

Memorial Services at Presbyterian Church

The Memorial Day sermon was preached last Sunday at the Presbyterian church by the pastor, Rev. Paul S. Bandy, Rev. S. J. Miner of Kansas assisting. The local Women's Relief Corps and the old soldiers of the Civil War went in a body to hear the sermon. The church was prettily decorated with flags and bunting and flowers. A large audience was present. Mrs. E. B. Stanley sang a delightful solo at the opening service. Rev. Bandy delivered an able address that was befitting the occasion.

Former C. P. Man in Business

C. C. Clark, who was a resident of Central Point a number of years ago but recently from San Francisco, has opened up a new cleaning establishment in Medford, where he cleans anything from men's or ladies' hats to gloves or clothes. Mr. Clark is an industrious young man who does consistent work, and his former friends in Central Point are invited to call on him at his new location, 36 N. Front street. "The National" is the name of the establishment.

Uncle Sam and His Folks

[Mrs. R. E. Stanley, Tillamook.]

Patriotism! Well, I guess so. Uncle Sam and his folks Were never found slow, except to anger. They'll take and take, And stand a whole lot for sweet peace sake. And peace we must have, but not at any old cost, For peace without honor is honor lost!

Now, if Germany or any other nation on earth Wants anything of us for what it is worth, We're ready and waiting, like time in its flight, And if she succeeds, she'll have a peach of a fight.

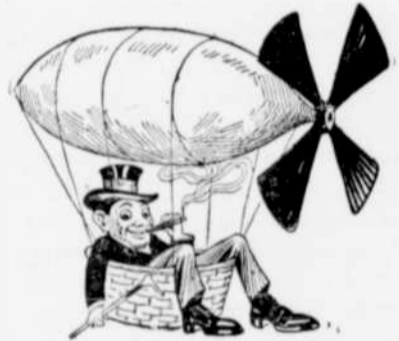

Uncle Sam's airships can sail in the air, And any Germans buzzing around will find us right there. We can even run a Ford where big cars can't go. Who said Uncle Sam and his folks were slow?

And they'll find that wherever "Old Glory" flies His folks will stand pat till the last hero dies. Uncle Sam and his folks never took to the woods— When there's any thing stirring we're there with the goods.

From the north and the south, from the west to the east, Full grown, half size, greatest and least, From the Rio to St. Lawrence, from San Diego to Nome, Uncle Sam and his folks are always at home.
