

What is Best for Indigestion?

Mr. A. Robinson of Drumquin, Ontario, has been troubled for years with indigestion, and recommends Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets as "the best medicine I ever used." If troubled with indigestion or constipation give them a trial. They are certain to prove beneficial. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at Mary A. Mee's drug store.

Observation Cars.

On and after November 15, 1907, the observation cars between Portland and Oakland California, on trains Nos. 15 and 16 will be carried through instead of being cut out, as heretofore, at Roseburg.

Southbound, under this new arrangement, passengers holding proper transportation and Pullman accommodations may occupy these cars on the night leaving Portland until reaching Eugene at 12:32 a. m.

A Faithful Friend.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use. I have been a commercial traveler for eighteen years, and never start out on a trip without this, my faithful friend," says H. S. Nichols of Oakland, Ind. Ter. When a man has used a remedy for thirty-five years he knows its value and is competent to speak of it. For sale by Mary A. Mee.

Methodist Church Services.

Preaching services every Sunday at 11 a. m. and every other Sunday evening at 7:30
Sunday School every Sunday morning at 10:00
Epworth League at 6:45 every Sunday evening
Junior Epworth League at 3 p. m. every Sunday
Prayer meeting every Thursday evening at 7:30

Chronic Diarrhoea Relieved.

Mr. Edward E. Henry, with the United States Express Co., Chicago, writes: "Our General Superintendent, Mr. Quick, handed me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy some time ago to check an attack on the old chronic diarrhoea. I have used it since that time and cured many on our trains who have been sick. I am an old soldier who served with Rutherford B. Hayes and William McKinley four years in the 23rd Ohio Regiment, and have no ailment except chronic diarrhoea, which this remedy stops at once." For sale by Mary A. Mee.

New Clubbing Offer.

For a limited time we offer the Central Point Herald and the Thrice-a-Week World (New York) each one year for $2.15. This means 208 papers at a cost of only a cent apiece.

Central Point is going to improve more during the present year than in any year in its past history. You will need the Herald to keep posted on what is doing at home.

A presidential election is coming on this year and you will need the Thrice-a-Week World to keep you posted on national affairs, especially regarding the political situation in New York. Better subscribe today.

Diarrhoea Cured.

"My father has for years been troubled with diarrhoea, and tried every means possible to effect a cure, without avail," writes John H. Zirkle of Philippi, W. Va. "He saw Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy advertised in the Philippi Republican and decided to try it. The result is one bottle cured him and he has not suffered with the disease for eighteen months. Before taking this remedy he was a constant sufferer. He is now sound and well, and although sixty years old, can do as much work as a young man." Sold by Mary A. Mee.

Summer Excursion Rates to Newport.

To afford an opportunity to the people of this locality to visit the coast during the Summer months, the Southern Pacific Company will sell round trip excursion tickets from Central Point to Newport and Yaquina Bay points for $10.00 for the round trip daily from June 1st to October 15th. These tickets are good for return passage for six months from date of sale. Tickets good only for continuous passage each way, except in cases of serious illness of ticketholder or member of his family, when stop-overs or extension of limit may be arranged. THE SCAPEGOAT.

Umpire, in the game's beginning,
Seven strikes were pitched that inning;
"Balls" thou called them; thine the sinning.
On thy head the guilt.

Umpire, how couldst thou have beckoned
Ballyhoooley in from second?
Safe he was, and ill thou reckoned.
On thy head the guilt.

Umpire, Filmdam fumbled badly,
Muffenrabbitt played but sadly,
But we witnesses cried madly,
"On thy head the guilt!"

Umpire, though our pitcher tossed them,
Though our catcher dodged and lost them,
Thy sins were the ones which cost them.
On thy head the guilt.

Umpire, though our hits were scattered,
Though our field defense was shattered,
Little had these details mattered,
On thy head the guilt.

Umpire, each cause hath its martyr
Who can never hope to barter
Merely good intent for quarter.
On thy head the guilt.

Umpire, though we flay and flout thee,
Though forever we will doubt thee,
What would baseball be without thee?
On thy head the guilt.

The Announcement.

The leading man had just appeared before the curtain.

It was not in response to an enthusiastic recall. The play, in fact, hadn't commenced.

Everybody leaned forward to catch his words.

"Ladies and gentlemen," he clearly and forcibly announced, "the management regrets to state that owing to the continued high price and scarcity of white paper the snowstorm in the third act will have to be omitted."—Minneapolis Journal.

All He Had.

A certain Kentucky justice of the peace was called upon to marry a runaway couple who drove up to his house. When the final words were said the bridegroom fumbled in his pockets and finally fished out a silver dollar.

"Judge," said he, "this here's all the cash I've got in the world. If you wants it, you kin have it, but I don't mind tellin' you that I set it aside for the honeymoon expenses."

A Reasonable Argument.

Attendant at Museum—Sir, you know very well that dogs are not admitted here.

Visitor—He isn't my dog.
Attendant—But it followed you in.
Visitor—Well, so did you.

