

There Are Many June Events Which Suggest Pictures

But None More Important Than

The June Wedding

Only a picture can adequately describe the dainty finery of bride, bridesmaids or flower girls, and like the memory of the occasion the pictures grow more precious year by year. For these best photographs you will undoubtedly go to

Commerce School Broad

Announcement is made in the newly issued catalogue of the state university that the school of commerce that is to be opened at the university in September will provide training for the following professions:

Business management; public affairs; public accountancy; private accounting and auditing; banking; insurance; secretarial business; teaching of commercial subjects. Elementary commercial subjects, such as ordinary bookkeeping and typewriting, are not to be taught. The scope of the school of commerce may be understood from inspection of a specimen subject, that of accounting. This course presupposes a knowledge of bookkeeping, and in connection with it will be taught: principles of accounting; practice of accounting; cost accounts; auditing; corporation accounts; municipal accounting; public utility accounts and advanced problems in accounting.

The new catalogue in its 276 pages gives details of the new department of architecture, and announcements of additional courses in many other departments, such as journalism.

Miss Rose Nealon attended the teachers examination at Jacksonville.

John Vincent and wife, from near Jacksonville, visited relatives and took in the picnic Sunday.

Where to spend the 4th is now the question under discussion. We had hoped Central Point would celebrate this year.

Miss Eva Hall, of Ashland, and Miss Jessie Chauncey, of Central Point, were here visiting friends and rendered some musical numbers at the picnic which were much appreciated.

We had a slight frost Sunday morning that did some damage to the tender garden vegetables. Something seems to have gone wrong with the weather since Prof. O'Gara left us.

Nearly all the residents of the Meadows were present and many from the adjoining districts. The program was a good one and well carried out and the dinner such as the ladies of that district are famous for preparing.

The affair was pronounced a success of which teacher and pupils can be well proud of.

Our Children's Day celebration called together a congregation of two hundred or more who spent a very pleasant day on the river bank Sunday.

The program consisted of appropriate singing and recitations by the Table Rock school in the forenoon. Then came the dinner in which all took an active part and did full justice to the good things provided by the ladies, who in getting it up paid no attention to the high cost of living.

After dinner, Rev. Smith from Medford, preached an elegant sermon, fitting for the occasion. Rev. M. C. Davis had charge of the exercises and Rev. A. C. Howlett was also present.

Ex-Mayor of Copperfield Shot Down.
Copperfield, Or.—Believed to be the victim of men whose enmity he incurred while he was mayor of Copperfield in the "wide open" days before Governor West declared martial law and "closed" the town, Henry M. Stewart was shot by an unknown person or persons.

Mr. Stewart was working alone at the time repairing a fence on his farm and the first that was known of the shooting was when he staggered into his home bleeding profusely from two bullet wounds. The first shot penetrated his left hand and leg. The other shot struck him in the abdomen just below the ribs. A physician summoned from Halfway to attend the wounded man gives no hope for his recovery.

NEWS FROM OUR NATIONAL CAPITAL

River and Harbor Bill, Carrying Large Appropriations, Opposed in Senate.

Washington.—The river and harbor bill, carrying one of the largest appropriations in recent years, will meet determined opposition in the senate this week.

The bill on the face of it, as indorsed by the senate committee on commerce, carries about $53,000,000. Actually, however, the sum authorized will be much greater.

Examination of the bill shows that the "pork barrel" has been generously distributed to nearly every section of the country.

While opposition forces are massing their strength in the senate for an attack on the rivers and harbors bill, as the chief "pork barrel" measure of the year, a bill introduced in the house by Representative Rucker, of Missouri, strikes at the use of a "barrel" in national elections.

Would Limit Campaign Expenditures.
The bill limiting the use of the "barrel" provides for the control of campaign contributions and expenditures.

It is a codification of the three existing federal laws with regards to campaign expenditures. It also contains several new sections.

The most significant of these is the one which provides that no "political committee" may use in any state a greater amount than the aggregate contributed by the citizens of that state. Representative Rucker's report expressly states that the bill provides that this is not to limit the use of money for publishing literature, for advertising, or for any other campaign method which appeals primarily to the judgment of voters, but it is designed to prevent the collecting of immense contributions from corporations and individuals in the financial centers of the country for use in various states. In a word, it is aimed at the national "barrel."

House Seamen's Bill is Reported.
A substitute for the La Follette seamen's bill passed by the senate was favorably reported to the house.

The bill substantially adopts the requirements agreed on by the convention on safety of life at sea at London, last January, as to lifeboats on ocean vessels, and applies these in modified form to United States vessels in ocean voyages on routes not more than 20 nautical miles off shore and on the great lakes. It would require an ocean passenger steamer, at every moment of its voyage, to have aboard no more persons than there are accommodations in lifeboats and life rafts, at least 75 per cent of this equipment to be lifeboats. Cargo steamers would carry enough lifeboats for all aboard under existing regulations.

National Capital Brevities.
Vote on the 20 year reclamation extension bill which has been presented to the house by committee, is expected this week.

Co-operative dairies, mutual fire insurance companies and like concerns must pay the income tax according to a ruling of the United States supreme court.

Investigation will be made in the senate of the report that senate stationery and government officials figured in the promotion of gold mines in North Carolina.

The treasury department received word from the revenue cutter Bear at Nome that it is not at present possible on account of the ice, to rescue the crew of the Karluk, refugees on Wrangell island.

The Russian government has been asked, it is said, if George Marye of San Francisco would be acceptable to the czar for the United States embassy in St. Petersburg.

More authority in compelling income tax dodgers to come to time is sought by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, who would force disclosure of names of stockholders in corporations and have books made free of access.

Secretary of State Olcott announces that the bounty appropriation of $40,000 made at the last session of the legislature for the capture of wild animals had been exhausted. A law passed in 1909 provides that the bounties on predatory animals shall be paid by the state and counties, each paying half. Mr. Olcott has notified the county clerks that the appropriation has been exhausted and has asked them to discontinue forwarding claims until another appropriation is made.
