OWEN-OREGON TO PUSH LINE INTO KLAMATH

Speculation was rife today in Klamath over the announcement that the Owen-Oregon Lumber company of Medford, one of the largest pine mills in Southern Oregon and Northern California, is contemplating extending its logging line from Butte Falls to Klamath Falls. The census of opinion among well informed circles was that a large railroad system—presumably the Great Northern, was the motivating force behind the move.

The Owen-Oregon mill operates a line to Butte Falls, 32 miles, which was originally constructed years ago by the Great Northern as the first section of a line which would connect with Bend and Klamath Falls. An extension of this line into the Klamath basin, with the Great Northern as the "power behind the throne," has been rumored for several years.

Klamath railroad observers believe the extension of Butte Falls railroad to Klamath Falls would mean the opening gun in a fight for Rogue River fruit shipments between the northern line interests and the Southern Pacific.

Construction of the railroad would not entail particularly heavy road work as there is a natural pass through which the line would be routed. However, as to the route of the proposed line, there seems to be a difference of opinion. Many authorities believe the line would connect with the Weyerhaeuser timber line, which has been extended into the western Klamath timber belt. Others believe it would cross the Wood River valley and connect with the main line of the Southern Pacific near Chiloquin.

MEMORIAL UNION BUILDING TO BE DEDICATED JUNE 1

Formal dedication of the Student Memorial Union building, completed last fall, will be dedicated Saturday, June 1. Governor I. L. Patterson has accepted an invitation to deliver the dedicatory address. The building was erected at a cost of more than half a million dollars as a memorial to students and alumni of the college who were killed in the World War.

The dedication, to be the outstanding event of the alumni reunions and commencement week program, will be attended by many distinguished citizens from all parts of the west. President W. J. Kerr will preside and the entire R. O. T. C. unit will take part in a body. General U. G. MacAlexander, famous "Rock of the Marne," and former commandant of cadets here, will also take part in the ceremonies.

OREGON FRUITS ABSENT FROM TABLES

Ed Brodie, able editor of the Oregon City Enterprise, in decrying the fact that the breakfast table of Oregon dining rooms are graced with fresh grape fruit, or grape fruit juice rather than Oregon grown apples. Brodie occupies an impregnable position. Oregonians cannot go on hoping to better the market for Oregon apples and at the same time discard them for fruits grown outside the borders of their own state. Nor can they hope to create an enlarged demand for Oregon prunes and pears if they insist on breakfast menus on which the Oregon products are never listed.

Oregon residents will have to learn that they cannot improve their own conditions by constantly playing the other fellows game.

Growers of Oregon apples, pears, prunes and other fruits of unexcelled merits have a responsibility to perform in remedying the condition, and unless they take the initiative in advertising the value of their products and in multiplying their sales all the agitation the newspapers engage in will avail nothing.—Medford News.

OLD ROGUE ROAD WILL BE CLOSED AFTER 59 YEARS

Plans are under way to close one of the oldest county roads in the valley. The road extends on the south side of the Rogue river from Gold Hill to the Gold Ray dam at Tolo. It traverses the property of the Gold Ray Realty company.

The county never does any work on the old road, and it is not used except by anglers and picnickers on the river. However, it is passable for autos. No families live on the road.

It was the intention of the county court to close the road in 1873, when the old Fisher ferry across the Rogue river was abandoned and the main highway was diverted over Blackwell hill, but due to an error in the proceedings, the road was left open. Now, after 59 years, it is proposed to close the road.

PULITZER PRIZES FOR JOURNALISM, LITERATURE AND ART ARE AWARDED

The annual Pulitzer prizes in journalism and letters were announced by trustees of Columbia University. The journalism prizes were won by persons or newspapers in Chicago, Norfolk, St. Louis and New York.

