“5000, IN 1912”

LOOK FORWARD, NOT BACKWARD.

(Adapted from the Portland Journal.)

In China they beat tom toms and set off explosives during a solar eclipse to keep the great dragon from swallowing the sun, and China is a prostrated and impotent land. The condition is the price China pays for clinging to old forms, old ideas and old prejudices. Civilization is the fruit of willingness by a race to accept change. The tallow dip and ox yoke of yesterday are the electric light and locomotive today. The abandoned farms of New England will be fields of wondrous productivity tomorrow.

The sooner all men admit that the old way is not the best way the faster development will be. Central Point cannot afford to sit on her haunches and beat tom toms to scare off dragons. Her people cannot afford to cling to old methods and old models simply because their fathers and grandfathers did things that way. In business, in industry, in transportation, in every walk of life, vast improvements are being made. In everything the keenest minds are seeking by day and by night changes of methods that will yield better rewards. The business man who does things in the old fashioned way is headed straight for bankruptcy. All the methods that chance and discovery have brought must be invoked or the deadly hand of competition will blight the enterprise. There must be spray for the growing apple or the worm will get it.

There are cities that are dying of dry rot because they insist on being old fashioned. Men who count in this day haven't the time and patience to spend their energies in towns that insist on doing all things the way grandfather did. They go to communities where the population recognizes that the world moves. They pitch their tents in cities that realize that we know more than we used to, and where tom toms have been thrown into the scrap bin. If Central Point insists on following old grooves, men worth while will go to places where ancient forms are not the fashion. The loss of such men is the death of a city and the penalty that must be paid for being old fashioned. Change is progress, and progress is success. The swine goes about with his nose near and his eyes on the ground, for an acorn or other food is all that is on his horizon. Man was made up-right and given the power of thought so he could work out a destiny and not merely live as a swine, to be eaten. Change is the means of destiny, and resistance to change the price of failure. The rule has always been true of men, and cities are what men make them, Central Point among the rest.

Good Cough Medicine For Children

And Grown Folks, Too

“We can hardly do without Chamberlains Cough Remedy, says Mrs. Flora Despain, of Boyd, Ky. “I found it to be so good for croup and have used it for years. I can heartily recommend it for coughs, colds and croup in children and grown folks too.” The above shows the implicit confidence that many mothers place in Chamberlains Cough Remedy, a confidence based on many years' experience in the use of it. No one need hesitate to use this remedy for it contains no chloroform, opium or other narcotics and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. For sale by Mary A. Mee.

These scientists are the limit. Before most of them have quit worrying about whether or not Mars is inhabited others are advancing the theory that all life on that planet by a marshake or something of that sort. This latest theory is likely to mar all the older ones quite seriously.

Group Cured—Child's Life Saved.

“It affords me great pleasure to add my testimony to that of the thousands who have been benefited by Chamberlains Cough Remedy. My child Andrew when only three years old was taken with a severe attack of croup, and thanks to the prompt use of Chamberlains Cough Remedy his life was saved and today he is a healthy and robust boy,” says Mrs. A. Coy, Jr., of San Antonio, Texas. Thousands of mothers keep it at hand and it has never been known to fail. For sale by Mary A. Mee.

When you hear a man sneering at the local paper you can safely bet that he doesn't spend his time making it better. They who don't see a benefit arising to a town from its newspapers have about as much sense as a cove oyster, and are of about as much benefit to a town as a ten-year-old delinquent in Wasco, says the Oregon Hub.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlains Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

“I have used Chamberlains Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for several years for diarrhoea. I consider it the best remedy I have ever used for that trouble. I bought a bottle a few days ago from our druggist Mr. R. R. Brooks. I shall ever be glad to speak a word in its praise when I have the opportunity.”—Rev. J. D. Knap, pastor M. E. church, Miles Grove, Pa. Sold by Mary A. Mee.

A Missouri woman, 104 years old who has smoked a “Missouri meerschaum” since she was four years old, has been told that if she had not contracted the tobacco habit she might have lived to a ripe old age. She wants to be shown, however, before she believes the story.

Sick Headache

This distressing disease results from a disordered condition of the stomach and can be cured by taking Chamberlains Stomach and Liver Tablets. Get a free sample at Mary A. Mee's drug store and try it.

“I hope you don't mind my asking,” said a woman diffidently. “but should I call you professor or doctor?”
“Oh, call me anything you like,” was the great man's rejoinder. “Some people call me an old idiot.”
“Really?” the lady murmured, with sweet innocence. “But, then, they would be people who know you intimately.”—Spare Moments.

Patriotism

The stomach is a larger factor in “life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness” than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia. The confirmed dyspeptic “is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils.” The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier and a fault finder.

A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness.

Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are promptly and permanently cured by the use of

Dr. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY.
It builds up the body with sound flesh and solid muscle.

The dealer who offers a substitute for the “Discovery” is only seeking to make the little more profit realized on the sale of less meritorious preparations.
