JACKSONVILLE AND APPLE-GATE VALLEY NEWS NOTES

COUNCIL MEN SWORN IN

Councilmen elected at the Thursday, December 30, special election were sworn in at the Tuesday, January 4, council meeting at the City Hall which convened at 8:00 PM. They are: Malcolm McDowall, Laurelwood Heights; William "Bill" I. Bergen, 308 No. Fifth Street and Gene Barlow, Grove Street. Citizens!!!!!! ATTEND THE COUNCIL MEETINGS. SUPPORT YOUR COUNCILMAN. THEY MUST KNOW YOUR VIEWS AND NEEDS IN ORDER TO CONDUCT THESE BI-MONTHLY CITY GOVERNMENT MEETINGS. EFFICIENTLY. REMEMBER, THEY ARE SERVING AT THEIR OWN TIME AND EXPENSE, SACRIFICING MANY HOURS OF THEIR OFF-DUTY TIME. SO, THE LEAST YOU, AS CITIZENS, CAN DO IS TO ATTEND COUNCIL MEETINGS AND GIVE THESE MEN YOUR SUPPORT.

Of the over 525 registered voters ONLY 155 votes WERE CAST. A very POOR showing of Citizens interest in their local government's welfare. Those of you who did not vote, do you realize what a privilege we have as citizens of these United States in being able to cast our votes and exercise our rights as citizens of the Great Land under the Stars and Stripes - and what our young men are sacrificing their lives for in serving our country in this troubled old world of ours??????

Mr. McDowall is married, has two daughters - for and ten, is a Korean War Veteran, graduated an outstanding student with a degree in Forestry engineering at Oregon State University. He is employed as timber cruiser at Timber Products and is also a registered surveyor.

Mr. Bergen is married has two grown daughters and for four grand-children. One daughter. One daughter and family make their home in Honolulu, Hawaii, the other daughter and family make their home in Texas. He is a designer and painter with Spomer Outdoor Advertising Company, Medford. Presently he and Mrs. Bergen (Marby) are building a home on Applegate St., meanwhile residing at the N. Fifth Street address.

Mr. Barlow is married and has three sons, 8 - 10 - 12, is employed as an account executive (salesman) with KMED TV and radio.

Each of these men express their desire to serve to the best of their ability in the interests of good city government.

ATVA REPORT

Mr. Walter Jensen, president of the Applegate Television Association, announced that a limited number of five and ten bar - Channel 2 antennas are available for trial, and, or purchase for those in the Applegate Valley under the new television translator service. Further information regarding these antennas may be obtained by contacting either Lance Offenbacher, 899-1527, or Mrs. Ed Ramsey, Grange Chairman, 899-1615.

Mrs. Ramsey reports that the patrons of the new television translator on Squires Peak, upper Applegate, are receiving much improved reception; that testing operations have been underway since the first week of December and that the final permits for the translator are expected soon.

WEATHER CONDITIONS

Continuous rains upon the snowfall received this past two weeks have developed complications in various areas causing closure of some schools and handicapping residents by high waters in their vicinities.

The upper Applegate weather reporter announced that over two inch rainfall the past 24 hours (Tuesday 4th).

Josephine County schools are closed due to heavy surface waters and slides all over the roads the buses must travel, thus lower Applegate high school students are among those unable to attend school.

GET WELL WISHES DEPARTMENT

We extend get well wishes to Dan Head, Applegate school student, who received a cut hand during vacation; Brian Stoner, with a very black and bruised eye received during recess activities in the Applegate school gym. He should have zipped when he zagged to prevent contact with a fellow student's elbow; and, Mrs. Willard Wilson, upper Applegate Store, who is home convalescing from recent surgery at Rogue Valley Hospital.