In the field of letters Julia Peterkin's "Scarlet Sister Mary" was adjudged the best American novel of the year; Elmer L. Rice's "Street Scene," the original American play best representing the educational value and power of the stage; Fred Albert Shannon's "The Organization and Administration of the Union Army 1861-1865," the best book on the history of the United States; Burton J. Hendick's "The Earlier Life and Letters of Walter H. Page," the best American biography teaching patriotic and unselfish services to the people, and Stephen Vincent Benet's "John Brown's Body," the best volume of verse by an American. All the awards in letters carry prizes of $1000 except that for history, which carries a prize of $2000.

The largest journalism prize of $1000 for the best example of reporter's work during the year, is awarded to Paul Y. Anderson of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch for work which resulted in revealing the disposition of liberty bonds distributed by the Continental Trading Company in connection with naval oil leases.

Paul Scott Mowrer of the Chicago Daily News is awarded the $500 prize for the best correspondence during the year, and Louis Isaac Jaffe of the Norfolk Virginian-Pilot the $500 for the best editorial, which was entitled "An Unspeaking Act of Savagery" and was one of a series on lynching.

Rolin Kerby of the New York World gets the $500 prize for the best cartoon, a picture entitled, "Tammany," and the New York Evening World is given a $500 gold medal for the most disinterested and meritorious public service. The medal was awarded for the paper's campaign to correct evils in the administration of justice including the fight to curb "ambulance chasing," support of the "fence" bill and measures to simplify procedure, prevent perjury, and eliminate politics from municipal courts.

A naval flyer from the U. S. Navy set a new altitude record last Friday when he achieved the height of 39,140 feet.

Floods once more threatened portions of Oklahoma and Kansas the first of the week. Several lives were lost and considerable property was damaged. Floods following heavy rains in parts of Texas were also reported to have caused death and damage.

Sheepmen near Yakima, Washington, reported the death of some 1500 snakes in a war upon the reptiles. They were all rattlers.

The French government is again having trouble with rebels in the state of Morocco. Several casualties have already been reported.

Fred L. Boalt, editor of the Portland News, died in Portland Saturday, following an attack of influenza.

Debenture Plan Oregon Loop Passes Senate Trips Attract

A farm relief bill carrying the debenture plan opposed by President Hoover was passed by the senate.

A similar measure, but without the debenture provision, has already passed the house, where the debenture plan is expected to be eliminated.

House leaders may refuse even to consider the senate bill on the ground the debenture provision is a revenue raising measure which must originate in the lower body. If they do consent to consider the senate bill, a conference will be ordered to reconcile differences between the two measures.

Democrats, who supported the debenture amendment, united to pass the bill. Administration republicans, with a few exceptions, voted against it as a protest against the debenture plan.

The final vote was 54 to 33. Senators Steiwer and McNary of Oregon voted for the measure.

CALIFORNIANS SPREAD GOSPEL OF COOPERATION ON OREGON VISIT

Preaching the gospel of co-operation in all lines of development affecting the state of California and Oregon, 100 members of the Sacramento Region Citizens Council held their monthly meeting Saturday in Grants Pass.

Arriving at 10:45 in the morning in caravan formation, the Sacramento people spent more than an hour getting acquainted with the citizens of Grants Pass. At noon they were guests of the city at a luncheon at the Hotel Del Rogue and during the afternoon were taken on a trip to the Oregon Caves.

Simon J. Lubin, president of the Sacramento Region Citizen's Council, took charge of the meeting after President Sam H. Baker, president of the Chamber of Commerce, had called upon local citizens to greet the visitors.

HEALTH PARADE STAGED FRIDAY—PRIZES AWARDED

The Health Parade Friday afternoon was quite an event for the pupils taking part in it as well as the grown-ups, judging from the number on the streets to witness the parade. The children marched thru Main Street to the city park where Mayor Leever gave them a splendid talk. Each child was then given a Health Honor Roll pin and an ice cream cone.

95 persons were said to have perished in a fire and explosion which destroyed a hospital in Cleveland, Ohio. The gas was created by the burning of chemicals in the hospital.

Senator Brookhart of Iowa suggested that a small tax on receiving sets be placed to take care of the broadcasting of programs.

