Miss Esther Merritt, who is a student at Mills College, near Oakland, arrived Wednesday evening to spend the holidays at home.

WANTED—Strong girl for general housework—good home for the right girl. Call on Mrs. C. W. Zorn, 518 Oakdale Ave. S., Medford, Oregon.

Born—Tuesday, Dec. 7, 1909, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jones, of this city, a fine 8-pound daughter. Mother and babe are doing well and the father is getting along better than grand-dad thought possible and he is pretty smiling himself, thank you.

The Christmas edition of the Medford Mail-Tribune, issued last Sunday was a credit to its publisher as well as to the city. It is no small matter to get out a paper of that size in a city no larger than Medford. The number is replete with interesting information about the Rogue River valley and will do much to attract attention to this valley.

William Lewis and family, who left here a few weeks ago for a trip along the coast and through the intermountain country returned to Central Point Saturday. Since leaving here they spent some time at Los Angeles, Salt

Miss Pearl Kearns, of Grants Pass, visited Miss Leah Williams during the week.

J. W. Moreland, a former resident of this place, writes the Herald that himself and family are now located near Monmouth, Oregon, where they are engaged in the dairying business and are prospering. Mr. Moreland sold out his property here three years ago and went north but he now admits that he would have made more money by staying with this valley than he did by leaving it.

For A Lame Back

When you have pains or lameness in the back bathe the parts with Chamberlains Liniment twice a day, massaging with the palm of the hand for five minutes at each application. Then dampen a piece of flannel slightly with this liniment and bind it over the seat of pain, and you may be surprised to see how quickly the lameness disappears. Sold by Mary A. Mee.
