The Quality in the Bag

Making Pie Crust

With Mt. Pitt as the principal ingredient is far less a task and is far more likely to "turn out well" than if ordinary flour is used. The same thing can be said of Mt. Pitt flour in all other bakings. A sack of it ordered today will prove long before it is empty that our flour is the best all-around flour made. The wise housekeeper is buying a few sacks now to tide the family over until new wheat is fit to grind. Mt. Pitt flour now $3.10 the sack. Favorite flour now $2.70 a sack.
