

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The Herald is pleased to acknowledge the receipt of a handsome wedding announcement card from Mrs. Dot McNassar, at Stockton, Cal., announcing the marriage of her daughter Francine to Mr. Charles Ernest Lane, which was solemnized June 2, as announced in our columns last week.

Invalid chair in good condition for sale. Inquire at Herald office.

Remember the Choral Club concert to be given at the Page Theatre, Medford, Friday evening. The combined chorus, including the best talent of both Ashland and Medford and "Central Point", will consist of 150 voices, and will certainly be well worth hearing by all.

Are you going to the roundup in July? If so, see Mrs. F. A. Hawk, the local milliner, before you buy your new hat. She has just received a new shipment of hats.

"Overalls for Women" are destined to stay judging from present indications. Cranfill & Robnett have a shipment of this new style wear coming in a few days.

Miss Mildred Hawk, who has been suffering with appendicitis, is still quite ill. It is hoped that she may escape an operation, however.

Arsenate of Lead, one, two and five pound packages, at Paxson's.

C. Norman of Sams Valley was in town Saturday.

FOR SALE—Good second-hand Shoninger Piano.
8-11 W. K. PARKER, Seven Oaks.

Mrs. Louis Goinstein of Medford is rapidly recovering from her operation in the Dow Hospital.

The many friends of Earl Moore, nephew of Sam and Ed Moore, will be pleased to know of his marriage, June 3, at Ekalaka, Montana, to Miss Viola Hall. The young couple will make their home about six miles from Ekalaka, where the groom has taken up a homestead.

Mrs. Scott Woolf, who recently had a major operation performed in the Dow Hospital, returned to her home in Medford on Monday.

Boyd Potter's little son was accidentally kicked in the head Monday evening by one of his father's horses. He was rendered unconscious and suffered a severe shock. At present he is improving.

Willow Springs Items

A pleasant dinner party took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Elden last Friday, the guests of honor being Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Neal and Miss Martina Neal. The Neals are on their way south and stopped over a few days to visit with the Parker family and look up old friends in the neighborhood where they formerly resided.

School election occurs Monday, June 18, at the school house.

Mrs. J. J. McInerney and daughter left Saturday for the south after spending the last week with the Hoagland family.

A telephone meeting took place at the school house Monday evening, and various business was attended to.

Rev. and Mrs. Bandy and daughter Virginia, of Central Point, spent Friday evening with the R. W. Elder family.

The Misses Helene and Leah Parker are visiting with friends near Derby.

R. H. Paxson celebrated his "annual birthday" Wednesday together with a few relatives and friends. This date was chosen for the celebration of two or three other anniversaries happening on or near June 13, Mr. Paxson's birthday coming on June 14 or "Flag Day".

The Quality in the Bag

On Our Next Delivery

let us send you a few bags of our extra fine feed. They won't cost you any more than you are paying now for outside stuff. It will only take a few trials, however, to prove how much superior in every way our feed is. It certainly seems good to and for the horses or stock. And what is good for them is good for you. Our line includes Bran, Shorts, Fine Midds, Oats, Rolled Barley, Poultry Feeds, etc.

The Central Point Mills
CENTRAL POINT OREGON

FOR SUIT CLEANING AND PRESSING

Suits Cleaned and Pressed..... $1.50
Suits Sponged and Pressed..... 1.00

We do all kinds of laundry work at the Cleaning and Pressing Parlors, Central Point, Oregon. The work is all done by hand; no machinery used. Up-to-date work, guaranteed to please you. Give us a trial.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Treesh
(Tack this up)

The Men Behind A Bank

The most important thing about a bank is the character and ability of the men behind it: the men who direct its affairs.

The Directors of this bank are well qualified for their duties by reason of their conservative policies, sound judgment, experience, integrity and financial standing.

Central Point State Bank