Some extra fine strawberries—even for Rogue River valley production—were brought to this office Saturday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dean of Willow Springs. We have seen some fine strawberries that have been grown on ranches in this valley but these latest samples are the last word in that line of fruit and simply outdo anything it has yet been our privilege to see in the way of real large strawberries. Mrs. Dean stated that there were many more in the patch equally as large as the samples brought in and that the vines were bearing abundantly this year. Along with the strawberries came a bouquet of beautiful roses with which to brighten for a time the editorial sanctum of the Herald and emphasize the fact that even the editor is once in awhile treated to some of the goods of this world. Ordinarily the editor gets but few bouquets and he is therefore the better able to appreciate at their true worth the few that do come his way.

You Don't Buy Drugs Unless You Need Them
THEREFORE it must necessarily follow that when you buy drugs the best you can get is what you most want. Our long experience in this business has given us a pretty good insight into the numerous needs of patrons.
To those who are used to patronizing our store we feel that we have small need of emphasizing the fact that we pay more than ordinary attention to the selection of our drugs and to the compounding of prescriptions that come to us. To those who have not been acquainted with us in our business dealings we give this assurance and ask for a trial order.
We charge you nothing extra for our long experience in the business but give you our very best both in work and material used at very reasonable prices.
