Our Mill

We are pleased to note the busy hum of the flour mill again disturbing the peace and quiet of our city. Mr. Ellsworth, the proprietor of the Central Point Mills, informs us that he has purchased a much larger stock of grain than last season, to keep pace with the constantly increasing demand for the popular Mt. Pitt brand of flour, and his various other mill products, thereby distributing several thousands of dollars among our rural neighbors. We understand that two new foods are soon to be placed upon the market, viz: "Mt. Pitt Breakfast Wheatlets," and "Mt. Pitt Giddle Cake Flour," which we have no doubt will maintain the same high standard of excellence and deserved popularity as the other products of this brand. We bespeak for our mill a very busy season; and let us patronize home industry.

Off to Corvallis

A goodly number of parents, school teachers and friends, gathered at the passenger station last Saturday evening to wish a cheery good bye and hearty good luck to the large bunch of young students who left here for the purpose of pursuing the higher branches of education at the state college in Corvallis. There were twelve young men and young ladies in the party, which is by far the largest class that has ever attended from here, and it certainly speaks well for the influence of our High School that so many of its graduates have been imbued with the ambition for higher ideals of life.

The complete roster is as follows. The Misses Sadie Beebe, Doris Cowley, and Lola Freeman Messrs Otis Altimus, Jack Cowley, Zed Dorris, Melvin Ellestad, Leonard Freeman, Roland Flaherty, Frank Mayfield, Fred Taylor, and James Vestal. OREGON RANKS LOW IN NORMAL SCHOOLS

U. S. BUREAU OF EDUCATION REPORT UNCOMPLIMENTARY TO STATE'S SCHOOL POLICY.

Pendleton, Ore.—Oregon is one of the most poorly equipped states in the Union for the training of teachers, according to the United States Bureau of Education.

Only five states in the Union have less normal equipment than Oregon. Oregon has one Normal School and forty states have more than one. New York has 18, Pennsylvania 18, Massachusetts 12, California 8, Washington 3 and Idaho 2.

The report of the Bureau of Education shows that even the little state of Idaho, with a population only half as large as that of Oregon, is spending more than twice as much for Normal Schools as is this state.

The same report urges that Normal Schools be located in the railroad centers with public schools sufficiently large to give teaching practice to the Normal students.

State Superintendent Churchill's annual report shows that of the 6055 teachers in Oregon last year but 791, or 13 per cent, were Normal School graduates. The same official estimated that 1000 new teachers are needed each year and the present Normal school is turning out but 150. The majority of Normal trained teachers are shown to be teaching within a small radius of Monmouth, although Eastern Oregon pays on the average of $10.41 a month more for teachers than does the Willamette Valley.

Spoken With Feeling

"There are all sorts of synonyms for money in this country," said the talkative man. "We call it 'tin,' 'mazzuma,' 'kale,' 'dough,' and a dozen other names I don't recall just now."

A solemn looking man seated in one corner opened his mouth as if to say something and then closed it without uttering a word.

"What is your favorite synonym for money?" asked the talkative person. "The unattainable," the solemn man replied, and then fell once more into deep thought.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Died Suddenly

Miss Myrtle Alice MacDowell the fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. MacDowell, died while en route to Condon, Ore., on Sept. 18th, 1916. She had reached Arlington. Miss Myrtle was born Sept. 7th, 1900.

Her death was a great shock to her parents and friends, for to her health had been failing for several months, all had hoped that a change in climate would be of benefit to her, so she started for the north part of the state Sunday evening.

Myrtle was a girl who had a host of friends and will be greatly missed by all.

She leaves, besides her parents, four sisters and three brothers, Mrs. C. E. Clark and James MacDowell of Condon, Mrs. R. M. Holmes of McCoy, Mrs. S. J. Bristow of Brookings, Ore., and Clark, Leota and Leighton C. of Central Point.

Mrs. Moore Honored

"Coming events cast their shadows before." A party planned for Tuesday evening to honor Mrs. R. H. Moore was almost overshadowed by the fact that the first dray load of their household effects left Tuesday morning for their future home in Central Point. Nevertheless, the ladies not to be daunted, engaged Mrs. McFarren to occupy Mrs. Moore at her home with conversation until the time appointed to bring her to the ladies assembled at the residence of Mrs. W. H. Gardner in Gold Hill. To Mrs. Moore the trip around the town was almost like a "tour of the world" before reaching their destination, but on arriving and finding her old accustomed bunch there assembled she gasped "well"—looked further around the room and gasped again. Later in the evening all repaired to the Home Dining Hall where a lovely lunch was served. The ladies present were the Mesdames R. H. Moore, M. R. Rice, Ralph Darling, A. E. Kellogg, G. W. Milam, E. M. McIntire, Nellie Darling, Lucy Mee, Isoro Hodes, Fernin Zano, Tom West, J. F. Deitrich, Geo. Iverson, D. H. Miller, E. T. Simmons, C. N. Shaver, W. H. Gardner, P. Langdell, and R. C. Kelsey. All departed at a late hour with pleasant memories of the evening but sad regrets at the prospect of losing Mrs. Moore from their midst; she has been a willing worker in all the undertakings of the Ladies Aid and a willing and competent secretary and will be greatly missed in all their future work.—Gold Hill News.
