J. W. Welch and family and the mother and sister of Mrs. Welch arrived from Gazelle, California, the frst of the week to make their home among us. Mr. Welch is foreman on the Ed Hanley place and is not entirely a stranger here, having spent his childhood within a few miles of this city.

When a medicine must be given to young children it should be pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is made from loaf sugar, and the roots used in its preparation gives it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it pleasant to take. It has no superior for colds, croup and whooping cough. For sale by Mary A. Mee.

The ladies of the Methodist Aid Society will hold an Easter sale Wednesday afternoon and evening, April 12th, in the Whiteside building, next door to England's drug store, and will have on display rugs, aprons, comforters, sunbonnets, bags, fancy work, potted plants, candy, etc. In addition to the above many miscellaneous articles will be on sale. Refreshments will be served throughout the afternoon and a lunch consisting of salads, eggs, sandwiches, baked beans, pie, tea and coffee, from 5:00 to 8:00 o'clock, for 25c. The public is most cordially invitnd and strangers will be given especial attention. 51d52

Central Point Boy Wins Honors.

Allen C. Hopkins, of Central Point, a student in the University of Pennsylvania, has been chosen as one of nine delegates who will represent the Civic Club of the University of Pennsylvania at the National Convention of the Intercollegiate Civic League in New York City on April 6th.

Mr. Hopkins is a student in the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce of the University. More than 30 universities and colleges will be represented at the Convention of the Civic Clubs. The Pennsylvania Civic Club has been organized only recently, but has already begun to conduct investigations into "Fire Losses, Child Labor" and kindred subjects.

Pioneer Woman Passes.

Mrs. Jane P. White, one of the best known pioneer women of this section of Oregon, passed away at her home at Ashland Tuesday, March 21st, at the advanced age of 84 years, 7 months and 5 days.

Deceased was a native of New York state but came to Michigan when a child, where she grew to womanhood and was married to Lytle J. White in 1848. In 1858 the couple came to Oregon via the Isthmus of Panama and Crescent City. Soon after arriving here they started a hotel and stage station at Rock Point, remaining there until the stage business was abandoned. It is said Mrs. White cooked the first and the last meal ever served to stage passengers at that station.

Mrs. White is survived by three sons, Lester P. White, of Chico, California, Henry M. and C. L. White, of Ashland. Three sisters and a brother also survive her, as follows: Mrs. J. H. Gay, of Central Point; Mrs. O. C. Tiffany and Mrs. Maria Dunham, of Ashland, and A. B. Ganiard, of Stocton, California.

The funeral was held Thursday, interment being in the Pioneer Cemetery at Rock Point.

Table Rockets.

The entertainment given Saturday evening by the literary society was largely attended and enjoyed by all present. Music, vocal and instrumental, was a pleasing feature of the program. Because of his duties at court, Prof. Mulkey was unable to attend.

We had Revs. Davis and Howlett with us Sunday evening and they both preached to a good sized and appreciative congregation.

The residence of Benton Vincent caught on fire from some unknown cause Sunday afternoon. Some parties passing saw the flames as they were bursting through the roof and by quick and intelligent work had them subdued before much damage was done, but it was a close call.

Rev. G. P. Hall is advertised to speak in the school house Sunday evening next. All are cordially invited.

Poor Brown!

"Sorry, Brown," said the doctor after the examination. "You're in a very serious condition. I'm afraid I'll have to operate on you."

"Operate!" gasped Brown. "Why, I haven't any money for operations! I'm only a poor workingman."

"You're insured, are you not?"

"Yes, but I don't get that until after I'm dead."

"Oh, that'll be all right!" said the doctor consolingly.—Lippincott's.

Proves It.

"I see the physiognomists claim that thick, short, curly hair is an indication of great natural strength," said the boarding house lady, trying to make conversation at the breakfast table.

"I guess the physiognomists are right," replied the thin boarder. "I found that kind of a hair in my butter this morning."—Yonkers Statesman.
