

Local and Personal

Col. Frank Ray, of Gold Ray, was in town on business Saturday afternoon. Word is being rushed on the Rostel building. When completed this will make an elegant business block.

WANTED—A good competent boy, 15 or 16 years old, to do chores and assist with light work on a small fruit ranch. Call on or address W. G. Goffe, Central Point, Oregon. (2 1/2 miles from town on Jacksonville road.) 10tf

Prof. F. F. Cooper and family left Saturday for Lane county where they will spend their vacation. Their post office address is Pleasant Hill and it is a safe bet that there is some good fishing and other pleasant features near that place.

Miss Nellie Mulkey, the talented young musician, will spend her vacation with the Bowers family, on Jenny creek, about 40 miles south from Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. August Muller, of Streator, Illinois, accompanied by his father, Adolph Muller, are here visiting Mrs. Muller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Olsson. Mr. August Muller is well known here having had charge of the construction of the Central Point Creamery, three years ago. Both the gentleman are looking for land investment and will probably locate permanently in this vicinity.

Watch the window displays at Cranfill & Robnett's.

W. C. Leever and J. W. Merritt visited their mines on Elk creek during the week. They are doing extensive development work and expect to begin shipping ore from the property in the near future.

Get your sewing machines of Elwood and save the agents 40 and 45 per cent commission. Elwood is at Central Point.

Miss Iva Dungey, of Gold Hill, was here Tuesday evening attending the local talent show. Miss Dungey is the guardian angel of the Gold Hill News office and while in town she favored the Herald office with a neighborly call.

We keep the best of everything.—Cranfill & Robnett.

H. C. Cook has purchased a large grocery and furnishing store at Cottage Grove and is taking over the same this week. Mrs. Cook will ship their household effects north in a day or two and they will take up their residence at Cottage Grove. Their son Frank Cook and his family will also go to Cottage Grove where he will assist his father in the management of the store. Mr. Cook and family have resided here for two years and have made many friends here all of whom will wish them success in their new home.

The home of good things to eat.—Cranfill & Robnett.

O. B. Nash has leased the George Ross building and is renovating and repainting the lower floor where he will soon open a confectionary and ice cream parlor and an up-to-date lunch room. Mr. Nash was in business here last summer but closed out in the fall expecting to locate elsewhere. He recently returned from a trip to Coos bay and other coast points where he went to look for a location but is now satisfied that Central Point offers better opportunities than any other place he has visited.

Commercial Club Reception.

Cards are out announcing a reception by the Commercial club at their new club rooms in the Whiteside building, at 6 o'clock this evening. The cards are sent to the members and their ladies, and each member is privileged to invite a friend or two as his guests for the evening. A short musical program of high merit has been arranged and light refreshments will be served. All members of the club are expected to be present and enjoy the opportunity of getting better acquainted with each other.

FOR SALE—Pure bred Jersey bull calf cheap if sold at once. Inquire of A. J. Dunlap, Central Point. 8tf

Children's Day Exercises.

The special program for Children's day, which was given at the Christian church Sunday evening attracted one of the largest congregations ever together in the town. The large church was crowded even standing room being at a premium. The program was rendered entirely by the children of the Sunday school and the manner in which the little ones acquitted themselves spoke highly for the painstaking work of their teachers and superintendent in training them for the occasion. Songs, recitations, drills and an illuminated tableau after the program a special collection for foreign missions was taken, when the children deposited their foreign mission coin boxes on the plate, thus adding their mite towards sending the gospel to the children of foreign lands.

The total contribution amounted to $7.23 the largest individual contribution being from 10-year-old Ella Witte.

He Can See 'Tis True

Ah! 'Tis the Rogue river valley,
Of which many times I've been told,
Gives riches to workers that work,
In pears, apples and gold.

Although my ticket is for another point

I am going to stop here and be a part,

Of the vast number of people of wealth,

Who came here with merely a start.

I have traveled from coast to coast.
But I have seen no valley that,
Can make the "True Roast",
Of equaling this valley at it's most.

Moral. Buy while you can buy right, and when you sell out in a few years for double your money,
then thank your stars for your good judgement now.
