Celebrates Birthday
Miss Mary Jane Bowman celebrated her tenth birthday on Friday last, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bowman, with a party to which a number of her friends were invited. Games and fortune telling was enjoyed after which all were seated at a beautifully decorated table ornamented in the center with a huge box of popcorn in which prizes were hidden tied to ribbons placed at each plate. Much fun was had in finding the prizes.
Refreshments of sandwiches, cake, punch and ice cream were served. Those present were: Geraldine Tex, Geneva Brown, Ains Ayers, Catherine Lathrop, Edna Schafer, Helen Nelson, Nellie Eicher, Grace Hermanson, Jerry Hermanson, Francis Faber, Naomi Johnson, Toshiko Takao, and Mary Jane Bowman.

Golden Link Meets
At the country home of Mrs. Victor Bursell, Friday afternoon, the Golden Link Bible Class of the Christian Church held their regular monthly meeting. The meeting was opened by singing, "Must I Go and Empty Handed", followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. Mrs. Coker read the devotionals.
A song by Doris Richardson and a duet by Mrs. Strohmeir and Doris Richardson were greatly enjoyed.
Little Helen Young sang two songs and Mrs. Young gave two readings.
Refreshments of sandwiches, apple pie, "a la mode" and coffee were served by the committee. The January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lettie Gregory.

Those present were: Mrs. C. L. Goff, Mrs. E. N. Biden, Mrs. T. J. Wilmot, Mrs. Clyde Hon all of Medford; Mrs. Neil, Mrs. Cash, Mrs. Pankey, Mrs. Hermanson, Mrs. Peck, Mrs. Loren Gregory, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Haley, Mrs. Coker, Mrs. Lethrow, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Hover, Mrs. C. M. Merritt, Mrs. Clara Vincent, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Vincent, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Conger, Mrs. Terrell Mrs. Young, Mrs. Cornutt, Mrs. Strohmeir, Mrs. Doris Richardson, Eula Benson, and Mrs. Bursell.

Little Bessie's mamma hearing peals of childish laughter from the adjoining yard, went out to see what it was all about. She found her dimpled darling and the little neighbor boy sitting in a big box with licorice cigars in their mouths choking with glee.
"Dear me," she exclaimed, "what fun you're having—and are you playing train?"
"Yes," replied little Bessie, "this is the smoking compartment, we're traveling men, and Bobbie is telling Pullman stories."

Believe it or Not
Melvin hates Vera. He admits it. Mrs. Campbell speaks in Latin. Ask Woodie.
Nora Dusenberry is generous with her sandwiches. Ask Pinky.
The Juniors and Freshmen won the thrift contest again with an average of 65 per cent; the sophomores and Seniors had but 40 per cent.

LOCAL SCHOOLS TO GET TWO WEEKS VACATION

The Central Point schools will close on December 20th for Christmas vacation and will not resume until January 6 giving the children and students a two weeks vacation. Many of the teachers will go to their respective homes to spend the holidays.

FARM PIONEERS

Spray material, put in readiness now, may mean the difference between profit and loss on next year's crop.

A good rule in pruning is to start with the older, less vigorous trees, and end with the younger, more vigorous ones, finds the Oregon Experiment station.

FEDERATED CHURCH NEWS

The men of the gospel team met a hearty welcome at Reese creek last Sunday afternoon. A fine congregation had assembled for the all day service.

Rev. Fred F. Schell of Pasadena, Calif. has been called as pastor of the Phoenix Presbyterian church. Mr. Schell was a candidate for the pastorate here at the close of the ministry of Rev. Maxfield. For different reasons he thought it best not to accept the pastorate here at that time. We are glad to have him in this field, and glad he has such a fine opportunity at Phoenix.

The offering in the Sunday school next Sunday morning will go to Faith Home for children at Geres, Calif. This offering will become part of the Chris. Witt memorial fund, which was established two years ago in honor of Bro. Chris. Witt. Any amount will be acceptable, and will be forwarded at once.

A good attendance was a most encouraging thing at the Tuesday afternoon Bible class under the leadership of Mrs. H. W. Davidson. The class is open to all.

Mr. A. W. Ayres whose work keeps him away from home a good deal of the time, is enjoying a few days with his family. He found the wood camp life a little monotonous last week.

The boys' Pioneer Club will have its regular meeting on Saturday evening of this week. Any boy ten years of age or older, will be welcome.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE FEDERATED CHURCHES
J. M. Johnson, Pastor

"The Child in a Christian World" is the title of the lesson assigned us for this week. The scriptures are found in Matt. 18:1-6; Mark. 9:36,37,42; Luke 2:1-20. The title is made and may not quite suit you. The great privilege of helping bring up a child in the way it should go is god-given. Come, let us study this practical lesson.

The young people will study the scriptures given in Luke 2:1-14 in their devotional services. The thought is: How Christmas Sets The Whole World Singing. All young folks are welcome. Services at 6:30.

God's gift to the world will be the pastor's theme in the morning sermon. Good special songs and a fine spirit of fellowship will help create a right spirit of worship. All are welcome. A musical program in the evening will help celebrate the birth of our Lord. Come, bring a friend.

Attention is called to the meeting of the Pioneer Boy's Club on Saturday evening of this week. All members and new boys are expected.

Why Hide Your Light Under a Basket?

If you have something to sell advertise it. Don't try to keep it a secret. You have competitors who will not be so retiring.

If you don't think enough of your business to boost it. You should not feel bad if it is not a success.
