Christmas Football.

Here is the way the editor of the Glendale News was impressed by the football game played here on Christmas day between the Glendale and Central Point teams:

"The G. A. C. football team, accompanied by a goodly delegation of rooters, went to Central Point on Christmas day and took part in one of the cleanest and best games played this season. Two games were played, the first one being between the Medford and Central Point high school teams, and resulting in a walk-away for Central Point by a score of 21 to 0. After this the Central Point and Glendale first teams took the field. The game was remarkably clean and both teams played fast football from start to finish. Glendale boys held their opponents well, keeping the ball well within Central Pt.'s territory a good share of the time. When time was finally called, so evenly matched were the teams that neither side had scored. Central Pt. has a team that has never known defeat, and are as fine a bunch of boys as one could find. The local boys feel there would be honor even in defeat at the hands of a team like this who know the game and play it like true sportsmen. The two teams will play on the Glendale field on New Year's day and the game will, in all probability, be one of the most hotly contested and exciting games ever played here.

Table Rockets.

The entertainment given by the literary society New Year's evening was well attended and the program, which was quite interesting, was well rendered.

At the meeting of the telephone shareholders none of those present could be persuaded to take the offices of president and vice-president, and the difficulty had to be solved by electing R. C. Washburn president and Thos. Glass vice-president, both of whom, being absent, could not decline the honors. S. K. Adams was elected secretary-treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Green entertained the Sunday-school children Saturday afternoon at their pleasant home.

Joint Installation.

The Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges will hold a joint installation in their lodge room Saturday evening, January 9th. A banquet, prepared by the brothers of the subordinate lodge, will be served, the sister Rebekahs being the guests of honor. It is understood that the boys are anxious to "show" their sisters (who are presumably from Missouri) what good cooks they are. It is understood there will be a number of visitors from other lodges in the valley present.

Portland is tussling with a blizzard this week, while the Rogue River valley is enjoying the finest warm, winter rains you can imagine. It pays to live in this favored climate.

Colonel F. L. TouVelle was in town Monday. The colonel is a living, breathing embodiment of the principles of the Independent Order of Goat Riders, as witness his initials: F. L. T.

The finest and most continuous rain of the season started in Sunday night and is still doing business in true Oregon fashion.

Col. Geo. P. Mims was in town a short time Monday. The colonel is getting to be a most enthusiastic farmer and can hardly let go of business at the farm long enough to come to town for his mail.

Third Set of Teeth Appears.

Sumpter, Or., Dec. 31.—John Reinhardt, an aged pioneer of John Day, not long ago had removed all the teeth that remained to him and supplied in their place a brand-new set of false ones. Noticing that his gums were paining him, he discarded the set, and not long afterward he found that nature was providing him with another as well formed as those given him in infancy. Today he has as good teeth as ever.

L. F. Reddcliffe returned last Thursday from a business trip to St. Helens, a lumber town on the Columbia river. He thinks that country does not compare with this in lively business conditions.

Mrs. Mellinger will be at the Opera House Friday evening. She is an elocutionist of rare ability, holding some of the best medals on the Pacific Coast. The recitations and readings will be of varied character and all new.

A. J. Dunlap is planting 25 acres of new orchard on his fine place west of town this winter, 20 acres to plums and 5 to apples. Mr. Dunlap is shipping a car of Ben Davis apples this week.

Scott Pool, of Eagle Point, was in town Monday.

Stomach Trouble Cured.

If you have any trouble with your stomach you should take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. J. P.
