

ASHLAND-C. P. IN 2-10 GAME

Locals Bat Pitcher Out of Box—Run Own Legs Off

Ashland ball team and fans came down Sunday to try conclusions with the local squad and during the first and the first half of the second innings it looked as though there might be blood on the moon. The first canto was as innocent of tallies as the ordinary bald head is of fly traps and in the second stanza, while Ashland skill and muscle fanned the atmosphere the same condition prevailed. After the first one, two, three, taps were sounded, however, and when the apple thinners again took up the big stick, it was different. Skeen, Ashland's new "hope" blew up completely and Central Point scandalously run in seven tallies. In the middle of the inning the game was temporarily called on account of the balloon ascension which being interpreted means Skeen was aeroplaned to the bench and Phillips was parachuted from center field to the box. The change stopped the rawness of the deal to some extent and while the Pointers were thereafter served with their meat cooked their appetite seemed equal to the occasion. It was a pretty good game from that time on for while Ashland was straining every point to pick up their pair of tallies the Pointers gamboled around and nailed three more nice hides on the old barn door making themselves ten handsome ones.

A good sized crowd was present to enjoy the game and the indications are that base ball stock has a bullish tendency on the local market.

Following is the lineup and score:
Ashland Position Cen. Point
Skeen-Phillips p McIntyre
Plymate c Sanderson
Fordney 1st Marshall
Klum 2nd T. Ross
Thorn 3rd Clark
Eastman ss Hopkins
Phillips lf Farra
Sayles cf B. Ross
Fraser rf Harper
Summary: Walked by Skeen 1. 2-base hit McIntyre. Struck out by Phillips 5, Skeen 1, McIntyre 3. Double plays, 1 to 3. Hit by pitcher, Skeen 1, Phillips 1, McIntyre 1.
Score—Central Point 10, Ashland 3.

Mrs. Vining and her daughter, Miss Annie Caldwell, expect to leave in a few days for the Alsea bay country where they will reside. They will spend most of the present summer directly on the ocean beach. Miss Caldwell was one of the efficient teachers in the Central Point public schools during the past term and will be much missed among a large circle of school friends after her departure. The Epworth League of the M. E. church gave an informal reception for Miss Caldwell last Sunday evening following the regular service.

FINE PROGRAM CHILDREN'S DAY

Interesting Service by Tots at M. E. Church Sunday

A service of more than ordinary interest was that at the Methodist Episcopal church last Sunday morning when Rev. Mr. Aldrich, the pastor, stepped down and out of the pulpit for the time being and turned the service over to a galaxy of some fifty stars of the first magnitude, age and experience being considered. The occasion was the annual Children's day service and the program throughout showed evidence of the careful work and consecration of those who had its preparation in charge. Some fifty children took part in the program and so well did they all deport themselves that individual mention is unnecessary.

The church was beautifully decorated with verdure and flowers and several cages of canary birds joined in the exercises with delightful strains of their sweet songs.

Rev. Aldrich, who mostly trained the children directed the program.

Started Something

The idea being pushed in Jackson county of establishing a national bank by the county itself, borrowing money on county bonds from the United States Treasury the way other national banks do, and using this money to build roads with, is a good one.

The initiative measure is perhaps crude and the legal difficulties that will be put in the way will no doubt reduce the matter to a simple resolution for the present, but there is the germ of what may develop into an overthrow of the public bonding system.

The people are burdened down with literally billions of dollars of local public bonds. These bonds are purchased by banking corporations and deposited with the United States Treasury, whereupon there is issued to the depositors banknotes to the full face value of the bonds. These banknotes through a form of transference by the banks can be and are used to buy more local bond issues.

There is no reason but the general apathy and ignorance of the people why a county should not issue its own bonds, deposit these bonds with the government and draw down its own banknotes free from any interest whatever. That is what is being attempted in Jackson county. The lawyers and the banks will tangle matters up all they can, and perhaps keep on with the game as now run for several years.

