A Case of the Lion's Share.

We don't want to out-crowd others; but if, by giving better qualities, better service, and asking lower prices, we are going to have the lion's share of the business in our line, why we'll take it and think we are entitled to it, too. It is only by overwhelming all competition in this way that we can expect to lead, and we are determined to give the public the benefit of our superior business methods.

Among Table Ornaments

A well-filled decanter has first choice among "choice spirits." That "little drop of something" that sounds so vague and mysterious, has really a definite meaning when it is bought of us. It then means "something good." Everybody likes to blow their own horn, but our customers are the ones that give us the most praise. They swear by the high quality Wines and Liquors that we handle. You'll do the same after trying them.
