

A Dollar Dinner for Four

Escalloped Salmon with Lima Beans and Noodles—54¢
 Radishes and Sliced Cucumbers—15¢
 Bread and Butter—8¢
 Blackberry Ice-Cream—19¢
 Black Coffee—3¢

FOUR people may have an excellent dinner at home for a dollar—a quarter apiece—if the marketing is carefully done and the various items of the menu skilfully combined.

To make the salmon dish, remove the fish from a tall can (28 cents), remove skin and bones, and place as whole as possible in the center of a large, shallow baking plate. Make a sauce of one and one-half tablespoons butter, two tablespoons honey, one cup milk, liquor from the can, and salt and pepper. Pour over the salmon. Cover with one-third cup crumbs buttered with one tablespoon of butter and sprinkle two tablespoons grated cheese over; bake in a hot oven until brown. Meanwhile, have half a six-ounce package of egg noodles cooked, drained and seasoned and half of a number 2 can of lima beans heated. Arrange these in a border around the salmon. This dish makes the whole main part of the meal, supplying meat, starchy cereal and vegetable, and all its ingredients cost only 54 cents.

For the ice-cream, scald together contents of a six-ounce can of evaporated milk, one-third cup sugar and two tablespoons water, and cool. Add two tablespoons lemon juice and one eight-ounce can of blackberries mashed and pressed through a coarse sieve. Freeze as usual.*

Goat's Milk Valuable

People do not always realize that goat's milk is free from "T. B." and is especially suitable for children. The milk globules are much smaller than are those of cow's milk, consequently it is more easily digested. The milk does not readily sour, and is particularly nice to have during warm weather on that account.

Stage Cough

One of the highest compliments paid Edwin Booth was accorded him by an old negro servant who went to see him in "The Merchant of Venice" during Booth's visit to Savannah. The next day she expressed to her mistress great concern for the health of the actor. "Poor old man," she said, "he can't last long. Dat cough will carry him to his grave sure."

Visiting Wife

Mr. Shepman of North Bend spent several days here last week visiting his wife one of our High school teachers.

P. T. A. Meets

The Central Point Parent Teachers Association met at the High School Auditorium Friday afternoon April 10th. A very interesting talk by Mrs. Wilson, leader of the girl scouts of Medford was given. Dr. B. C. Wilson also gave a short talk on diphtheria.

Next!

Sam was an old southern darkey whose amiability would never permit him to acknowledge a thing could not be done, even though he was utterly at a loss as to procedure. He was called by a tenant in the flat where he was janitor to examine a leaky pipe. "Now I could find that leak," he said, scratching a bewildered head, then adding, in a burst of inspiration, "ef I could jest locate it."

No Tobacco Substitute

There is no dried weed, leaf or herb that can be smoked that will take the place of tobacco in any sense. It is possible to smoke any of the weeds or plants, but they will not have the flavor or aroma to tobacco.

LIFE SKETCH OF SENATOR HALL

Republican Candidate Well Qualified for Position of Governor.

A quarter of a century ago, a young man, lured to Oregon by the call of the west, was swinging a shovel in a Portland sewer. As each day ended he would climb steep stairs to the fifth floor of the Tremont hotel—there was no elevator—to his $1 a week room.

Today, with a fiction-like record of success behind him, the man—Charles Hall—stands before the public as a candidate for the republican nomination for governor. In 1922 he barely missed the nomination, losing by 500 votes.

He taught school three terms in Pennsylvania after completing his elementary education in a little red school house near his father's farm. When he stepped from the Portland sewer ditch, he taught a term at Clatskanie. This teaching experience gave him an intimate knowledge of educational problems in which he, as a state senator and leader in public life has been actively concerned.

Hall, after leaving school work, was employed by an uncle in a drug store at Clatskanie. He saved systematically during his early years, and then engaged in timber cruising. He was successful and made enough to attend the University of Michigan 1903-05. In 1906 he returned to Oregon, where he acquired a drug store at Hood River. There he was active in the work of the Chamber of Commerce. For a time he was the organization's president. This gave him a vision of the possibilities of united effort. He was one of the leaders in organization of the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce for more comprehensive efforts in behalf of the state, and was the first state president.

Going to Coos county, he took over a struggling rural telephone system which was undercapitalized and facing the problem of serving a rapidly growing but widely scattered area. He built and strengthened it until it was known for its efficiency, its friendly relationship with its customers, and its low rates.

A determined organizer and builder, he founded the Bank of Southwestern Oregon and later the American Bank of Marshfield.

He was among the first leaders to see the commercial value of the Columbia river highway, and interested many influential men to join the drive to put the project across. As chairman of the senate highway committee, he fostered much of the legislation for better highways.

If nominated and elected, he says, one of his first moves will be to start his "Industrialize Oregon" program by calling a meeting of representative citizens from each county in the state.

At Another's Expense

I put a situation wanted ad in the paper. The cheekiest person I ever met called up and asked if she might have all the answers to the ad that I couldn't use—K. C. in Chicago Tribune.

Turning S-L-O-W Sales into Quick Turnovers

In this ad we wish to emphasize one big idea and that is this:

You've got to put forth every effort to keep home folks coming to your stores and buying in your stores.

Advertising in your local home news paper can help accomplish that aim. Not only your own advertising, but the advertising of the manufacturers whose goods you stock as well.

You cannot get the advertising support of these manufacturers merely by wishing for it. You've got to make the manufacturers realize how necessary it is to you, if you are to sell their goods successfully.

And you can make the manufacturers realize it by selling their salesmen, who call on you, on your city—by interesting them in our town as an outlet for their merchandise—by interesting them in your local, home newspaper as the means to more sales of your merchandise.

This is an opportunity, for you merchants that you should make the most of, one that may mean all the difference between slow, infrequent sales and quick, profitable turnover.