THE FEDERATED CHURCHES

J. M. Johnson, Pastor Jeremiah Calls to Obedience (Jer. 7:1-26.) is the title of the study for this week. With so much disposition to self-will and disobedience about us this is a great challenge. Go to Bible school somewhere. It will do you good, and will help someone else. "Trust" is the word for our memory verses. Our school opens at 9:45.

Our Endeavor societies will meet at 7 o'clock. The lesson is on the theme: Why is Jesus the World's Greatest Leader? (John 15:9-16; 12:23-27.) We have a place for every young person. All are welcome.

In the morning church service the pastor will preach on the subject: The Great Compassion of Christ in Our Human Weaknesses. Good song messages will help and inspire you. In the evening the annual baccalaureate service for the graduating class of our high school will be held and this is a union service, all the churches being invited to join with us.

"Oregon motorists, who desire to see more of Oregon, are very fortunate in the number of loop trips available to them," stated A. E. (Ed) Shearer, Manager of the Touring Department of the Oregon State Motor Association. "Alternate routes have been developed by the extension of our state highways system in almost every section of the state making loop trips possible which adds a great deal more variety to the trip without additional expense or mileage.

"These numerous loop trips in Oregon make unnecessary the 'beeline' tour of going straight to the motorist's destination and returning by the same route. In traveling this way, the motorist misses one of the most glorious aspects of long distance traveling—its variety."

The wonderful development of Oregon's roads has changed the situation in which there was only one good link between various points. While one may be more direct than another, there generally is an excellent way to go and an equally splendid one by which to return.

P. T. A. HOLD LAST MEETING OF PRESENT SCHOOL YEAR

The Parent-Teachers association held their last meeting for the year Tuesday afternoon at the high school auditorium. All the students were dismissed so they might attend the program put on by the Freshman class.

Janice Hesselgrave gave a musical reading and Mrs. Amick's tumbling class put on some stunts. It was a fine program and enjoyed by all. The 4-H cooking club served refreshments of cake and tea to the ladies after the business meeting, the girls baking the cakes themselves.

The new officers of the P. T. A. for next year are: Pres. Mrs. L. B. Humphreys, reelected; Vice-Pres., Mr. Amick; Sec. Mrs. Tolson; Treas. Mrs. D. E. Reames, reelected.

OHIO SPORTSMAN LIKES THE OREGON RAINBOW

Carey Wyoming Hord, a wealthy business man and sportsman of Sandusky, Ohio is thoroughly convinced that Oregon is the angler's paradise and is contemplating eventually coming here to make his home. He has visited the state a number of times with parties of friends and has fished many of the lakes and streams with success. He claims that the rainbow trout of Oregon is the finest in the world. A year or so ago, through Mr. Hord's interest, the state game commission shipped a large quantity of rainbow trout eggs to the municipal authorities of Sandusky. The fish have thrived in the city's hatchery and now Mr. Hord has made a request for an additional 100,000 eggs. These will be shipped to Sandusky this week. Mr. Hord is but one of large number of Eastern sportsmen who look upon Oregon as their home when they retire from active business.

PHYSICAL FITNESS, NOT EXPENSIVE CLOTHES, REAL SECRET

The chief reason that so many modern women appear badly dressed is that they give all their attention to clothes and pay too little to physical fitness.

Baron de Meyer, European fashion expert, sounds this note of warning as he fashions a code for the woman who values the fundamentals of smart appearance.

"Women who watch fashions more than their figures should remember," he says, "that strong muscles are far more efficient than corsets and that good health is every inch as important as slenderness. They should remember that the nude figure shows no interruption anywhere, and that nothing alters the figure God gave to women."

BROTHERHOOD SPONSORS EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN

At the regular monthly meeting of the Men's Brotherhood of the Federated churches on Tuesday evening, at which a fine representation of their organization was present, it was unanimously decided to put the Brotherhood behind the work of the Young People's Bible Conference, which will be held in June, and which will open into an evangelistic campaign under the leadership of Rev. Lawrence A. Meade of Toronto, Canada. The men of the church appreciate the fact that every department of the church will follow them in their lead for the advancement of the gospel everywhere.

