

Fortune Telling

Does not take into consideration the one essential to woman's happiness—womanly health. The woman who neglects her health is neglecting the very foundation of all good fortune. For without health love loses its lustre and gold is but dross. Womanly health when lost or impaired may generally be regained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This Prescription has, for over 40 years, been curing delicate, weak, pain-wracked women, by the hundreds of thousands and this too in the privacy of their homes without their having to submit to indelicate questionings and offensively repugnant examinations.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. All correspondence held as sacredly confidential. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. PIERCE'S GREAT FAMILY DOCTOR BOOK, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, newly revised up-to-date edition—1000 pages, answers in Plain English hosts of delicate questions which every woman, single or married, ought to know about. Sent free, in plain wrapper to any address on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover mailing only, or in cloth binding for 31 stamps.

Coldblooded Murder.

Ralph B. Fisher prosecutor for the grievance committee of the Oregon Bar association, was shot and instantly killed by James Finch, an attorney, against whom disbarment proceedings had been successfully prosecuted by Fisher. Fisher was at work at his desk, when Finch walked into the room, called him by name and immediately shot him in the back of the head. Death was instantaneous. Finch ran from the room and towards the elevator, where he was overpowered by other occupants of the building and turned over to the police. Finch was suspended from practice for one year on account of unprofessional conduct of which he had been found guilty.

Good Cough Medicine for Children.

The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. F. Starcher, of Ripley, W. Va., says: "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by Mary A. Mee.

Observation Cars.

On and after November 15, 1907, the observation cars between Portland and Oakland California, on trains Nos. 15 and 16 will be carried through instead of being cut out, as heretofore, at Roseburg.

Southbound, under this new arrangement, passengers holding proper transportation and Pullman accommodations may occupy these cars on the night leaving Portland until reaching Eugene at 12:32 a. m.

Beware of Frequent Colds.

A succession of colds or a protracted cold is almost certain to end in chronic catarrh, from which few persons ever wholly recover. Give every cold the attention it deserves and you may avoid this disagreeable disease. How can you cure a cold? Why not try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended. Mrs. M. White, of Butler, Tenn., says: "Several years ago I was bothered with my throat and lungs. Someone told me of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I began using it and it relieved me at once. Now my throat and lungs are sound and well." For sale by Mary A. Mee.

LUMBER BARGAIN.

We have for sale 150,000 feet of 4 and 6 inch old-fashioned bevel siding at from $13.00 to $22.00 per thousand feet, surface measure, at our mill.

Extra for delivering the same f. o. b. cars in any quantity at the following points: Woodville 75c; Gold Hill $1.00; Central Point $1.25; Medford $1.40; Ashland $1.70 per M.

The cheaper grades are plenty good enough for ordinary buildings. This style of siding makes buildings look nicer and turns wind and water better than rustic.

For that Dull Feeling After Eating.

I have used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for some time, and can testify that they have done me more good than any tablets I have ever used. My trouble was a heavy dull feeling after eating.—DAVID FREEMAN, Kempt, Nova Scotia. These tablets strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. They also regulate the liver and bowels. They are far superior to pills but cost no more. Get a free sample at Mary A. Mee's drug store and see what a splendid medicine it is.

Demonstration Train Next Spring.

General Freight Agent Miller of the Harriman lines informed Mayor Hopkins a few days ago that the demonstration train which has been making a tour of the Willamette valley lately, carrying a corps of lecturers and instructors on agricultural and horticultural subjects, will not come to this valley until next Spring on account of the stormy weather which is to be expected at this season. The train will be here in the Spring, however, and meetings will be held at all important stations along the line, the lectures and demonstrations here being arranged with a special reference to the fruit industry.

It is a Wonder.

Chamberlain's Liniment is one of the most remarkable preparations yet produced for the relief of rheumatic pains, and for lame back, sprains and bruises. The quick relief from pain which it affords in case of rheumatism is alone worth many times its cost. Price, 25 cents; large size 50 cents. For sale by Mary A. Mee.

