HOAGLAND HOME DESTROYED IN MORNING BLAZE

Fire destroyed the home of Mrs. Sam Hoagland at an early hour, Tuesday morning. The fire, caused by an overheated stove. The house was a mass of flames when the fire truck arrived and the blaze gained such headway when discovered that only a few articles were saved. Mrs. Hoagland arose at 5:30 to prepare breakfast for her son, who works at the new air port, and had gone back to bed when she discovered that the house was afire. She called to a neighbor to turn in the alarm and the volunteer fire department did good work in checking the flames. The place was partially insured.

MOTHER'S DAY PROGRAM DRAWS GOOD AUDIENCE

A capacity crowd gathered at the Christian Church to hear the program put on by the Sunday school, Sunday morning.

Piano solo by Mona Lewis, Mother's greeting by 1st grade primary, recitation by Mary Lou Gerber, Roberta Pankey and Marion Tucker.

The 1st, 2nd and 3rd year juniors put on a very good play impersonating children of other nations.

Ruth Haley, America; Darrell Shelley, France; Norma Holland, Russia; Marion Tucked, Holland; Peggy Lawrence, China; Marjorie Jones, Japan; Houston Pitts, Scotland; Arkale Mills, Ireland and Donald Richardson, Italy; Geraldine Hermanson, Mexico; and Ilene Morningstar, Goddess of Liberty.

These were all in costume and it was very beautifully played. Mother's Love was sung by the choir and juniors and Mr. Millard delivered a very impressive sermon on the subject "Behold Thy Mother."

Nine young people responded to the invitation to become members of the church.

MRS. COCHRAN ENTERTAINS GOLDEN LINK CLASS

Mrs. Frank Cochran entertained the Golden Link Bible class of the Christian Church at her home, Friday afternoon. The meeting was opened with a song after which the Lord's prayer was repeated in unison.