Farmer William J. Scott may not be a financier, statesman or college professor, but he has started something from Central Point and it is up to the wise men to follow him.—Portland Labor Press.

For Sale—Aermotor windmill in good condition. Make me an offer. A. J. Dunlap, Central Point, Ore. 21f

BIG IRRIGATION MEET AT MEDFORD

Important Gathering Billed for Next Tuesday Evening, June 11.

A grand mass meeting of landowners, business men and all others who are either directly or indirectly interested in the continued growth and prosperity of the Rogue River valley, has been called by the Medford commercial club to meet in the Medford opera house next Tuesday evening, June 11.

That water is needed on most of the soils of this valley to bring it into profitable production is admitted by all. That the Rogue River Valley Canal Co., has the water is also admitted. To get the land owners and the canal people together is the purpose of this meeting.

An interesting program has been arranged with the important addresses of the evening assigned as follows:
Opening address Wm. M. Colvig.

"What the Land Owners in and Around Central Point are Doing to Assure Themselves of Irrigation Advantages." D. W. Stone of Central Point.

"A Business Campaign for a Successful Determination of Irrigation by all the People in the Valley." W. R. Coleman, of Jacksonville.

"Bank Clearance by Increased Crops Through Irrigation." W. H. Gore, of Medford.

"Why Every Land Owner in the Valley Should Prepare His Land for Irrigation." A. C. Randall, of Talent.

"The Best Ways and Means to Get the Co-operation of the Land Owners to Assure the Building of the Irrigation Canals." Harry D. Irwin, of Medford.

"Water is King Today." G. A. Hoover, of Phoenix.

"What it Means to the Valley and Why Every Business Man Should Interest Himself in Irrigation." A. P. Stover of Jacksonville Road.

"The Advantage of Everybody Doing His Share Towards Irrigating the Rogue River Valley." Prof. S. C. Reimer, of Phoenix.

Extend Thanks

Members of the local Woman's Relief corps have requested the Herald to express their thanks to all who assisted with the exercises of Memorial and Decoration days. Particularly do they express their thanks to Messrs Cowley & Moon for free use of Central hall on Thursday, to the Rogue River band, to the local ministers and choir singers for assistance and to all others who assisted. The G. A. R. members also wish to express their thanks to the many owners of automobiles who so courteously extended free use of their machines for carrying all who wished to go to the exercises at the cemetery.

You can't afford to oversleep at this season of the year. Get a Big Ben sleep meter at England's. 21f

GRACE GARVIN ON EASTERN TRIP

Popular Girl Will Herald Attractions Of Valley to Easterners

Miss Grace Garvin, one of Central Point's most accomplished and popular young ladies, left Tuesday evening for Portland where she joined the eastern excursion of Oregon girls who will visit all of the principal cities of the east during the present month and proclaim the glad tidings of Oregon's marvelous scenery, climate and opportunity.

The excursion is promoted by Philip S. Bates, publisher of the well known farm paper, "The Pacific Northwest," of Portland, who several months ago offered to each section of the state on a subscription proposition for his paper to take one young lady from each county taking part on the eastern trip. Miss Garvin was selected to represent Jackson county and after securing some two-thirds of the necessary subscriptions in the Central Point neighborhood she appealed to the other sections of the county which she is to represent for some assistance. From Ashland and Jacksonville Miss Garvin received assurances from persons supposed to represent the commercial bodies of these cities, of hearty support but on the very eve of her departure the young lady received a decided turn down from both towns. However, Miss Garvin is a Central Point girl and as soon as it became known that the rest of the county had dropped back in the old rut of sectional prejudice Central Point people got together and made up the deficit. Members of the Ladies' Civic Improvement club first showed their metal by declaring that if the commercial club and the business men showed the little feather that they would inject a white suffragette ginger into the campaign and if there were any weak-kneed members of the commercial club or of the business community they soon took a tumble and bowed to the inevitable. In a few hours Monday a subscription paper circulated among the business men together with liberal contributions from the Ladies' Civic Improvement club and the Commercial club provided ample funds to complete the contract.

