Agate Actions.

A box social was held at the Agate schoolhouse last Saturday evening that was a pronounced success from every standpoint. A fine program was rendered and the lunch boxes brought good prices. Jim Owen, who is in politics to the extent of being a candidate for county commissioner, acted as auctioneer and "got a the mo" to the extent of more than $60. Much credit is due the efficient teacher, Miss Mae Nealon, for her hard work in training the pupils in their parts, as well as to the pupils, who all gave their best efforts for the success of the occasion.

The contract for the erection of a fine new two-room schoolhouse at Agate has been awarded to H. C. Messenger, the contract price being $2150. The building is to be completed by August 25. This will be by far the best country schoolhouse in the county.

Our Big Clubbing Offer.

Arrangements have just been completed whereby the Central Point Herald is enabled to make one of the greatest clubbing offers ever made by an Oregon newspaper. Here it is:
 Central Point Herald, per year, $1.50.
 Oregon Journal (semi-weekly), $1.50.
 Pacific Monthly - - - $1.00.
 Total - - - - $4.00.
 Our price for all three, only
$2.50

The Semi-weekly Journal is the leading semi-weekly newspaper of the state. It gives all the general and state news and in addition gives the complete and correct market reports twice each week. In the Friday issue a page of "Funny Pictures" for the children, a page of short stories, and other features make it a welcome visitor in every home.

The Pacific Monthly, published at Portland, is the leading magazine of the West. It is ably edited and beautifully illustrated. Its stories are clean, wholesome and interesting, all with more or less of a flavor of the West. Special articles on irrigation, stock-raising and similar industries are at once entertaining and instructive.

The Central Point Herald is a strictly local newspaper. The HERALD does its best to set forth the advantages of the Rogue River Valley, particularly that portion immediately adjacent and tributary to its town. It labors for the advancement and upbuilding of Central Point and vicinity and is entitled to the support of every citizen of this section of the Valley.

Take advantage of this great offer at once. It will only stand for a limited time. Three Publications that you need for the price of two. You save $1.50 and that's "worth while."

Those who mourn over the alleged dying out of the good old American stock may take comfort from the record of war widow Barnum, who died recently, leaving fourteen great-grandchildren and a total of thirty-four descendants, representing three generations. Widow Barnum belonged to an old colonial family, which took an active part in the Revolution. Her husband served in the war of 1812.

The Japanese who fought against Stoenel have given him praise for bravery and ability. It is always a good thing to refrain from minimizing the strength of the man you have beaten. By making him out to be great you magnify your own achievement. Wellington didn't spend much of his time after Waterloo in trying to make it appear that Napoleon was a fourth rate general.

Base Ball.

The local baseball team went to Eagle Point Sunday and waxed it to the onion raisers to a fare-you-well. The game started off fast and furious, and in the first five innings only one tally, and it to the credit of the Eagle Pointers, broke the monopoly of the long rows of "goose eggs" which were lined up on the score card. Then, in the sixth, the Central Pointers woke up and brought in five nice ones and the Eagles packed in three. Then there was a let up till the ninth, when Central Point again came to the front with three and the game was theirs by a score of eight to four.

Features of the game were Pankey's pitching and the excellent batting done by his team.

The following is the lineup:

CENTRAL POINT.	EAGLE POINT.
Pankey	p N. Hall
E. Claak	c E. Hall
Ross	ss H. Smith
F. Farra	1st H. Dailey
B. Sanderson	2nd R. Ashpole
B. Peart	3rd Patterson
H. Beal	rf Fox
C. Clark	lf D. Brown
H. Peart	cf Lewis

The second nine put up a good game Sunday on the local diamond against a lot of big 200-pounders from Jacksonville. While the score was 15 to 11 in favor of the visitors when the difference in weight and age is considered, it was not so bad. Tommy Kincaid pitched for the home team and, though still a lightweight and a kid, he throws a "nasty" ball and some of the doubles made were worthy of many an older and more experienced player. The second nine has the making of some rattling good players in its lineup and before many years some of these boys are likely to be found among the "way-ups."

The "infant class" team, or which little Bob Holmes is the chief financier, was on the turf bright and early last Saturday morning making a collection for "des a little 'spense money to help uth out while we go to Jackthoville to clean up dem kids." Bob and the rest of that bunch are all right when it comes to "pulling the leg" of the staid and unsuspecting citizen, and when they went whizzing out of town in a big red automobile the '9ers and everybody else sat up and took notice and took off their several hats to the 20th Century kidlet with the baseball germ and the ability to finance an auto ride in preference to walking five miles and back. The score of this game was lost in the blaze of color of the red auto.

The Ashland Normal team will cross bats with the local team here Saturday, the 18th inst. This promises to be the best game so far played here this season and all lovers of the national game should be sure to be on hand to see the struggle from start to finish.

The Jacksonville (hitching) Post has developed a brand new sporting editor and publisher and the fit he threw over the recent Central Point-Jacksonville fiasco last week was a corker. A long suffering public had become reconciled to "Tanglefoot" in all its pristine beauty and vigor, because the former (hitching) Post man had the "Overholt" on us, but this latest "Barnestormer," when he gets to perpetrating bad poetry in a ball game writeup, shows signs of an overventuresome spirit that betokens early decay and indicates that the Jacktowners may not "Feel so fine" when the "hay jugglers" get into training and go after the proposition right. Heigho; this is a funny old world, anyhow. Any old thing can write poetry now, but they can't all write it right.

Object to Strong Medicines.
 Many people object to taking the strong medicines usually prescribed by physicians for rheumatism. There is no need of internal treatment in any case of muscular or chronic rheumatism, and more than nine out of every ten cases of the disease are of one or the other of these varieties. When there is no fever and little (if any) swelling, you may know that it is only necessary to apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely to get quick relief. Try it. For sale by Mary A. Mee.
