

Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the Chain of Life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases and weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

The strong man has a strong stomach. Take the above recommended "Discovery" and you may have a strong stomach and a strong body.

GIVEN AWAY.—Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, new revised Edition, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Women Help Boost.

Freewater, Oregon, Nov. 18.—The women of the Freewater district who were appointed by the Commercial Club to arrange the fruit exhibit at the Walla Walla fair, which won the $250 premium, worked until late last night at Walla Walla to reproduce, as nearly as possible, the exhibit as it was at the fair. The fruit, which has been kept in cold storage, was engaged to be shown at the educational congress now in session at Whitman College. From Walla Walla the exhibit will be taken to Spokane for the great apple show to be held there in December.

What Would You Do?

In case of a burn or scald what would you do to relieve the pain? Such injuries are liable to occur in any family and everyone should be prepared for them. Chamberlain's Salve applied on a soft cloth will relieve the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a very severe one, will cause the parts to heal without leaving a scar. For sale by Mary A. Mee.

Observatin Cars.

On and after November 15, 1907, the observation cars between Portland and Oakland California, on trains Nos. 15 and 16 will be carried through instead of being cut out, as heretofore, at Roseburg.

Southbound, under this new arrangement, passengers holding proper transportation and Pullman accommodations may occupy these cars on the night leaving Portland until reaching Eugene at 12:32 a. m.

How to Cure a Cold.

Be as careful as you can you will occasionally take cold, and when you do, get a medicine of known reliability, one that has an established reputation and that is certain to effect a quick cure. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this most common ailment, and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. During the many years in which it has been in general use, we have yet to learn of a single case of cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by Mary A. Mee.

Now is the Time to visit

California

When summer has passed in these northern states, the sun is only mild under the bright blue skies of Southern California. This is one of nature's happy provisions—eternal summer for those who cannot endure a more severe climate.

California has been called the "Mecca of the winter tourist." Its hotels and stopping places are as varied as those of all well regulated cities. Visitors can always find suitable accommodations, congenial companions, and varied, pleasing recreations.

Southern Pacific Company

Will be glad to supply some very attractive literature, describing in detail the many delights of winter in California. Very low round trip excursion tickets are on sale to California. The rate from Central Point to Los Angeles and return is $47.60.

Limit six months, allowing stopovers in either direction. Similar excursion rates are in effect to all California points.

SHE WAS NO HAS-BEEN.

Why the Little Old Woman Rode in a Smoking Car.

"Madam," said the brakeman as the train stopped at a little village station and a little old woman started to enter the smoking car, "the car back is the one you want."

"How do you know?" she tartly asked.

"Because this is the smoking car." She pushed past him and climbed up the steps, and after taking a seat she pulled out and filled a pipe, struck a match on the sole of her shoe, and after drawing a few puffs she said to a man smoking a cigar across the aisle:

"That young feller out there don't know half as much as he thinks he does."

"How so?" was asked. "He took me for an old woman that had never rode on the cars before and told me this was the smoking car."

"And you wanted this car?" "Why, I never ride in any other—not unless my pipe is broke, my tobacco all out and none of you men folks will lend me a cigar."—Chicago News.

Caught on the Rebound.

"John, dear," said Mrs. Skimpem as she poured the coffee at the breakfast table, "if I remember rightly, you have often said you disliked to see a woman constantly getting herself into print."

"That's right," rejoined Skimpem. "You consider it indelicate and unwomanly, don't you?"

"I certainly do." "And you don't think a sensible man would allow his wife to do anything like that?"

"Most assuredly not." "Well, John, I'm glad you have such radical views on the subject, because they justify me in asking you for a new silk dress."

"W—what?" "You heard what I said, John. For the last five years I've had nothing but bargain counter calico, and I'm tired of getting into print."

"And what could poor John do?"—Chicago News.

How It Happened.

"Please, ma'am," said the husky hobo, "would youse help a pore feller wot wuz caught on a elevator an' laid up fer six months?"

"Certainly, poor man," replied the kind lady. "Here's a dollar for you. How did you happen to get caught in an elevator?"

"De perlice wuz too quick fer me," explained the h. h. as he hastily beat ft.—Minneapolis Journal.

Courage to Suffer.

Tess—Well, there's one thing about May Woodby. She has the courage of her convictions.

Jess—Indeed! I never noticed it.

Tess—Oh, yes! She's convinced that she can wear a No. 3 shoe.—Philadelphia Press.

Weighted in the Hand.

"Some grocers," remarked the customer, "have an offhand way of weighing sugar, but I notice you're not one of them."

"Offhand way? How do you mean?" asked the grocer.

"I noticed you kept your hand on the scales just now while you measured out five pounds for me."—Catholic Standard and Times.

Two Bores.

Towne—I'd rather associate with Nudity than Keadley. Keadley's just a society man. I can't imagine anything worse than a man who is always indulging in small talk.

Browne—Oh, I don't know. He can't be worse than a fellow who's always talking big.—Philadelphia Press.

As to Divorce.

Briggs—Even divorce nowadays offers no sure relief.

Griggs—How so?

"Why in nine cases out of ten a man is free to marry again."—New York Life.

Ungummed.

"He isn't so stuck on himself as he used to be, is he?"

"No. He got into hot water awhile ago, and the mudlage seemed to dissolve."—Cleveland Leader.

Her Catch.

He told about the fish he caught on his vacation trip. And how he used with rod and line The mountain streams to whip, And how he stalked from pool to pool An old and wary trout, And, where all other anglers failed, Had pulled the rascal out.

But while he talked a maid demure Was clinging to his arm, Her shifty drooping lashes dark Enhanced her modest charm. She did not boast about her catch— 'Tis not a woman's plan— But while he angled for the fish She hooked the fisherman. —New York Press
