Gold Hill Notes

by Mildred Tilley

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Parker, the former Miss Volda Paulson, of Sacramento, Calif., are here visiting Mrs. Parker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Paulson and her grandfather, the Rev. R. E. Benton, who is making his home with his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Paulson. Elvin Paulson, also is here from Nampa, Idaho, visiting his parents on Sardine Creek Road.

Ron Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryon Brown, has left for Brigham Young University at Provo, Utah, where he is a sophomore.

The Sams Valley Ladies Club will hold their September meeting at the home of Gladys Koger on Howard Avenue on Thursday, Sept. 16.

The first meeting of the fall for the Friendly Neighbors Club was held last week at the Jim Desert picnic grounds for members and their guests.

Hostess for the meeting was Winnie Maynard. Others attending were Thelma Beers, Joyce Desert, Wilma Hunt, Nellie Bergman, Doreen Martineau, Wanda Griffith, Lorraine Pejeck, Eleanor Rivera, and Winnie Maynard.

Try these books at your local library:
Maulever Hall by Jane Hodge. Marianne is the nineteenth century heroine of this romantic suspense novel.
Bride of Pendorric by Victoria Holt. As legend decrees, ghosts stalk the newest "bride of Pendorric" in the ancestral home in Cornwall.
New Wind in a Dry Land by Margaret Laurence. Living in the desert of Somaliland provides the author an understanding of the land, the people, and the sometimes grim struggle for survival.

The Living Wilderness by Rutherford G. Montgomery. The author writes of many wild animals that can be seen if only one knows how and where to look for them, and he tells exactly how and where one does look.

Mrs. John Gurley and daughter, Jeanne, of Gasquet, California, were recently visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Paulson in preparation of the marriage of Jeanne and Elvin Paulson. Elvin Paulson and Jeanne Gurley were married in the Nazarene Church in Nampa, Idaho on September 10. This fall Elvin will continue his studies in the ministry in Nampa, where Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Paulson will make their home. Elvin is well known in Gold Hill, having attended grade and high schools in the valley.

Sweet Adelines Ready Winter Schedule

Members of the Rogue Valley prospective chapter of Sweet Adelines, Inc., were guests of the Crater Lake chapter at a picnic recently at Moore Park, Klamath Falls. The two choruses combined to sing favorite songs in barbershop style.
During the summer the local singers appeared and sang on television, at the Camp White domiciliary, and in Central Point for the benefit program for the library fund of Columbia Christian College in Portland.
The local chorus includes in its membership women with varied range of professions—beauticians, homemakers, and nurses; secretaries, shop owners and teachers. Visitors and new members are welcome. For further information concerning the chorus interested person may telephone Mrs. Robert Klusman, president of the local group, 773-8725. The winter schedule calls for practices on Monday starting Sept. 20. After the lighter summer schedule, chorus director Robert Klusman, Medford, will be emphasizing sight reading and good diction, clear sound production and harmony.

kinds of aid and in return their leaders have cursed us and openly espoused the Kremlin cause against us. We have given Pakistan aid also, but they have constantly been our friend.

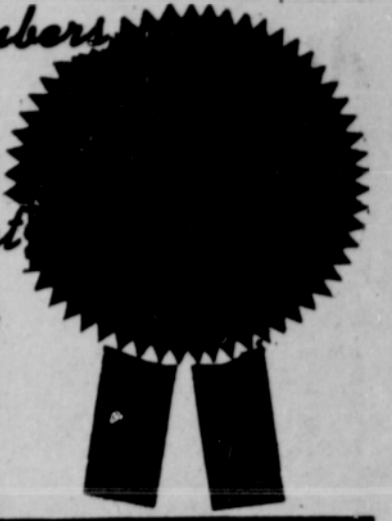

Now, through the UN, we have sent U Thant to Pakistan to ask them to quit fighting the Indians, but he says "No progress." The news boys are not telling us what we are sure Pakistan is telling Thant. They are telling him they will quit only when they are able to guarantee Kashmir the right of free elections to determine whether they want to go to India or Pakistan.

The news boys are not bothering to recall that the two countries agreed to a cease fire in 1948, when India "guaranteed" such a free election in Kashmir. Because India never allowed that election to take place, after 17 years Pakistan is doing something about it. We helped India take Gao away from the Dutch, but it is doubtful that we can help her steal Kashmir away from Pakistan any longer.

Just another sordid Washington tale about whose details they prefer to lie to the American people.

PAKISTAN and INDIA The dissemination of news we are getting from all our grand news media in re the Pakistani-Indian scrap is certainly a tribute to the gloved hand of our managed news facilities.

Embellished stories as to the causes of the trouble are pouring forth in quantity. The tightrope position of neutralism on the part of the United States is being hotly defended. Just why our neutrality must be so vehemently defended is not explained, except to state that both countries are our friends.
Trouble is, that is untrue. For some reason never openly explained, we have for many years given the Indian nation all
