

Local Happenings

Visit on Applegate

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cochran spent Sunday at Applegate.

Medford Shoppers

Mrs. Ernestine Rostell was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Odd Fellows to Ashland

Nine local Odd Fellows journeyed to Ashland last week and visited the lodge in that city.

Visit Central Point

Mrs. Henry Dyngge and Mrs. L. Williams of Medford were Central Point visitors Tuesday.

Visit in City

Fred Fryrear and his boy friend of Salida, Colorado spent Wednesday in Central Point visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. Henderson.

Dinner Guests

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Watkins of Modesto were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Hermanson Sunday.

Leaves for Portland

Joe Carr who was injured some time ago while working at the mill left Monday night for Portland to receive medical aid.

Helping Brother

Edna Merritt is at Merrill helping her brother, E. H. Merritt in the Post Office during the Christmas rush. While Mrs. Merritt helped take care of Mrs. Wilson during her last illness.

Visiting at Marysville

W. J. Freeman and wife are spending the week at Marysville, Calif. visiting his brothers family. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Kincaid are looking after the Freeman home during their absence.

Juniors to Give Play

The Junior class of the C. P. High will present its annual play, Friday, December 13, "The Mummy and the Mumps". The cast has been working for several weeks on this play and it will be well worth seeing.

Locals Defeat Ashland

In a basket-ball game Wednesday night at the high school gym the Ashland midgets beat the Central Point midgets 6 to 5. The Central Point grade team defeated the Ashland junior high 9 to 7.

P. T. A. Meets

The Central Point Parent-Teachers Ass'n. met Friday afternoon at the high school auditorium with a large attendance. Mrs. Tollefson, the president presided.

Mrs. Lawrence of Grants Pass gave a very interesting talk after which refreshments of cake and tea were served.

Leave For South

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Norcross left Thursday for Los Angeles to spend the winter.

The Carnation Club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Albert McBeath at Phoenix. The afternoon was spent in sewing and visiting. The hostess served delicious refreshments. Those present were Lois Richardson, Donna Brenner, Rose Hodgson, N. Heriford, and Tella McBeath.

Past Noble Grands Meet

An all day meeting of the Past Noble Grand Club was held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Ferguson, Thursday. The covered dish luncheon that had been planned turned out to be a bounteous turkey dinner with all its trimmings.

The Christmas spirit prevailed thru out the day. A beautifully trimmed tree was placed in the living room and when all the presents were placed under it, it certainly looked as if Santa Claus had been there. The color scheme of red and white was carried out and a small tree graced the dining table. All declared Mrs. Ferguson a splendid hostess.

Those present were Mary Richardson, Ida Henderson, Nellie Simmons, Catherine Merritt, Betta Pankey, Ernestine Rostell, Mary Hay, Clara Vincent, Bertha Bonney, Clara Farra, and Inez Ferguson.

Corps Elects

The Womans Relief Corps of Central Point met in regular session Saturday afternoon, December 7.

The election of officers resulted in the following: President, Erna Gleason; Senior Vice, Dora Jones, Junior Vice, Lois Richardson; Chaplain, Mattie Parker; Conductor, Rose Hermanson; Guard, Tillie Maple; Treasurer, Carrie Welch. After the meeting adjourned a birthday party was enjoyed. The guests entertained were Mesdames Roe, Richardson, Tom Pankey, Jones, Smith, Maple, Obe Pankey, and Henderson. Delicious refreshments of sandwiches salad, cake and coffee were served.

CENTRAL POINT GRANGE

TOLD OF CONVENTION
Central Point Grange met last Friday night and Master John Anderson gave an interesting talk on his trip to the National Grange Convention at Seattle.

During lecture hour Mrs. Pearl Bonney and Mrs. Waltermire gave readings, Mrs. Mabel Sims a piano solo, and Mrs. Catherine Wendt a song. Both ladies are from Jacksonville.

Brother Westerfield gave a history of the Carey sitters, (song writers). Refreshments of doughnuts and coffee were served.

Spend Week-end in Merrill

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt and Eugene went to Merrill Sunday and returned Monday. While there they attended the funeral of Mrs. George Wilson. Mrs. Wilson was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Stukel, old pioneers of the Klamath country and was born and lived her whole life at Merrill. Mr. Stukel was a veteran of the Modoc war and Mrs. Stukel was the first white woman to settle in the Klamath Country and she is still living at Merrill. Mr. Stukel died several years ago.

