CRATER VS. K. FALLS

The fireballs were defeated at home last Staurday night by the Klamath Pelicans. The birds maintained a lead over the Comets most of the game. At the end of the first quarter the fireballs were behind by four points. Mike B. Turner helped bring the comets ahead at half–time with a score of 27–23. At the end of the third quarter the comets were still ahead. Terry Ash made two points to make the teams even. K–Falls continued to pile up the points driving a total of 46. The Comets did score in the last quarter.

Mike B. Turner was high man for Crater with 16. Terry Ash led in points for the Pelicans totaling 17.

The Crater Comets put on such a display of wrestling power Saturday afternoon in the Ashland High School gymnasium that the Grizzlies were unable to cope with it and went down to defeat 45-8.

In the last five of 13 matches the Comets pinned their Grizzly opponents. They also gained five decisions and one forfeit when 80-pound Jay Sherard injured his left arm in the opening bout.

Although Ashland made some valiant efforts they were only able to obtain eight points on a 4-0 decision by Steve Rost over Jack Lees and a forfeit in the 106 weight division because Crater did not enter a wrestler.

PLEASANT SURPRISE!

Mr. and Mrs. E.E. Fields were in for a pleasant surprise last Friday night when a knock came at their door. When they opened it, whom did they find standing there to greet them but their son and family, Lt. and Mrs. Ron E. Fields and daughters, Jody and Julie from Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, where the Lieutenant has been stationed with the U.S. Army.

At the present time they are houseguests in the Field's home and are alos visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H.E. Nulton of Medford.

Mrs. Fields and the children will remain in this area while Lt. Fields is on remote duty (Fire Island) in Alaska. His tour of duty there is expected to be about one year.

At the present time he is on a 30 day leave.

WHAT IS IT?

Mrs. Don Sprinkle reports to this office that she has a houseplant which reaches the ceiling that bloomed about 3 weeks ago for the first time. The plant is a relative of the split-leaf philodendron family. The blossom resembled a lily, pink with a purple color inside the petals.

TICONDEROGA, N.Y., SENTINEL: "Chief Judge Charles Desmond of the New York Court of Appeals, highest court in that state, told the Senate Judiciary Committee that juries should be eliminated. . . . More courts and judges would help expedite litigation. Desmond's suggestion might do so even faster. But without juries, we take a fateful step in a direction which could lead to just the opposite of our right to trial by jury."
