

CENTRAL POINT HERALD

By Gleason & Bacon.

AN INDEPENDENT local newspaper devoted to the interests of Central Point and the Rogue River Valley.

THIS PAPER is kept on file at the DAKA Advertising Agency, Inc., 42 South Main Street, Los Angeles, and 129 Market Street, San Francisco, where contracts for advertising can be made for it.

WHAT IS THE Y. M. C. A.?

Since we have in Central Point an active organization of the Y. M. C. A., which places us among the foremost cities of the state in this respect it will not be amiss for us to become more familiar with the object of such a society and to know more of its workings.

It is a high grade, low cost young men's organization. It is an athletic organization that does not seem to promote athletics, but uses athletics to develop men.

It is a school for young men who work by day.

It is a home for young men away from home.

It helps young men not only to help themselves, but to help the other fellow.

It is a place for a young man to find friends and to make himself a friend to the man that sees a friend.

It is a place where, but is controlled by representatives of churches. This keeps it a Christian organization, but prevents it from becoming another church.

It has united in its management members of those churches that have found by experience that they can join without controversy or friction in the doing of religious work.

It is a place where the Bible and the practical use of Christian forces in helping young men.

Its fellowship, club rooms, gymnasium, baths, classes and all other practical advantages are open to all young men, of all faiths or of no faith.

It is not an experiment, but is the survivor of many experiments. While other young men's organizations, social, athletic, educational, ethical and even religious, have failed, this has succeeded and is now in successful operation in over eight thousand places in North America and throughout the world.

It is a wise and economical enlistment of young men themselves in the work of their own development.

It is a philanthropic and also self-interested provision of an all-round opportunity for young men.

It provides a gymnasium; the young men use it, and put increased health and vitality into their day's work.

It provides a night school; the young men join it, and gain and keep the higher places waiting for skilled labor and efficiency.

It provides the Gospel; the young men practice it, and the community sits down, expenses for sickness, sorrow and pain.

It provides and organizes the time of men; the best and busiest in the community; the young men respond to it and develop latent powers of character and service.

It invests money; it gets manifold.

It invests in sympathy; it gets friendships.

It invests small sacrifices; it gets abundant and desirable dividends.

It invests time and things that might otherwise be idle; it gets character that sustains and perpetuates itself in vital and constructive forces for the social and spiritual uplift of the world.

Its investments are business; its dividends are divine.

It is not the building, but something that built it.

It is not the membership, but something that wins it.

It is not the organization, but something that organizes.

It is not the achievement, but something that achieves.

It is not any thing on earth, but a spirit on earth that lifts things heavenward.

It is a spirit of brotherhood, uniting men of faith in fellowship and service.

It is a spirit of sacrifice, preferring rather to "fall to the ground and die" than to "abide to itself alone."

It is a spirit of unity, giving a new evidence and revealing a new energy of Christianity.

It is a spirit of conquest, conquering for the Kingdom of Christ unlimited.

It is the spirit of Youth with the dew and freshness of the morning.

It is the spirit of Manhood, pressing forward with the midday heat and burden.

It is the spirit of Christ, with His deathless life and His unapproachable enthusiasm.

It is the spirit of Association, the youth, the man, the Christ, in unshakable and inviolable co-operation.

By the grace of God it is what it is, and by the grace of God one may possess and be possessed by its spirit.

A CALL TO SERVICE

It is a man's ministry to men, saving men's souls with their souls, and saving for Christ's service.

It is a man's method of work with men, making men helped reasonable for his own life's service.

It is a man's interpretation of Christianity to men, in terms of Christian manhood.

It is a man's challenge to the hidden talent in men, discovering latent leadership in the Church, and nobly reinforcing the ministry.

It is a man's program of work for men, promoting the humanly impossible task and driving men to prayer to accomplish it.

It is a man's wages for winning men, the rest and strain of the effort, the joy of achievement and the worth of the prize.

It is a call to the men of business capacity to subordinate business to religion, and multiply himself by thousands.

It is a call to the men of social power, to turn fellowship into comradeship, "Not to be ministered unto, but to minister."

It is a call to a larger fellowship, broad as the brotherhood of man, deep as men's need, high as Christ's hope, and wide as the world opportunity.

The prospects of a bounteous crop is excellent. Fruit, grain and vegetables show the good effects of the recent rains. The first spraying for the Cod-ding moth is about finished.

The Irrigation company is replacing the old wooden flume in front of the Root property with cement piping, a much needed improvement as the old shakily looking affair was an eyesore.

SHOWS HIS APPRECIATION

I regret very much that lack of time has prevented me from expressing my heartfelt gratitude to yourself and associates for the splendid support and courtesies extended me in promoting and arousing enthusiasm in the Rally held April 25; the splendid and glorious success of which was made possible, in fact almost impossible, by your unlimited co-operative favors, and sometimes even to your inconvenience and distress.

Words cannot express the magnificent feeling of pleasure I have enjoyed during this month of strenuous labor, which brought forth such a bounteous harvest of good-cheer and hearty good-will. While I found myself beset with much opposition and apathy at first it soon faded into sympathy and determination to eclipse all past records, and the tremendous outpouring of all classes from all sections of the county tell the story much better than human words can pen.

Congratulations have been so generously heaped upon me, that I feel it would indeed, be base ingratitude for me to let pass by, the opportunity to extend my appreciation to the co-operating teachers and schools, who never at any time doubted or opposed my arrangement, nor lent anything but words and acts of unison and approval. In fact it seemed to me that the guiding hand of the Omnipotent lent his powers in all the beauties of nature to make glad the hearts of children and all humanity, until all faces seemed to beam with the message of "Peace on earth and good-will to all men."

The unquestioned success of every effort never once appeared to us, but that 1500 people could be induced to join in a gala day at this point, which was to be reached only by special effort in conveyance, was almost beyond comprehension. Very few had ever known, or thought of our beautiful surroundings, our modern school building with its equipment of conveniences, nor the unsurpassed beauty of our landscape. Indeed, I have often lamented that providence had not imbued me with the talents of an artist, that I might paint, as Parhasias did the veil, which Zeusis asked him to draw aside, that he might exhibit his picture.

And in this hour of local financial and industrial distress let us, take heart, and remember that, what God hath wrought no man shall put asunder, and that out of chaos shall come renewed life and vigor and honest progress.

A new era and spirit is touching our political and social life, and from it will be garnered the finer arts of civilization, refinement and progress, that must develop nobler manhood and womanhood, and all will be proud to have been a hero in the battle and a victor in the strife. In closing my work here, it is only befitting that I should extend to one and all, my sincere thanks for the many favors bestowed upon me that have brought the high standard of the school within our grasp. To the good people of Central Point and especially the band boys, I would extend the glad-hand and bid them God-speed. To the directors and patrons, only the pages of eternity can record in thoughts, not words, my sincere and unspeakable gratitude. To the boys and girls whom I have learned to love better than self, may eternity's richest and choicest blessings be yours.

Very Respectfully,

- L. M. Sweet.
