

Willow Springs Items

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tompkins were business visitors in Medford on Tuesday.

Quite a few Willow Springs folks attended the patriotic meeting in Central Point, Thursday evening.

Mrs. Sisty has not been very well for the last week.

Mr. S. W. Nelson of Portland spent Tuesday with Mr. Herbert Clark.

Mrs. M. F. Young went to Ashland on Tuesday to meet her mother, Mrs. J. W. Hicks, who has been spending the winter in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tompkins spent a few hours with the Berkholz family Monday afternoon.

Mrs. M. Peck called on Mrs. Fred Straube on Tuesday.

Friday was the last day of school at Willow Springs. A number of parents and visitors brought lunch with them and the day was spent in picnicing in the school grounds. The children rendered their program in the morning, which consisted of recitations and music. Every parent present expressed satisfaction at the progress the children made during the past year, and all were full of praise for Miss Taylor, the teacher.

School election occurred last Monday. Mr. Fred Straube was elected to take the place of the retiring director, W. K. Parker. Herbert H. Clark was elected clerk in place of A. V. Carlson.

W. C. Leever, wife and son, returned from the Portland Rose Festival the first of the week.

Dr. S. A. Mulkey, our popular dentist, has decided to move to Portland. The doctor has had thirty years of practice in his profession and has been in Central Point about three years. His many friends and the many friends of Mrs. Mulkey and their daughter, Miss Zaida, will regret their leaving. Mrs. Mulkey is just recovering from the injuries received in an auto accident. They expect to leave within a week and will go by auto, camping out on the trip. We are all glad to extend to them our best wishes in their new location.

H. H. Lampman of Portland is here for a few days on business in connection with some property he owns north of Central Point. Mr. Lampman is an old-time printer and newspaper man and, like all those who have followed the profession of the pen, always calls on the local newspaper man wherever they go. Ben Hur Lampman, the well known writer on the Oregonian, is one of his sons. He has another well known reporter son on a leading Pittsburg daily. Mr. Lampman lived on his place in the hills north of here for six years a number of years ago. Last year he was employed with the government force that classified the railroad grant lands in Southern Oregon.
