CENTRAL POINT HERALD

S. A. PATTISON, PUBLISHER.

An independent local newspaper devoted to the interests of Central Point and the Rogue River Valley. Published Every Thursday. Subscription price, $1.50 per year, in advance.

Entered as Second-class Matter, May 4, 1906, at the Post Office at Central Point, Oregon, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

THIS PAPER is kept on file at the DAKOTA ARCHIVES, 427 South Main Street, Los Angeles, and 779 Market Street, San Francisco, where contracts for advertising can be made for it.

"5000, IN 1912"

There are a number of different ways that the Republican party in Oregon can adopt for the suicide route, but about the easiest way would be for it to adopt the advice of Judge Henry L. Benson, brother of Secretary-of-State-Governor Benson, and "stop catering to the public." Judge Benson refers to the direct primary and other reforms that have been brought about through the demands of the public. The public will no longer be ignored. —McMinnville Telephone-Register.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlains Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"I have used Chamberlains Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for several years for diarrhoea. I consider it the best remedy I have ever used for that trouble. I bought a bottle a few days ago from our druggist Mr. R. R. Brooks. I shall ever be glad to speak a word in its praise when I have the opportunity." —Rev. J. D. Knap, pastor M. E. church, Miles Grove, Pa. Sold by Mary A. Mee.

Kids Play Football

The football season was formally opened in Central Point last Saturday, when the kid team, otherwise known as the "Goliaths of Gath," did things to a bunch of big, husky Medford boys that was really too bad. The little "Pintners" simply waltz the pigskin and the Medford lads around as they pleased, and while they were having all this fun they incidentally piled up 20 scores while Medford counted their well earned goose egg. Then Bob Holmes and some of his equally guilty partners in the crime rounded up the sporting editor and told him that if he didn't "put his game in de poiper we'll do tings to youse." Fruitgrowers'

Union Needed

During the past week it has been suggested to the Herald that the matter of securing the organization of a fruitgrowers' union here should be taken up by the commercial club at once. It is beyond question that such an organization, with a big community grading and packinghouse, where all the fruit in the neighborhood could be handled under the direction of an expert superintendent, would be of great value to the merchants and other business men of the town. The fruit industry is our greatest asset and on it depends the prosperity of all of us, and for that reason all should help to get such an organization started. At present all the small growers who have not enough fruit to ship a car or who has no friend with whom they can ship are compelled to haul to Medford to find a market. They naturally buy many of their supplies there and bring home with them. The Herald believes the matter should be taken up at once by the commercial club and every assistance and encouragement possible should be extended to the fruitgrowers in effecting such an organization. But this cannot be done by the club so long as it is impossible to get a quorum at a business meeting.

Croup Cured—Child's Life Saved.

"It affords me great pleasure to add my testimony to that of the thousands who have been benefited by Chamberlains Cough Remedy. My child Andrew when only three years old was taken with a severe attack of croup, and thanks to the prompt use of Chamberlains Cough Remedy his life was saved and today he is a healthy and robust boy," says Mrs. A. Coy, Jr., of San Antonio, Texas. Thousands of mothers keep it at hand and it has never been known to fail. For sale by Mary A. Mee.

Timber Cruiser Meets With Peculiar Accident

Mark Cross, a well known Portland timber cruiser, who left Central Point about two weeks ago with a party of timber men for the purpose of looking over the timber on Trail creek, was the victim of a peculiar and nearly fatal accident Wednesday afternoon of last week. With his party he was preparing to leave for the railroad. Cross was the only member of the party who was riding, besides the driver, and as they were driving down the mountain a huge dead tree fell alongside the road, striking Cross about the head and body, severely bruising him. The falling of the tree frightened the team and they began running madly down the mountain. In an unconscious condition Cross fell back into the wagon and during the team's wild run he was otherwise injured and shaken up. The team was finally caught and Cross was brought to Central Point, where he was given medical attention. His injuries are very painful but not necessarily fatal. He was taken to Portland Sunday night. The driver of the team, a young man named Hammond of Trail, escaped injury by jumping as the tree was falling. Cross was at one time a resident of Gold Hill, and is quite well known in Southern Oregon.

THANKSGIVING

It's a day to be proud of! It's the day when you should feel and look your best. You can attend to your mental enjoyment, but we will attend to your outward appearance, and you can rest assured that it will be right if you allow us to garb you in one of the very swagger and cleverly-styled

Holds Record For Land Locations

Jackson county claims as one of its citizens the man with the record for land locations in the west—that is individual locations, says the Tribune.

This party first located in North Dakota, just after the civil war, when Uncle Sam was anxious to give every one a farm. The climate of Dakota becoming too warm to suit the old veteran he sold his homestead to a tenderfoot and wended his way to Wyoming, where he repeated his Dakota performance, Congress having in the meantime passed one of those enabling acts which wipe away one's previous record in the land department and presents a second, or in this case a third farm to a man desirous of living on the frontier.

The Wyoming farm disposed of, our champion moved to Idaho and repeated the operation, an enabling act of the accommodating United States congress intervening, of course. Finally, like the western bound immigrant, his course was stopped by the Pacific ocean and the Big Butte country is the scene of his last effort to acquire that farm which Uncle Sam promised him over 40 years ago.

Here he has settled on unsurveyed land and has located claims for other members of his family. He has ex-

Order Of Notice Of Settlement

In the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Jackson County.

In the matter of the estate of Francis Swinmear, deceased. Order appointing day for final settlement, etc.

Burton E. Hard, the executor of the estate of Francis Swinmear, deceased, having rendered and presented for settlement, and filed in this court his final account of his administration of said estate. It is ordered that Saturday, the 4th day of December, A. D. 1909, at 10 o'clock, A. M., of said day, be and the said day is hereby appointed for the settlement of said account; and that notice of said settlement be published in the Central Point Herald, a newspaper published in Central Point, Oregon, as often as once a week for four consecutive weeks prior to said day of settlement. hausted all of his own rights except that as pretains to an old soldier, and is basing his claim for a tract of valuable timber land of the upper Rogue river section on his record as a civil war veteran.

The only time in the course of his career when he did not dispose of his claim at a profit was when he located on land covered by one of the Oregon irrigation projects. This claim he relinquished to the government, and has regretted it ever since.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.
