OBE PANKEY RELINQUISHES TELEPHONE MANAGEMENT

Tuesday evening the Mutual Telephone Company met and elected Sanford Richardson as manager of the company to replace O. Pankey, resigned.

Mr. Pankey has been suffering ill health for the past few months and has decided to relinquish his management of the local company and try to regain his health. Mr. Pankey has been a very successful manager for the company and has given wonderful service and enlarged the company's list of patrons to a large extent. The patrons of the company regret to hear of Mr. Pankey's resignation but they are assured of a continuance of good service and capable management under the supervision of Mr. Richardson. The change in the office will take effect April 1st.

KINCAID WINS IN GOLD HILL DANCE LAW TEST CASE

It has been a long time since Lucius Kincaid was arrested for operating a dance hall without a license in Gold Hill. On June 12 last Mr. Kincaid was placed under arrest in Gold Hill when he attempted to operate his dance after 12 o'clock. As a result a test case was made of the dance law which was passed by the last legislature placing under the county court the supervision of the dances conducted in cities of less than 500 population. The case has been taken to the supreme court and the decision handed down by Circuit Judge Norton was reversed. What the next step on the part of Kincaid will be we have not been able to ascertain but it is intimated that he is planning on operating his dances here again in the near future.

ENTERTAIN AT SURPRISE PARTY

Ossie—Is Mrs. Naybor the modern kind of woman who sings in the rain?
Gossip—No, she's the old fashioned kind who reigns in the sink.

Mrs. Isaacs—Oy, our little Jackie is all the time taking things to pieces and breaking them up—he's so destructive.

Mr. Isaacs—Don't worry about him, Rachel, he shows great promise. Some day he may be an automobile mechanic.

The Soviets have gone a step further than the doctrine of religious freedom. They are now advocating freedom from religion.

PROMINENT LOCAL MAN DIES AT HOME, SUNDAY

"Jimmie" Burns, prominent local citizen and for many years a town character, known and liked by everyone—with a joke and a cheery greeting—died at his home, in this city, Sunday at about 80 years of age.

Mr. Burns has always enjoyed good health until a few weeks ago when he was taken with pneumonia. He was cared for by Mrs. J. W. Bryan until he had recovered enough to return home. He suffered a relapse and died, Sunday morning.

Little is known of Mr. Burns' early life for he left no relatives and he was a grown man when he arrived in the Oregon country. He was born in Meo county Ireland, and came to this country at about 14 years of age and settled in Pennsylvania where he lived for about 12 years, coming to southern Oregon and took up mining on the Illinois and applegate rivers. He became a member of the Jacksonville lodge of Odd Fellows 50 years ago. The funeral services were held at the Odd Fellows hall, Tuesday afternoon at 2:00 with the Gold Hill and Jacksonville lodges in charge.

Burial was in the Rock Point cemetery.

MISSIONARY CIRCLE HOLDS REGULAR MEETING FRIDAY