Now is the Time to visit

California

When summer has passed in these northern states, the sun is only mild under the bright blue skies of Southern California. This is one of nature's happy provisions—eternal summer for those who cannot endure a more severe climate. California has been called the "Mecca of the winter tourist." Its hotels and stopping places are as varied as those of all well regulated cities. Visitors can always find suitable accommodations, congenial companions, and varied, pleasing recreations.

Southern Pacific Company

Will be glad to supply some very attractive literature, describing in detail the many delights of winter in California. Very low round trip excursion tickets are on sale to California. The rate from Central Point to Los Angeles and return is $47.60.

Limit six months, allowing stopovers in either direction. Similar excursion rates are in effect to all California points.

JUNGLE EYES.

The grewsome jungle depths lay dark one dire and stormy eve. The haughty tiger slunk in fear and left his lair to grieve. For he had heard that to these parts a hunter bold had come Whose reputation, rifle made, was more than "going some."

And from the thickets he looked out with thumping heart amias, And nature fakirs give report his eyes they looked like this:
(O) (O) (O) (O) (O) (O)
When Teddy hit the jungle trail, his rifle in his clutch, He plucked the tiger from his haunts, which pleased him overmuch. Bang! bang! another spiteful shot rang on the evening air. Click, click! his bold typewriter gave repeated coughs there. And as the night eyes glared at him his soul was filled with bliss, And as he jotted down the facts the optics looked like this:
(D) (D) (D) (D) (D) (D)

What It Cost Them.

"How much did it cost you to get into society?" asked Mrs. Nowrich. "Well, I don't know exactly," replied Mrs. Lardleaf. "My husband always keeps track of the expenses, but I think he said he put up about $50,000 to keep the Uppingtons' son-in-law out of the penitentiary that time he embezzled from one of our firms." —Chicago Record-Herald.

An Advance Thought.

Diggs—Windham thinks he has invented a successful flying machine. Biggs—How far has he been able to fly it? Diggs—Oh, he hasn't tried it yet. That is why he has invented a successful machine.—Detroit Tribune.

When Bill Took His Discharge.

The Powder Manufacturer—Fancy old Bill of all people going into the gunpowder shed with a lighted candle. I should have thought that that would be the last thing he'd do. The Workman—Which, properly speakin', it were, sir.—Sketch.

Knew What to Expect.

Waiter—How will you have your steak, sir? Guest—Have you the same steak you had last week? Waiter—Yes, sir. Guest—Then I'll probably have it burned.—Boston Post.

No Cause to Be Thankful.

Tammus (to McTavish, whom he has just pulled out of the water)—Man, Donald! Ye sud be lookin' happy. Are ye no thankfu' ye're life's saved? McTavish (sourly)—I dinna see nae cause to be thankfu'. The glass o' whiskey I had afore I fell into the water's gotten fair drooned!—Tattler.

Love's Young Dream.

Together they were occupying a rustic seat on the lawn, he and she, and she at least seemed to be unconscious of the flight of time.

"How bright and shimmering the evening star appears tonight, George!" she said.

"Pardon me, my dear," replied George, "but that is the morning star!" —Chicago News.

Looking Ahead.

"I've often wondered," said the thoughtful man, "why they throw old shoes and slippers after a bridal couple, but I think I see the idea now."

"Yes?" asked the other. "Yes, I suppose the idea is that they'll come in handy for spanking purposes in the future." —Catholic Standard and Times.

Another Thrust.

Mr. Stubb—That old chap Argus had a hundred eyes. Mrs. Stubb—So they say. Mr. Stubb—And I suppose, Maria, if I had a hundred eyes I could see everything too. Mrs. Stubb—Everything but your own faults, John.—Chicago News.

Paternal Ambition.

"Is your boy Josh going to study law?"

"I don't know," answered Farmer Cornutssel. "I'm kind o' hopin' that Josh 'll develop financierin' energy enough to git to be one of the fellers that hires the lawyers."—Washington Star.

Her Crowning Glory.

She stood before the mirror In flowing robe de nuit. "What could be more alluring," She cried, "than what I see— A figure soft and rounded, A face of beauty rare, A neck of snowy whiteness, A crown of golden hair?" She paused and added sadly, "Uneasy lies the head That wears a crown!" She doffed it And made a break for bed. —Brooklyn Life.