Mrs. Lulu Strohmair was given a delightful surprise at her home near Central Point, Tuesday, Dec. 3rd, the occasion being her birthday. The ladies served a delicious covered dish luncheon and those present were Betta Pankey and Vinnie Kyle of Medford, Inez Ferguson, Mollie Wright, Mollie Neil and Lulu Strohmair.

Read the Ads and profit. A good advertiser is usually a good merchant.

Mrs. Earl Smith and her infant daughter returned home last Sunday. The little Miss is called Martha Smith.

Grandpa Laws, a resident of the Rogue River valley for about fifty years, very suddenly passed away late yesterday afternoon. He was on his bed taking an afternoon nap as was his usual habit and when he got up it is thought he dropped dead on the floor where he was found by his daughter-in-law. Grandma Laws passed away while asleep a few months ago. They have a number of children to notify so the funeral arrangements have not been set.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stevenson of Grants Pass were callers at the Love home Wednesday evening.

The basketball fans were planning on going to Jacksonville, Thursday night but owing to the death of Freeda Laws's grandfather the game was postponed.

The Ladies Aid did very well with their lunches and bazaar last Friday. They took in $129 during the day. The hall took on the Christmas spirit with all its decorations.

Mrs. Henderson and her father,

Captain Murry are visiting relatives in Marysville, Calif. They are expected back this week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill White, Florence White and mother, Mrs. Warren are planning a trip to Pendleton soon if weather permits.

All the officers of the local grange are going to Jacksonville Thursday night to be installed in a group with several other Granges.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Rev. John Stille of Trail, and former pastor of the church here, preached a very helpful sermon at the funeral of the late Mrs. W. H. Heckman, on Sunday afternoon. The ladies' quartet sang two beautiful numbers.

The Ladies' Aid Society is unusually busy just now doing some quilt making along with the other activities.

We are glad that the folks who are shut in with the fevers and other troubles are getting along nicely, and we have hopes that all will soon be out, and with us again. We miss them.

Rev. J. M. Johnson went to Prospect to meet his monthly appointment there on Thursday of this week Mrs. Johnson accompanying him. They were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hackerup at the Copco plant.

Fifteen people formally received into the church at the close of the services on Sunday morning. The Holy Communion was given to all following the reception. The spirit of fellowship was precious.

THE FEDERATED CHURCHES

J. M. Johnson, Pastor

The Christian Spirit in Industry is the title of the lesson assigned to us for study this week. Read the scriptures in Deut. 24:14,15; Eph. 6:5-9; 1st Tim. 6:17-19. Any other scriptures are welcome. School opens at 9:45, and there is a welcome for you.

Interesting and helpful studies in the young people's devotional services, beginning at 6:30 p.m. All young people are invited. You should hear the object talks. The subject for the evening study is: What Have Young People to Give?

2 Cor. 8:1-15.

In the church services of the day the pastor will preach both morning and evening. All who are not in services elsewhere are invited here. You will find a warm welcome. The subject for the morning sermon will be: The Normal Christian Life. In the evening the subject will be: An Invitation That Becomes a Challenge. Good singing in which you can join will lift us all nearer to the master.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

"You are Welcome"
D. E. Millard—Minister.

Miss Eula Benson—Bible school Superintendent.

Bible school at 10:00 A. M. with classes for all ages.

Church services at 11:00 A. M. A cordial invitation to all.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Central Point, Oregon
West Pine Street

Faithful Men in Charge
Assembly—10:00 o'clock A. M.
A cordial welcome to all.

Why Hide Your Light Under a Basket?

If you have something to sell advertise it. Don't try to keep it a secret. You have competitors who will not be so retiring.

If you don't think enough of your business to boost it. You should not feel bad if it is not a success.

Willing to Serve You

at all times with the very best meats the market affords. We do our own buying to conform to the local demand for good meats as we know it from our long experience dealing with the local trade.

NO PRODUCT TOO GOOD FOR OUR CUSTOMERS

Central Point Meat Market

Central Point I. D. Lewis Oregon

Use Your Oldest Established Newspaper

The Central Point Star

Our Newspaper is Not a Sideline But a Business
With Us