Geo. E. Boos, representing the Rogue River Valley Canal Co., was in the city from Medford Tuesday on business. A grand irrigation rally is being arranged for all sections of the valley which lies under the company's ditches which includes everything from Talent to Gold Ray. The meeting will be held at Medford the date to be announced later.

The laying of the corner stone at the new Presbyterian church will occur on June 3, at 6 p. m. Some Presbyterian ministers from out of town will be present and an address will be given at the foundation on "The Reason for a Presbyterian Church" by the Rev. W. F. Shields of Medford. After the services at the foundation are completed a dinner will be served by the ladies of the church to the members and friends of the church and a social time will be enjoyed.

J. A. Kilbourne and family left Saturday afternoon for San Francisco, where he will be employed by the Federal Wireless Telegraph Co., for whom he has been working since the beginning of work on the company's station here. Mr. Kilbourne is the only local man employed by the company who "worked his way up" to the top of the tall towers and consequently made good for a permanent job. After completing the station at San Francisco the crew will go to Ogden, Utah, to put up a plant and from there they will go to Honolulu, Hawaii, to install a big trans-Pacific plant. The company pays their workmen good wages, about $5.00 a day and all traveling expenses.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Gleason of Phoenix visited relatives in this city over Sunday.

Mrs. Frank McKee entertained some twenty-five ladies of her neighborhood at tea last Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Frank Cotterill, of Medford, gave an interesting talk on the suffrage question. Much enthusiasm was shown and it was decided to organize a suffrage club to work for the cause thro' the present campaign. The date of organization has not yet been fixed.

Louis J. Gay, a business man of Seattle, was here for a few days during the week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gay. Mr. Gay and his wife were called to the valley recently from Seattle by the death of her father, Daniel Lim, a well known pioneer of Jacksonville, who passed away last Friday and was buried Sunday. Mr. Lim was 85 years and six months old.

Superintendent of Schools J. Percy Wells of Jacksonville, was in town last Friday attending the school entertainment. While here Mr. Wells paid a high tribute to the work being done in the eighth grade this year by Miss Blackford. The examination papers from that grade, Mr. Wells declares, are by far the best prepared and most neatly kept of any that reach his office from all the schools in the county. It is understood that a movement is on foot among the school board and some of the patrons to induce Miss Blackford to reconsider her intention of leaving her position here and accepting one in Medford. All who are familiar with her work will hope that she may decide to do so.
