High School Notes

A great many of the parents and townspeople turned out and visited the school Friday, despite the gloomy outlook in the forenoon. After an old fashioned basket dinner in the school basement at noon, there were rousing patriotic speeches in the High School assembly. The speakers of the afternoon were Mayor Gates of Medford, County Supt. Ager and Attorney Canady, also of Medford. A meeting of the farmers was held under the direction of Roland Flaherty, and a canning demonstration was given in the Domestic Department. The exhibits were viewed with interest, and especially the Domestic Art exhibit by High School girls received worthy mention. Lastly, a track meet was held between the four upper grades of the grammar school. First place went to the seventh grade. Autumn Lynch was easily the star of the meet.

The Seniors were turned loose Friday, excepting those who have examinations or work to make up.

The Baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Rev. Hogg of the Presbyterian church of Medford, last Sunday evening, at Central Hall. Special music was rendered by a large chorus choir.

Commencement exercises will be held at Central Hall, Friday, May 18. The program will be along the patriotic line, and the students and the exercises to represent sailors and a ship. The graduating class is composed of four boys and ten girls, as follows: Marguerite Hall, Jessie Chauncey, William Welch, Ruth Lull, Lela Peart, Wilbur Dunlap, Christina Heckman, Hattie Pence, Lysle Gregory, Irwin Hurley, Rose Neale, Edith Jacobs, Russell Harris and Katherine Nealon.

We're going on a picnic, but we don't know where.

Betts will buy all your old rags, rubber and rope. Will pay $\frac{1}{2}$ to $1\frac{1}{2}$ cts. per pound for rags. Hotel Central, Central Point.

This week we received a handsomely framed picture of Crater Lake, in colors from the Southern Pacific company. It is a thing of beauty and art which we appreciate.

Miss Katherine Thompson left Friday morning for Merrill, in Klamath county, where she goes to accept a position in a store formerly owned by E. C. Faber of Central Point.

Betts will buy all your old zinc, copper, lead, brass, etc. Hotel Central, Central Point.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church will be entertained by Mrs. Tom Pankey at her home on Wednesday afternoon, May 23. All members and friends are invited.

"The Sky Love Sign" was left out this week owing to the fact that we could not possibly get time, with our present force, to set the type. We hope that at least a portion of this story that is growing in interest may be in the succeeding issues until the story has been published complete.

ATTENTION, TEACHERS!

THE SIX WEEKS' REVIEW COURSE FOR PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS, HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES AND OTHERS

At 8:30 on Monday morning, May 28, 1917, the Third Annual TEACHERS' REVIEW and METHODS COURSE will begin at the MEDFORD COMMERCIAL COLLEGE, 31 N. Grape St., Medford, Oregon, under the personal direction of

MRS. EVELYN L. WALKER,

Superintendent of the Teachers' Training and Methods Department of the Central Point High School, Central Point, Oregon.

This Course is given chiefly for the convenience and benefit of Southern Oregon teachers, High School graduates and others who may desire to review required subjects preparatory to taking the State examinations on June 28 for Primary, One-year and Five-year certificates.

Mrs. Walker, as an instructor, needs neither introduction nor testimonials, as her professional work in both Crook and Jackson counties enjoys not only the indorsement of our County and State Superintendents, but the hearty approval of many grateful teachers as well. Whether you do or do not take the Examination on June 28, it will benefit you greatly to take this Review and Methods Course under the direction of Mrs. Walker.

Teachers' Review Course will be held on the six week days of each week and closes on Saturday, June 30, 1917. Tuition, payable in advance, for full Course, $10, or $2 a week.

Call, write, or phone 15 L, for any further information you may desire concerning the Teachers' Review and Methods Course.
