Wedding Bells

Miss Francine McNassar, who formerly lived in the Willow Springs district, near Central Point, was married June 2 at Stockton, Calif., to Charles E. Lane of Van Noyce, Calif. Miss McNassar is an accomplished musician and elocutionist and has a host of friends in Jackson county. Mr. Lane is a young business man of Van Noyce, where the young couple will make their home.—[Mail-Tribune.]

At the home of Rev. Frederick W. Carstens, 428 W. 4th St., James G. Perdue and Miss Grace Ruth Boardman were married Sunday afternoon. Rev. Carstens officiated, using the brief but impressive ring ceremony.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Perdue are well known about Central Point, where a wide circle of friends wish them success and happiness. Mr. Perdue undertook to establish his residence in Dorris, Siskiyou county, Cal., some weeks ago, but found it necessary to return to Central Point to register Tuesday. This accomplished, the happy couple will go to Dorris to make their future home.—[Medford Sun.]