Miss Garvin will carry a large amount of Central Point literature with her on the trip and will in every way do her part to carry the glad tidings of the Oregon country to all the peoples of the effete east.

Ten counties of Oregon will be represented by the following young ladies: Grace Garvin, Central Point, Jackson county.

Della M. Harold, Scio, Linn county.
Bertha Willerton, The Dalles, Wasco county.

Charlotte Jones, La Grande, Union county.
Anne Markel, Bend, Crook county.
Alice Ensminger, Haines, Baker county.

Agnes Miller, Burns, Harney county.
Holly Moore, Eugene, Lane county.
Gertrude Pollon, Dallas, Polk county.
Mabel Pittman, Condon, Gillman county.

Mrs. H. A. Hartshorn of Condon is to serve as chaperon.

The girls are able to take the trip across the continent as a result, largely of their own efforts. Each raised at least the greater portion of her own expense money. In some instances the commercial organizations and business men of the various counties aided them.

The journey began in Portland with the Ad club luncheon yesterday in the Multnomah hotel. President Edgar B. Piper of the Commercial club, served as chairman of the day, and the Oregon girls were guests of honor.

"Oregon at the Dallas Convention," was discussed by President A. G. Clark of the Ad club. "Experiences at Former Conventions" were related by Dr. Henry Waldo Coe, delegate to the National republican convention. "Efforts of Publicity Men to Obtain News Space" was discussed by Benjamin Franklin Irvine, associate editor of the Journal and "The Results Obtained by Oregon Farmers' Daughters" by Phil S. Bates.

On a special Pullman car the party are to leave Portland this morning. The complete itinerary is as follows:
Wednesday, June 5—Guests at the Portland Ad club luncheon.
Thursday, June 6, 10, a. m.—Depart over G. W. R. & N. for Detroit, Mich.
Monday, June 10—Detroit.
Tuesday, June 11—Niagara Falls, a. m. Luncheon Shredded Wheat Co. Buffalo, afternoon: Dinner with Elbert Hubbard at East Aurora.

Wednesday, June 12—New York.
Thursday, June 13—New York.

Friday, June 14—Washington, D. C. Morning, trip to Mt. Vernon. At 2:45 p. m. the young ladies will be received by President Taft in the east room of the White House. Evening, the public

G. P.-GOLD HILL FIELD MEET

Local Schools Win From Their Neighbors in Monday's Contests

Monday was one of the biggest days this man's town ever knew, at least such is the belief of the school boys and girls who on that day so decidedly demonstrated their superiority in athletics over their neighbor students from Gold Hill. For, be it known, Monday was "Field Day" and when the races, ball games and other events were over and the smoke of the battle had cleared away, it was discovered that the Central Pointers had made a clean sweep of everything in sight. If there had been more events and more prizes it is reasonable to suppose that the home kids would have nailed them on the barn door too.

Following is the program of events with the names of the winners:

Races: 100-yard dash—James Vestal 1st; Lowell Grim, 2nd.

50-yard dash, (boys under 16 years) James Vestal, 1st, Lowell Grim, 2nd.

50-yard dash, (boys under 14 years) Frank Ross, 1st, Wilbur Dunlap, 2nd.

50-yard dash for girls—Goldie Owen, 1st, Clara Grim, 2nd.

Relay race—James Vestal, Clell McCredie, Lowell Grim, Howard Mayfield.

Girls high jump—Goldie Owen, 1st, Mildred Hawk, 2nd.

Potato race—Claud Pruett, Everett Pattison, Everett Brayton, Fred Aldrich.

Girls' Tug of War—Lola Freeman, Doris Cowley, Goldie Owen, Clara Grim, Mildred Hawk, Rose Neale, Edith Jacobs.

Ball Game Lineup—Luke Peart p, Sam Marshall c, Clell McCredie, 1st, James Vestal 2nd, R. Duncan 3rd, Merritt Merriman ss, Howard Mayfield lf, Fred Taylor cf, Lowell Grim rf.

Score 13 to 4, favor Central Point.

library.

