Entertain for Vivienne

At a party Friday afternoon at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Jim Ross little Vivienne Ross entertained some of her school mates, the occasion being her seventh birthday.

The children played games and had a peanut hunt. Geneva Millard found the most peanuts and won the prize of a book. Vivienne received many nice gifts.

Refreshments of sandwiches, bananas, ice cream, and candy were served. Those invited were Maxine Ayres, Louise Bowman, Jean Hermandson, Geraldine Ayres, Geneva Millard, Kenneth Williams, Billy Lees, Charles Bernhardt, Mario Gione, Jerry Brown, & Keith Copenger.

Hard Food Essential

A recent survey among leading dentists disclosed the fact that orthodontists consider hard food an absolute essential for children. Ordinary diet, they pointed out, consists mostly of soft foods, with the result that the teeth and gums do not get proper exercise, or such essential elements as lime. By including hard, crunchy food in one or more meals every day the deficiency can be quickly overcome.

Cork Prevents Accidents

A "porcupine cork" to guard bottles containing poisons has been patented in London. It is fitted with sharp glass spikes which bristle in every direction, sharp enough to prick the fingers if not carefully handled. By this device, the inventor hopes to prevent the taking of poison doses accidentally, through confusion of bottles in dark closets.

Napoleon Not Originator

The expression "Perfidious Albion" was used by Napoleon on leaving for St. Helena. It is believed that he quoted from Bossuet, who, in his sermon on the Circumcision, preached at Metz, exclaimed, "Ah! Perfidious England!"

Good Work Done by Humble

The growing good of the world is partly dependent on unhistoric acts; and that things are not so ill with you and me as they might have been is half owing to the number who live faithfully a hidden life and rest in unvisited tombs.—George Elliot.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE FEDERATED CHURCHES
J. M. Johnson, Pastor

The Christian Home In A Modern World is the title of the lesson we are studying this week. The references are in Deut. 6:3-9; Matt. 19:3-9; Eph. 6:1-9; 2nd Tim. 1:3-5; 3:14, 15. The text is in Luke 2:40-52. The golden text is Eph. 6:2. School opens at 9:45. Bring a friend.

The young people will use Matt. 28:18-20 in their study of the question: Why is Christianity A Missionary Religion? (consecration meeting) Service at 6:30 and all young people are invited.

In the church service of the morning the pastor will preach the subject: Evidence That He Has Come. In the evening the subject will be: Another Great Invitation of the Master. Good song services, and good specials will be an important part of these services.
