

Local and Personal Items

Any farmer desiring to subscribe for the Herald can pay for same with anything in the way of vegetables, eggs or butter that the bachelor editor can use. He will be glad to arrange to take such things. See him before he loses any more fat (!). Call at his residence on the same lot that the printing shop is on.

Mr. De Armond and wife of Table Rock came to town one day last week with some very fine bacon, which he sold to Faber's store.

Mr. Vincent and wife of Table Rock came to town one day last week to deliver some fine wood which Mr. Vincent is selling.

5-cent toilet soaps will soon be off the market on account of advancing prices. Harmony, Bath and Goblin still 5c at Paxson's.

Mr. Earnest left for Klamath Falls Sunday, where he goes to accept a good position in a city meat market. While we are sorry to lose Mr. Earnest, we are glad to hear of his good fortune. His family will remain here for the present.

Mrs. Wilson of Cottage Grove is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Earnest.

Ask your dealer for California Washing Powder. It's the washing powder that makes your washing easier and your clothes whiter. Manufactured at 441 B St., Ashland, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Strauss of Sams Valley were pleasant callers in our city Saturday.

Isel Lewis and wife and Mr. Henderson and wife motored to Wilderville to visit with old friends Sunday.

FOR SALE—Good second-hand Shoninger Piano.
8-11 W. K. PARKER, Seven Oaks.

Good garden seeds at Paxson's.

G. I. Wardrip, who taught school at Talent last year, has been engaged to teach in Professor Davis' place here next year.

"Overalls for Women" are destined to stay judging from present indications. Cranfill & Robnett have a shipment of this new style wear.

Miss Frances Davisson is employed in stenographic work at the First National Bank of Medford.

Prof. Stanley is in the auto repair business at present. This news came to light when the Red Cross team No. 3 caught the professor "red handed."

Are you going to the roundup in July? If so, see Mrs. F. A. Hawk, the local milliner, before you buy your new hat. She has just received a new shipment of hats.

L. L. Norcross is making some big improvements on his place in the east end of town. He is building a garage, wood house and cold storage combined.

Mr. Pankey and wife, of Klamath county, have been visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Guy Tex, for the past week.

Betts will buy all your old zinc, copper, lead, brass, etc. Hotel Central, Central Point.

Have you been visited by a Red Cross team? If not, don't feel hurt, for you will not be forgotten. Everyone will be given a chance to subscribe to this worthy cause.

D. C. Grim is not improving very fast and his many friends are very sorry to learn of his continued incapacity.

Mrs. E. E. Scott of Medford has invited the Ladies Aid of the local Methodist church to meet at her home next Wednesday afternoon, June 27. All members and friends are cordially invited.

Look out for fires this dry weather. If a lighted match is thrown in the dry grass now, especially when there is a strong breeze blowing, you might cause the loss of thousands of dollars worth of property.

The Ashland Chautauqua is coming in July. Also the Rogue River Round-up at the same place.

How many people coming here looking for a new location would stop, if Central Point had no paper?

W. C. Leever, the hardware dealer, has just installed a new gasoline filling station in front of his store.

Mrs. Cummins, who has been quite ill for some time, is reported to be quite low.

Six thousand dollars in Liberty Bonds were subscribed in Central Point by 41 people. That is a good showing for our community. This shows that the Liberty Bonds were pretty well distributed among our people.

Rexall Chillbreaker knocks malaria. Money back if it fails. Paxson's Drug Store.

Mrs. Middlebush was in from Trail Wednesday.

Paul Wright was in from the Buzard mine Wednesday.

Leave your orders for rubber stamps at the Herald office.

J. C. Hannah of Trail was a business caller in town Wednesday.

If you are bilious, or have frequent headaches and lack "pep," buy a bottle of Rexall Liver Salts from Paxson Drug Co. 25c and 50c.

Miss Maitly, who has finished a term of school in the Long Branch district near Trail, stopped in our city awhile Wednesday on her way home for the vacation. She lives in Alsea, near the coast from Corvallis.

Betts will buy all your old rubber and rope. Hotel Central, Central Point.

Miss Lurline Brown, representing the Ellison-White Chautauqua Circuit, was in our city Tuesday to see if interest could be aroused to put on a "fall Chautauqua" here this year. She did not meet with very much encouragement, however, as there are so many demands now being made for money. If it had come at any other time, no doubt, she could have succeeded in getting the citizens of this city interested. A Chautauqua for Central Point coming in the fall ought to be a success in normal times and would be a fine thing for the town and surrounding sections.

What would this community be without a news paper?

Mr and Mrs. George J. Treesh, who recently moved to our city from Mill City, have opened their new Cleaning and Pressing Parlors in the building across from the Presbyterian church. We are glad that we now have a cleaning and pressing establishment in our own city and believe that many of our Central Point boosters will give this new "home industry" at least a trial.

Leave your orders for rubber stamps at the Herald office.
