who shall preside for the purposes of such meeting.

And may declare the office of any councilman vacant who shall be guilty of scandalous conduct. But no councilman shall be expelled without notice and opportunity of a hearing by the council. A change of residence by a councilman to any place outside the corporate limits or to a different ward, shall operate to vacate his office.
