Two Caucuses Held.

A number of citizens met in Town Hall last Thursday evening for the purpose of nominating a ticket for the coming municipal election, to be held Monday, March 13th.

W. D. Lewis was elected chairman of the meeting and Dr. E. Davis was chosen as secretary. After stating the object of the meeting, to place in nomination two councilmen to serve for three years and one recorder to serve for two years, Chairman Lewis called for nominations for councilmen. H. W. Lindsay, Henry Farnum, J. E. Boswell and D. C. Grim were placed in nomination and upon a ballot being taken Messrs. Lindsay and Farnum were chosen as the nominees of the caucus. J. W. Jacobs, the present efficient incumbent of the recorder's office, was then unanimously chosen, without dissent, to succeed himself. The ticket was then named The Citizens Ticket and the caucus adjourned.

All the other present officials, including the mayor, four councilmen and treasurer, hold over until next year and Councilmen Myers and Dunlap, who were elected a year ago as three-year men, will hold for two years more.

A second caucus was held Tuesday evening for the nomination of city officers. D. C. Grim and H. W. Lindsay were nominated for councilmen and J. W. Jacobs for recorder. Messrs. Lindsay and Jacobs were already the nominees of the citizens' caucus, so that the only contest involved by the second caucus will be between Henry Farnum and D. C. Grim for councilmen. The election will be held next Monday, March 13th.

An Art Appreciation.

There is an artist in Pittsburg who before conferring any more of his sketches as gifts will know exactly upon whom he is conferring them. Recently he decided to surprise a "dear old lady" acquaintance who professed great admiration of his work by giving her a bit of landscape. He did so. It was a restful little pastoral scene of broad meadows stretching away from a stream in the foreground. Across the meadows wound a footpath leading to the village, which could be seen nestling in the haze of distant hills.

The old lady was delighted, and the profusion and warmth of her thanks made the artist glow with pleasurable feelings.

"Ain't it nat'ral!" she exclaimed, placing her finger on the path winding across the meadow. "Just look at the streak in the water made by a passin' tugboat or suthin'!"—Pittsburg Gazette-Times.

Suitable Grounds.

Attorney—On what grounds do you desire to sue for divorce?
Woman—How about the court-house grounds at Reno?—Judge.

Tact.

"Tact," said Robert Edeson, "is what makes the world go around smoothly. The tactful woman is far above rubies. Have you ever heard the story of the tactful Mrs. Tompkins?"

"Mrs. Robson's husband banged himself in the attic. Full of sympathy, Mrs. Tompkins went to call on her friend. She determined, however, to speak only of things foreign to the tragedy and thus endeavor, if only for a few moments, to make the unhappy lady forget her grief.

"'Rather nice weather we're having, my dear,' she said.

"'Yes,' said Mrs. Robson, also clinging desperately to comsounplances, 'but it has been too wet to get our clothes dry.'

"'Oh, well,' said Mrs. Tompkins brightly, 'you have a nice attic to hang things in!'"—Young's Magazine.

Amenities.

A solicitor who had been asked out to dinner and was delicately "pumped" for legal information by his host sent in a bill for "advice."

To this the host responded with a demand for payment for the dinner eaten by the solicitor.

Equal to the occasion, however, the latter promptly threatened a prosecution for selling wine without a license, thus effectually silencing the layman.—London Tit-Bits.

Y. M. C. A.

The work on the new building here commenced and the much talked of Y. M. C. A. at Central Point will soon have an up to date structure which will stand as a monument of Christian progress in the community.

The attendance at the meeting in the Town Hall last Sunday was good and the address by Ass't Sec'y Smith of the State Association was better.

The singing by the male quartette was of high order and was much appreciated by the audience.

The mens class, Friday evenings, for the study of the International Sunday School are becoming very interesting. This class is open to all men and you are cordially invited to join.

A young man who was "down and out" and was looking for work was, through the Association, found a job and both employer and employee were benefited.

CALAMITY HYMN.

The landslide's gone with the gold-mine hill.
An' the gov'ment's broke up—the moonshine 'still,'
An' this town's ruind, an' the next town's 'dry,'—
No hope in the world, believers!
The sun don't rise in the same old place,
An' the moon ain't showin' of a friendly face;
An' the stars are a-burnin' jest the maddest red,
An' this town's dyin', an' the next town's dead—
No hope in the world, believers!
An' it's time to go, an' it's time to stay,
An' I ain't got wings fer to soar away;
An' no one jines when my hymn I raise,
An' this town's burnin', an' the next will blaze—
No hope in the world, believers!