Saturday, June 15—Public buildings, capitol and departments.

Sunday, June 16—Cincinnati; Ohio.

Monday, June 17—Indianapolis, Ind.

Tuesday, June 18—Chicago. Arrangements have been perfected for attending the national republican convention.

Wednesday, June 19—Chicago.

Thursday, June 20—Madison, Wis. Guests of B. B. Clarke, publisher of the American Thresherman. Visit the governor of Wisconsin and state agricultural college.

Friday, June 21—St. Paul, Minneapolis, Home.

Not one of the girls in the party but expects to have the best kind of a time. They will vie with each other in advertising, each, the resources and home desirability of her home county.

FIVE GRADUATE FROM HIGH SCHOOL

Commencement Exercises Attract Large Audience

Commencement exercises of the Central Point High School, held in Central Hall Tuesday evening, attracted a large and appreciative audience to enjoy the excellent entertainment the evening afforded.

The class of '12 has five members: Misses Nettie Lewis, Lenore Barnett, Lillian Marshall, Rose DeFord and Mr. Ward Barnett.

The program Tuesday evening was opened with a piano duet, "The Cavalier March," by Miss Sadie Beebe and Mr. Paul Olsson, of the High School. This was followed by a vocal solo, "The Rosary," by Miss LaCosta Mangum, a talented young musician of Grants Pass.

The Salutation, by Miss Lenore Barnett, reflected the thought of the members of the class to each other and to the world generally and was most creditable. Raymond Taylor, the very small boy violinist, of the second grade, then delighted the audience with "English Seaman's Dance," on his small violin.

The valedictory, by Miss Nettie Lewis, showed careful thought in construction and preparation and excellent ability in delivery. Miss Lewis' words to her class mates and their friends showed evidence of the high ideals and lofty aspirations which have been instilled into the minds of the class of '12 by their instructors.

A male chorus, "Moonlight on the Lake," was followed by an address to the Class by Mr. Calvin C. Thomason, of Salem.

Rev. Horace N. Aldrich gave a delightful vocal solo, "Mona," which was followed by the Presentation of Diplomas by President of the School Board W. A. Cowley, who urged the graduates to carry their youthful aspirations and ideals into their future life, holding before them a word picture of the great Lincoln as one of the best examples for modern youth in character, honesty and integrity.

A number of selections by the combined city choir were also rendered during the evening.

The "old swimmin' hole" may be but a dim memory of the past with many of us but what's the dif.? The new way is better. Water was turned into the big cement tank at the Y. M. C. A. building yesterday and the small boys are happy.

What a Beautiful Line of Shoes!

Is Heard on Every Corner.
(After looking at our big assortment of shoes.)

YES WE will admit that they are pretty. But listen: We are selling a great many shoes and if you want your size you will

HAVE TO HURRY!

We can fit your child in low shoes, black or tan strap sandals if you buy now. Don't wait until the sizes are broken and then "holler" because we can't fit you.

"THE OLD RELIABLE"

CRANFILL & ROBNETT

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

CENTRAL POINT, OREGON.

$5.00 For A Name

I WANT a name for my place of business recently bought of Mr. Bedford in the J. E. Ross building, and will pay $5.00 for the best suggestion.

Write your choice of name on an envelope, with your name and address on a slip inside and hand or mail to me. I will select name from those proposed before envelopes are opened and will pay $5.00 for name selected. Should two or more be successful prize will be divided.

THIS CONTEST CLOSSES JUNE 8, 1912

You Don't Have to Buy Anything
To Compet In This Contest.

ROBERT C. REAME,

Ross Building, Central Point, Oregon.

Studio Will Close June 8th

Until That Date the Following Low Prices Will Prevail

Cabinets at $3.00.
Half cabinet at $2.50.
Groups 6x8! at $6.00.
Folders and Fancy Mounts $4.00 up.

Last chance for best work at lowest prices.

No Reduction on Postcards. Negatives Sold at 25c Each

LESMEISTER'S STUDIO,

CENTRAL POINT, OREGON.