A Cinch.

"He certainly has a good disposition. The last time I saw him he was looking for work, and he didn't seem the least bit unhappy."

"No. That's where he's happiest, because when he's looking for work he hasn't any to do."—Catholic Standard and Times.

Knocking the Neighborhood.

"I understand that your great-grandfather bought this place for a song."

"Yes," answered Farmer Cornstossel; "an' that's why the fam'ly has been terribly prejudiced against music ever since."—Washington Star.

Another Monopoly.

Miss De Young—Stella tells me she has an engagement for every night next week?

Miss De Playne—I don't think that is right when there are so many girls that can't get engaged at all.—Detroit Tribune.

Explained.

Tess—She speaks of him as a "like-ly" young man. What does she mean by that?

Jess—That means a young man who likes her well enough to speak of her as "lovely."—Philadelphia Press.

No Room to Pass.

"Was I scared?" exclaimed Miss Lacer. "Well, I should say! My heart simply sank down into my boots!"
"Impossible!" retorted her candid friend. "It couldn't possibly get past your waist."—Houston Post.

The Real Sequence.

Mrs. Premiere—You always get a new gown before you go away on a visit, don't you?

Mrs. Seconde—No, I always go away on a visit after I get a new gown.—Woman's Home Companion.

Carriage to Match.

"I would advise her if she wants something fitting to buy a runabout."—Baltimore American.

The Retort Courteous.

The Writer—Ah, laugh at me if you will, but I will write of you in my journal that which will make you sick!

The Artist—Everything that monsieur writes makes me sick.—New York Life.

Judgment Was Confirmed.

A certain old time justice of the peace, wishing to bring suit against a citizen, consulted the statutes and found that suits of such a character might be brought before any justice of the peace.

"Well, then," thought he, "I'll just try the case myself."

Straightway he made out a writ against his adversary and signed it.

On the day set for trial the defendant appeared with counsel. Both gentlemen not unnaturally objected to the constitution of the court.

"Why," demanded the justice, "do you deny that I am a justice of the peace?"

The lawyer would not contest this point, but argued that such a construction of the law was against all sense and reason.

A vigorous altercation ensued, and then the judge remarked that not for the world would he have two gentlemen suppose him governed by any personal considerations. "I will therefore," he added gracefully, "render judgment against myself and then appeal to the supreme court."

"But the mischief of it was," said the justice, relating the story afterward, "that when my judgment got to the supreme court it was unanimously reaffirmed."

The Dog's Tail.

A prominent citizen was on trial charged with harboring a vicious dog.

The attorney for the defense had been consulting a dog expert and had learned that if a dog holds his tail up over his back when he barks he is not angry, while if he holds it straight out behind him he is in a belligerent, blood-thirsty frame of mind. Anxious to air his newly acquired information, the lawyer began cross questioning the prosecuting witness thus:

"Now, did you notice the position in which this dog's tail was held when he came at you?"

"I did not," said the witness, "for that was not the end from which I anticipated injury. I had another end in view. Now, if the dog had been a hornet—"

"No levity, sir!" thundered the attorney. "Answer the question. In what position was the dog's tail when he came at you?"

"I believe, sir," faltered the terrified witness, "that it was behind him."—Chicago News.

The King's Cock Crower.

In the good old time there was an English court official known as the king's cock crower. It seems a strange office. Why did the king require a cock crower, and why could not the common barn door variety serve his majesty's purpose? The reason, as you shall see, was that the barn door variety cannot be depended upon for times and hours, and he has never been persuaded to observe Lent. Now, this was a pious custom and a religious duty. All through Lent the king's cock crower crowded instead of calling the hours of the night in the palace. He began on Ash Wednesday, when he entered the hall in which the king's supper was served, and then crowded the hour in the presence of the royal party. The meaning of the custom is obvious. It was only one of the many ways in which the history of the Christian religion was brought home to the minds of people before the reading of the gospel in the vernacular. The office was continued down to the year 1822.—London Queen.

"The Greatest Widower."

This is said to be the title of a genuine essay evolved some years ago by a boy in a Welsh board school:

"King Henry VIII. was the greatest widower that ever lived. He was born at Anno Domini in the year 1066. He had 510 wives besides children. The first was beheaded and executed. The second was beheaded. She never smiled again. But she said the word 'Calais' would be found on her heart after her death. The greatest man in this reign was Lord Sir Garret Wolsey. He was sir named the Boy Bachelor. He was born at the age of 15, unmarried. Henry VIII. was succeeded on the throne by his great-grandmother, the beautiful and accomplished Mary, queen of Scots, sometimes known as the Lady of the Lake!"

Among Table Ornaments

a well-filled decanter has first choice among "choice spirits." That "little drop of something" that sounds so vague and mysterious, has really a definite meaning when it is brought of us. It then means "something good." Everybody likes to blow their own horn, but our customers are the ones that give us the most praise. They swear by the high quality Wines and Liqueurs that we handle. You'll do the same after trying them.