Mr. Meade is an evangelist of unusual ability, having had large experience in leading in union meetings. As a leader of young people he will fill an important place in the Conference, which promises to exceed any of the others held here.

The pastor of the church here, together with all his people, will rejoice to know that the men of the church, through the evangelistic committee of the Brotherhood, will take the lead in arranging for these meetings.

CARNATION CLUB GUESTS OF MRS. HARRY DUBBS

The Carnation Club met at the home of Mrs. Harry Dubbs, Wednesday afternoon. New officers were elected, Martha Smith, President and Mrs. McBeth, Sec.-Treas.

A social afternoon was spent by the ladies and Mrs. Dubbs served delicious refreshments of sandwiches, potato chips, pickles and a fruit salad and cookies. Those present were Mesdames Dubbs, Kelly, McBeth, Smith, Brenner, Richardson, and seven babies.

A Suggestion for "Ma" Kennedy

The suggestion is made that "Ma" Kennedy change the cognomen of her saddle horse from Billy Sunday to Satan, Mephisto, or something savoring of brimstone, as it seems extremely fitting that an evangelist should be riding the devil rather than Billy Sunday.—Borrowed.

Cavalry Sergeant—"For the love of Mike, dont shove your hand in that horse's mouth!" Cavalry Rookie—"I ain't, Im trying to get it out."

You might have a chance at the race track if your horses went as fast as your money.—Judge.

"I won't marry any man unless I know all about him."

"And you won't probably marry any man if you do."

JUST ONE FIRESIDE HERO

Proud Parent (who served in the A. E. F.): "And that which I have just told you, son, is the story of my experiences in the World War."

His Son: "But papa, what did they need the rest of the army for?"

"How did your uncle Ned come to be a bachelor?"

"They didn't have cars when he was young."

FEMINE CURVES COMING BACK; STRAIGHT-LINE FIGURE TABOO

Having taken off all the weight that nature would permit, American women may now gain it back again with fashion's approval.

Enaciation is a thing of the past, rounded slenderness will mark the ideal figure of the future.

The Graf Zeppelin is expected to leave for America today from Germany. This large dirigible has already twice crossed the ocean in a round trip from Germany to this country.

A talking picture machine and equipment has been installed in the White House for the amusement and diversion of the president and his guests.

Mrs. Tom Hodgkins and baby daughter have moved to Butte Falls where Mr. Hodgkins is employed.

Mr. Bert Peck brought in a dandy salmon Wednesday morning weighing around 15 pounds.

Moore Hamilton, a student of the O. S. C., was visiting his parents over the week end.

AUTOMOBILE OUTPUT LARGER THAN EVER

The federal reserve board announced today that the automobile production in the United States reached the highest level in history in the first three months of 1929, and that the demand for automobiles had not been sufficient to absorb the output.

This production, the board said in its monthly bulletin, was the chief factor in the rise of industrial production to its present record level of 10 per cent more than in the same period last year. The board found that the automobile output had increased the demand for other materials, chiefly iron and steel, textiles and rubber. The production of tires was said to have exceeded the demand and stocks were larger than they were a year ago.

"Output of automobiles," the board found that the automobile cent larger than in the first quarter of 1928 and more than 25 per cent larger than in the first quarter of any earlier year. Production in March was proceeding at the rate of more than 24,000 cars a day, the largest output ever reached in the industry.

"Demand for automobiles by consumers, which throughout 1928 had kept pace with the output, has continued to be large, but appears not to have been sufficient to absorb currently the larger production of the early months of this year and there has been some increase in the stocks of cars held by dealers. An increase in the last 15 months in the foreign demand for American cars, which now absorbs somewhat more than 11 per cent of the total output, has been a factor of some importance to the industry.

The bittern business in this county seems due to a set back. Several of the Medford dealers were arrested for selling the tonics for drinks. A good size round-up of liquor dealers in Medford was the result of the vigilance of the law enforcement department.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE

By virtue of an execution on Foreclosure duly issued out of and under the seal of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, in and for the County of Jackson, to me directed and dated on the 16th day of March 1929, in a certain action therein, wherein M.
