J. H. Garvin, well known railroad man, running between Roseburg and Ashland, visited over Sunday with his brother, O. M. Garvin and family.

C. M. Rucker, recently of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, arrived in Central Point Monday and is looking the field over with a view to locating. Mr. Rucker is by trade a brick and stone mason.

Mayor W. C. Leever is getting acquainted with his new White auto this week and is making things hum in consequence. The car is a fine one and is giving the chief executive excellent satisfaction.

Court Hall, Medford's well known base ball magnate, is out with an offer to wager $1000 and the gate receipts that Medford's team can wallop any team that may be gotten together in Jackson, Josephine and Klamath counties.

James McDowell desires to announce that he will be absent from his shop from Monday, August 1st, to Monday, August 8th. Parties desiring work before that date should bring it in at once. 13 3t

APPLES AND PEACHES—I will be on the market with early apples and peaches from this time until the end of the season. Will have some extra fine canning peaches in their season. Prices reasonable. Mail orders promptly attended to. G. S. March. 12tf

A QUICK SALE.

For a quick sale I offer about 370 acres including some ideal fruit land; about 100 acres under plow, 60 acres easily prepared for planting, balance pasture with some good second growth fir. Can be sub-divided and have several splendid building locations. County road runs by it. If looking for a snap don't miss this as this ad will not appear again. $45 per acre. Fred Parker, Sr. Canyonville, Ore.

Miss Iva Scott of Perry, Oklahoma, arrived here Tuesday evening to spend the summer visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Scott, and other relatives.

Mrs. D. McKillop, Mrs. Frank Thompkins and Mrs. Hull are spending a few days at Chautauqua park, Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hawk and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor took a pleasure ride to Ashland Sunday in the Hawk automobile. They report a splendid time.

A fine rain fell here yesterday afternoon sufficiently heavy to wet the ground to a considerable depth and to cool the atmosphere to a marked degree. A few small hail stones fell with the rain but not large enough to do any damage.

George L. Ford is at Portland this week attending the A. O. U. W. grand lodge meeting as a delegate from the local lodge.

Judge A. P. Gillett is nursing a grouch this week. He's afraid that when this spell of weather lets up he may take a chill.

Charles Waldron, recently down from Valdez, Alaska, is here looking for an investment in a comfortable home place, and expects to locate in or near Central Point.

Mrs. Robert Kyle and her two young sons, Floyd and Elmer, left yesterday morning for Lebanon, Linn county, where they will spend some time visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Peart went to Ashland yesterday to spend the day.

A House Finished Properly

Is only made possible by having the lumber

Thoroughly Dry and Sanded

WE have just installed a machine for this purpose and one that gives finishing lumber a polish of cabinet work. If you are building, see the enormous expense you will be saved by having the work done by machinery.

Call and inspect our stock and facilities for getting out a bill of lumber.
