Obituary

Mrs. Malinda Conger was born in Ohio on the 17th day of January in the year 1848, and died at her home in Jacksonville, Oregon, August 10, 1913.

With her parents she moved to Iowa and on December 16, 1869, was married to Enos Conger. To them were born four children, three of whom survive them. They are: Mrs. Irene Wells, Medford; Mrs. Minnie Robinson, Jacksonville; H. W. Conger, Portland. Ellsworth Adams, a nephew who made his home with them from infancy, also resides in Portland.

Mrs. Conger has been a member of the Methodist church for more than forty years, having become identified with that church at the age of twenty years and since that time remaining a constant member and worker of the organization and leading a steadfast Christian life.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist church in Jacksonville Monday at 1:30, Rev. H. N. Aldrich officiating. The remains were laid away in Wagner Creek cemetery near Talent.

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Events Occurring Throughout the State During the Past Week.

Hood River Officers Will Fight Recall Hood River.—The petitions for the recall of the county judge and commissioners of Hood River county, who have been charged with extravagant handling of the county funds, now contain several hundred names in excess of the required number. It has been learned that the present county administration will resist the recall and make a fight.

Privates Get Terms in Jail and Fines. Fort Stevens.—Three of the four soldiers confined in the guardhouse at Fort Stevens immediately following the arrest of Private Waldo Coffman have been tried by a special court-martial and sentenced to six months each. Privates Johnson and Kerts were fined $120 in addition to the sentence imposed. Private Cameron was fined $90.

WOULD ERADICATE DISEASE Revolutionary Orders Issued Affecting Cattle, Dogs, Hogs and Horses.

Portland.—To protect public health by eradicating diseases of livestock the state sanitary livestock commission issued orders of revolutionary character at a meeting held in the dairy and food commissioner offices. A dog quarantine effective six months beginning August 9 to be enforced by sheriffs and peace officers, was declared in Multnomah, Clackamas, Washington, Marion, Yamhill, Polk and Columbia counties. Dogs must either be muzzled or held in leash. Animals allowed to run loose will be killed and owners prosecuted. The board ruled that all cows found by test to be tubercular, must be branded with the letter "T" on the right jaw, a brand 2 by 2 1/2 inches which cannot be obliterated. Cars used to transport hogs into or through the state must be cleaned and disinfected. All animals brought into the state must be certified to as from a territory free from hog cholera during the past six months, or that the hogs have been immunized from injection of hog cholera vaccine. All swill or refuse from restaurants or hotels or offal from packing plants must be thoroughly cooked before fed to hogs.

The commission ordered that all horses brought into the state must have received the Mallein test for occult glanders, with the exception of race and exhibition horses, those from nearby states, or horses brought from Europe for breeding purposes.

STATE TRAVELING SCHOOL

Agricultural College Instructors to Give Daily Talks En Route.

Corvallis.—Equipped with portable laboratories and educative exhibits gotten up for the special purpose of conducting demonstrations and class work in the various agricultural and general welfare subjects, 16 college professors, assisted by members of the state dairy and food commission, representatives of the state grange and of the Oregon Social Hygiene society, left Corvallis on a six weeks' tour of the state.

In carrying out this programme the Oregon agricultural college extension staff will travel in two parties, one of which will conduct general welfare schools in the cities and larger towns, while the other will devote the entire six weeks to farmers' institutes for the discussion of various topics.

The daily programme outlined for the general welfare school will consist of lectures, demonstrations and informal classroom discussions, covering such domestic subjects as cooking, house decoration, nutritive value of foods, food adulterants and preservatives and child welfare.

Big Preserve is Project.

Grants Pass.—There is a movement on foot to establish a game and fish protective territory in southern Oregon. The territory as outlined will embrace Josephine, Jackson, Klamath, Lane, Douglas, Coos and Curry counties, in Oregon; Del Norte, Siskiyou, Shasta, Tehama, Trinity, Humboldt and Mendocino counties in California.

Election Date is Named.

Medford.—At a meeting of the county court September 9 was fixed as the date of a special election to vote on the issuance of $500,000 bonds for the construction of a permanent highway extending from Ashland and the southern line of the county through Medford to the county line on the north, a distance of 52 miles.

Red Spider Strikes Hops.

Independence.—Many reports have come in from the hop yards to the effect that the red spider is appearing in large quantities. While this will not affect the quality of the hops, it looks as if it will decrease the quantity.

Fire at Pendleton destroyed half that city's Chinatown, and for a time endangered the business section. The loss was $7500.
