

Officers Elected.

Central Point Council, No. 1067, Knights and Ladies of Security, installed the following officers for the ensuing year at their last regular meeting:

President, Miss Mary A. Mee; vice-president, Thos. M. Jones; second vice-president, J. A. Mann; secretary, Mrs. Katie Stephenson; financier, Mrs. Cecilia Jones; conductor, Mrs. Mary Price; prelate, Mrs. Emma Bebb; guard, Mrs. Amelia Lewis; Sentinel, Mrs. Jessie E. Mann.

After installation the ladies spread supper, and a good social time was enjoyed by all those present, and all felt sorry that the rain kept so many from the meeting.

Old Fashioned Curfew

Every family, says an exchange, should have a curfew which should positively ring tonight and every night if needed. These curfews are inexpensive and are home made. Take a piece of siding two feet long and whittle one end down to a handle; take the child that needs the curfew and bend it over a barrel. Now take the siding in hand and use it as a clapper. Put it on hot, divide the strokes evenly and see that none miss. Good for a boy or girl up to the age of sixteen years and three applications are warranted to cure the most pronounced case of street loafing that exists. The music is said to be finer than singing "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight?"

Kansas City Man Will Return.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Clark, of Kansas City, were here during the week visiting their friends, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Stanley, at their ranch home near Rogue river. Mr. Clark is a prominent capitalist and real estate broker of the Missouri city and is making a tour of the coast looking for profitable investments. He was highly pleased with the promising prospects of Central Point and the surrounding valley and expects to return, as soon as he can arrange his affairs at home, and make some important investments in this vicinity.
 Mr. and Mrs. Clark left for their home Monday going via California.

Why Editors Get Rich.

After a good deal of study and work we have at last figured out why so many country editors get rich. Here is the secret of success: A child is born in the neighborhood, the attending physician gets $25, the editor gives the loud-lunged youngster and the happy parents a "send off" and gets $0. It is christened and the minister gets $10 and the editor gets $00. It grows up and marries; the editor publishes another long-winded, flowery article and tells a dozen lies about the beautiful and accomplished bride, and the minister gets $10 and a piece of cake, the editor gets $000. In the course of time it dies and the doctor gets from $25 to $100, the undertaker gets from $50 to $100; the editor publishes a notice of the death and an obituary two columns long, lodge and society resolutions, a lot of poetry and free card of thanks and gets $0,000. No wonder so many country editors get rich.

Mr. D. W. Beebe is hauling his winter supply of wood from this vicinity.

Saturday evening about 8:00 o'clock Miss Mae Nealon was visited by a surprise party numbering some seventy friends from Table Rock, Agate, Sams valley and other points, who announced that they had come to celebrate her birthday. They brought her many presents as tokens of their good will. The evening was spent by the young people in games and plays, while the more elderly engaged in social converse. Refreshments were served and all did full justice to the toothsome lunch prepared by the ladies for the occasion. It was "dangerously" near Sunday morning when the happy party broke up, with good wishes for all and leaving Miss Mae with a memory of her 1908 birthday and which she will always cherish.
