

HOLIDAY SPIRIT AND ROSES REIGN

Pacific Coast Ad Men Give Unique Dinner.

Portland, Ore., June 2, 1903.
(Special Correspondence.)

The Portland Rose Festival opened with all Portland in a holiday humor, flower-wreathed windows and roses in evidence everywhere. Thousands of visitors from outside points are in the city, and incoming crowds are greeted by an immense Arch of Welcome erected at the approach to the Union Station. The Mosquito Fleet lies at anchor in the harbor; an excursion of over a hundred people, under the auspices of the Sacramento Valley Development League, arrived this morning from the south. Washington is sending generous delegations, and an excursion is expected from Lewiston, Idaho, tomorrow morning. The whole Northwest feels that in addition to the innumerable purely attractive features of the celebration the event is a marvelous advertisement of the climatic conditions, for nowhere else in the world can flowers be found more beautiful than the roses of the North Pacific Coast. The grand parade will exceed anything ever shown on the Coast, and besides all the leading towns of Oregon, Washington will be represented in the floats and decorated vehicles.

When the Oregon Development League recently asked the co-operation of the state in making a comprehensive exhibit of the products of the Pacific Northwest, heartiest assurances of help came from every quarter, but before definite arrangements could be completed the trustees of the Commercial Club building were offered a five years' rental of $21,000 for the exhibit room and felt compelled to accept this in justice to the stockholders. But the officers of the League say that their plan will yet materialize.

Both the Pacific Monthly Magazine and Sunset appear as special Rose Festival numbers for June. Nothing proves the activity of Oregon and Washington communities so forcibly as a glance through the advertising sections of these Coast-published magazines.

Manufacturers in all parts of the United States seem to be taking a new interest in the investigation of conditions here in the Northwest, and especially in this true of the factory which represents a moderate investment.

From every city of any size on the Coast delegates have come to Portland to attend the session of the Pacific Coast Ad Men's Association. It is being held in the Convention Hall of the Commercial Club building, and the Association will enjoy a unique dinner at the Club tonight. Their banquets are probably the most unusual and interesting given by any convention. They have been compared to similar affairs of the famous Grid Iron Club of Washington, and, since the Portland Ad Men claim to have the largest Advertising Club in America, they are making special efforts as hosts.

A communication went out last week from the Portland Commercial Club to the organizations of the state asking for a supply of literature issued by each community. Special files of these publications are kept for the information and benefit of newcomers, who naturally come to the larger cities first and to whom such a distributing bureau will be of the utmost advantage. The whole Pacific Northwest is included in the scope of this work.

Mr. Will Soon Resume.

W. J. Virgin, Jr., who was called from Sioux Falls, S. D., last week by the sudden death of his father, was here Tuesday looking after the interests of his father's estate at this place. Mr. Virgin expects to remain in Oregon indefinitely. While here he expressed appreciation for the excellent patronage and encouragement given to his late father's business here and made the announcement that the flouring mills will doubtless resume operation within a few days.

Memorial Day Exercises.

Memorial Day was fittingly celebrated here last Saturday, a large number of citizens joining with the few remaining veterans of the Civil war in repairing to the cemetery, where the graves of the veterans were decorated and appropriate exercises were held. Rev. A. N. Jacquemin of the Baptist church delivered an excellent address, following the ritualistic service of the G. A. R. Post which was read by Adjutant J. W. Hicks. Special services were held at the M. E. church on the previous Sunday, when the memorial sermon was delivered by the pastor, Rev. B. A. Bristol.

Not so many abusive valentines were sent through the mails this year as formerly. The peculiar form of brain fag that has prompted their use hitherto finds expression now in letting loose an avalanche of picture portraits.

Skeletons now harbored in prohibition territory will have to move over a little closer to make room for a jug or two in the closet.

In the Regular Way.

The man who originated the sobriquet "carpetbagger" is dead, but he lived long enough to see the carpetbag entirely displaced by the dress suit case.

A Swift Game.

The local ball team went down to Grants Pass Sunday and engaged in a swift nine inning game with the A. A. C. team of that city. It was one of the best games of the season in this valley, and the Pointers lost out by a scratch in a 5 to 4 score. It was the old story of our team falling down in the first inning and allowing their hosts to score four times in the initial round-up, but after that they played ball like veterans and after the second they failed to give the Pass boys a look-in. In errors, strikes, stealing bases and general allround playing the Pointers put up the best game. But that everlasting headache of the first inning queer-ed the Pointers proper. If the rules could be amended to not start counting until the second round the Pointers would be nine time winners.
A good game is scheduled for this place next Sunday between the home team and Ashland, and it is probable the Grants Pass team will be here the Sunday following.

Chamberlain Wins.

Returns from throughout the state show that George E. Chamberlain is safely elected as U. S. senator, receiving a majority of more than 1000 votes over Calk. Fifty-two Statehood members of the legislature elected insure his election in that body.
The rest of the republican state ticket is elected.
Prohibition carried in most of the counties, all Western Oregon counties except Multnomah and Marion being reported in the dry column. Gilliam, Sherman, Morrow, Wallowa, Grant and Klamath counties, in Eastern Oregon, are also reported dry.
The Equal Suffrage amendment is defeated, but the fate of most of the amendments will not be known until complete returns are in.
In Jackson County, Neil is elected over Dunn, Jones over Jackson, and Purdin and Miller over Hammersley and Kubli. The county is dry by a heavy majority. Medford went wet by but 16 votes.

Water "Jag" the Latest.

Chicago, June 1.—Water intoxication induced by too copious use of water externally or internally was pointed out last night by Dr. L. D. Mason, vice-president of the American Society for the Study of Inebriety, Alcohol and Drug Neurosis as being as dangerous as overindulgence in alcohol.
Dr. Mason, a leading physician and philanthropist of Brooklyn, delegate to the American Medical Association Convention, addressed inmates of the Washington Home on "Why Men Drink." He declared patent medicine drunkenness almost as prevalent as the generally recognized forms.
"I have a friend who is a victim of aqua mania," he said. "He spends hours in a bath-tub and drinks so much water that he has reduced the solids of his body and worked serious injury to himself. Many men and women drink too much water and are victims of that form of intoxication."
"We are all creatures of habit. And our best men and women are victims of habit. Thousands are victims of patent medicine drunkenness. One prominent temperance lecturer of my acquaintance drinks so much of this stuff that he is constantly under the influence of this drug or intoxicant. Most of these patent medicines are 75 per cent cheap whisky."
"This really is a serious question for temperance societies. When they secure a pledge of abstinence from a woman or man they also should exact a pledge against the use of patent medicines."
"Tea and coffee drinkers also generally are intemperate. They keep themselves constantly under the influence of these stimulants to the injury of their sight and other senses. Cigars are narcotics and men who pride themselves on abstinence from liquor carry one in their mouths all day or a pipe when they go to bed."

Stomach Troubles.

Many remarkable cures of stomach troubles have been effected by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One man who had spent over two thousand dollars for medicine and treatment was cured by a few boxes of these tablets. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at Mary A. Mee's drug store.
