Neighbor and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Trower, of Oakland, California. The women found the trip a difficult one but they were game and went through with it splendidly.

C. B. Rostel left a sample of what has been pronounced rich iron ore at this office the other day which he informs the Herald was taken from the excavation for the new Presbyterian church edifice. Mr. Rostel believes that if there is a sufficient quantity of the ore it might be a factor in helping to put Central Point on the map to a greater degree than ever before.

"The Siskiyou" is the name chosen for R. B. Reams' confectionery and soft drink emporium the other day. Mr. Reams advertised for a name for his place offering $5.00 for the best suggestion. Archie Parker by a happy application of good judgement and brevity won the first prize when he suggested "The Siskiyou." Clifford Hatfield and Frank Hull were such close seconds with "The Siskiyou Confectionery," and "The Siskiyou Fountain," that Mr. Reams also awarded them a prize of $1.00 each. Mr. Parker receiving $3.00. Nearly 100 persons competed for the prize and interest in the matter was quite lively. Mr. Reams reports a very gratifying increase in business since he took charge of the establishment.

W. C. Daley, of Lake Creek, was assaulted by Frank Ceol last Friday receiving a fractured skull and other injuries. The trouble arose over an irrigation ditch from which water is served to both the Daley and Ceol ranches. Ceol and his wife and daughter, it is alleged, joined in the attack on Daley the women having, it is said, used a hoe and a shovel with which to beat Daley while Ceol held him down. Daley was at first reported to be very seriously injured but it is understood now that he is rapidly recovering. Ceol was placed under arrest and brought to Jacksonville where he was given a preliminary hearing and held to the grand jury in $3000 bail which was furnished. Mr. Daley is the democratic candidate for county commissioner in this county and is a prominent and popular citizen.
