Glee Club Concert a Big Success

Central Point High School Students Make a Hit

The First Annual Concert given by the Central Point High School Glee Club was a big success, and much praise is due both the students taking part in the program and the teachers who worked hard for weeks to drill them for this, their first appearance in a public recital. Prof. Smith was the director of the Glee Club and Miss Bracons the accompanist, both teachers winning the appreciation of the high school patrons by the merit of the program presented.

A good audience had gathered to hear the program of song and wit so delightfully rendered by the young people. The first number by the Glee Club, "Anchored," was delightful, and the Missouri waltz song by the septette was a real treat. This Missouri negro song has a swing that is irresistible.

The violin solo by Mr. Smith was fine and the audience was disappointed because he was not prepared to respond to the encore that followed the rendition of his selection.

The piano solo by Miss Wallace was prettily rendered, also. The number entitled "Hawaiian Hits" was very pleasing, this number pulsating with a buoyancy and enthusiasm that formed a delightful contrast to that which had preceded.

The pantomime, "Miss Popularity's Reception", was the best number on the program in the way of wit. Every one laughed heartily all through this sketch.

Part two opened with a very pretty song—"Barcarole", by the Glee Club. The ukulele medleys by Miss Beebe were rich in wit and made a hit with the audience. "Ashes of Roses", by the Glee Club, was well rendered; and the character sketch, the impersonation of a negro servant girl of a Southern home, presented by Miss Lull, was well acted.

The closing number by the Glee Club, "Soldier Song", was undoubtedly the most pleasing number on the program. Coming at a time when the National patriotism is raised to a high pitch, this patriotic song made a most delightful, inspiring impression on the minds of those present. Not only was the sentiment delightful, but the rendition as well, the young people singing it with sincere enthusiasm.

Table Rock People are Enthusiastic

Thirty-two Sign Up as Red Cross Members

At the preaching service held at the Table Rock schoolhouse last Sunday afternoon by Rev. Paul S. Bandy of Central Point, the choir of the Central Point Presbyterian church sang a portion of the Easter cantata, "The Risen King", music composed by Schneckler, and Herbert Clark, baritone, sang a delightful Easter solo. Miss Wallace presided at the piano.

A large crowd had gathered to hear the Red Cross work presented by R. H. Paxson, the chairman of the Central Point auxiliary recently organized. Mr. Paxson is very enthusiastic about the work and presented the subject of the Red Cross work in a very clear, earnest manner. As Mr. Paxson served with the U. S. Red Cross in the Spanish-American War in the Philippines, he was in a position to explain the humanitarian work of this great organization in a comprehensive way.

Following the presentation of the movement by Mr. Paxson, Rev. Bandy called on Col. Washburn of Table Rock for a talk. He gave an interesting talk, explaining his stand in this present crisis and showed that he, too, was enthusiastic about the Red Cross work. By the time he had finished his talk, the enthusiasm had taken the entire audience. The organization of the Table Rock Auxiliary was effected in short order with the following officers elected: chairman, Mrs. Washburn; director, Mrs. J. C. Pendleton; secretary, Miss Mary Nealon; treasurer, Stanley Lydiard.

On Mrs. Washburn's request Col. Washburn acted as chairman pro tem. When the list of signers was completed, 32 people had put their names down as charter members of the Red Cross Auxiliary, which is certainly speaking well for the Table Rock community.

As the time was taken up with the organization of the auxiliary, Rev. Bandy omitted his sermon.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Billings of Grants Pass were visiting friends in our city Sunday.

Why The Smaller Size Again

The order for the new parts to our Diamond cylinder press was not filled, but, instead, the factory sent us a revised price list which just doubled the cost of the order that we had sent in for the new parts needed. As the sole proprietor has not yet received his inheritance of a million—(!) he was also compelled to "cut out" that extra expense of having the paper printed in Medford. So with this humble apology we greet you with the "little Herald" again. When that ship comes in, we may make the paper ten times (!) larger.

Anniversary Number, April 19

In honor of the 12th anniversary of the founding of the Herald a special edition will be published Thursday, April 19. As has been announced from week to week, there will be a number of special articles in the Anniversary Number.

One special feature will be the 1st chapter of the story, "The Sky Love Sign", which has never been published, succeeding chapters to follow.

We wish here to announce the change in the name of the paper. The name in the future will be, "PACIFIC HERALD".

Be sure to let us know how many extra copies you want.
