FORMER RESIDENT VISITS ALMA MATER

Marvin W. Maxwell, San Francisco, a graduate of Oregon Technical Institute Francisco, a graduate of Jacksonville High School, class of 1954, and Oregon Technical Institute electronics graduate class of 1961, Klamath Falls, visited the campus of OTI recently to interview electronics students for prospective positions with MAI Equipment Corporation, San Francisco.

Mr. Maxwell, branch customer engineering manager of this San Francisco corporation, has duties covering nine northwestern states in the firm's operations.

Mr. Maxwell also presented a convocation lecture, his topic "Opportunities for Technicians", during his visit to the OTI campus.

FIFTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY RECEPTION

Mr. and Mrs. Chester McDonough, Ruch and Mr. and Mrs. Carter Hibbs, Dillard honored Mrs. McDonough's and Mrs. Hibbs parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Winningham, Jacksonville, on their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception Sunday, January 16th, 1-4 P.M., at the Upper Applegate Grange Hall.

The hosts of the afternoon were assisted by Mrs. Ella Russell, Medford, who cut and served cake; Mrs. Eugenia McBeth, highway 238, served punch and Mrs. Vemi Stephenson, Butte Falls, served coffee; with guest book in charge of Mrs. Violet Young and Mrs. Ruth Lawrence, both Jacksonville and Mrs. Hester Knutson, Medford.

Mrs. Russell is Mr. Winningham's sister, Mrs. McBeth is a granddaughter, Mrs. Young and Mrs. Knutson are all nieces of the honored couple.

The reception table decorations were gold net over the tablecloth, with centerpiece of lighted gold colored candles in matching candelabra, and bowl with gold toned flowers.

Jim and Mamie were married in Jacksonville, December 31, 1915. They are both members of pioneer families of southern Oregon. Jim worked many years with the U.S. Forestry Service, in later years both he and Mamie were employed at one of the Lookout stations until recent retirement.

At one time, Mamie was postmistress for ten years of the then Copper postoffice.

Among the more than 200 persons who were present to congratulate the honored couple were two former teachers of Mrs. Winningham, Mrs. Ina Purcel, Taylor Road, Applegate, and Mrs. Bert Harr, Ruch at the now non-existent Watkins School, Upper Applegate.

Other special guests were Mrs. Maude Port, Ashland, formerly Ruch and Star Ranger Station Mrs. Bertha A. Baughman, A Ashland; Donald Helgeson, Canton, Minnesota; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Peterson, Brookings; Mrs. Marjorie and Mrs. Mayme Hibbert, Klamath Falls, as well as a niece of Mr. Winningham, Mrs. Verne Howard, Klamath Falls and a nephew, Lee Winningham, Happy Camp, California.

A money tree was among the many gifts presented to the couple during the afternoon's event.

Mrs. Winningham's wore a blue, two piece brocade dress, her corsage was a white orchid with a gold bow. Mr. Winningham's boutonniere was a gold dusted white carnation. Attendees corsages were of white carnations with gold bows.

RAY OFFENBACHER'S VISITED

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Word,

Douglas, Susan and Jimmy, Redding, California were weekend guests of Mrs. Word's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Offenbacher, S. 3rd St. and Mrs. Word's brother, sister-in-law and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Offenbacher, Sterling Road.

Douglas Word is now associated with the consulting engineering firm of which his father is a member at Redding, after serving two years with the U. S. Army Engineers in Germany. He is with the aerial survey division of the Redding firm. The Word family made the trip in their private plane.

APPLAGATE PTA FUND RAISING EVENT

Thursday, January 27, the Applegate PTA will present "Enrico, the Magician," as their fund raising event of the year. Refreshments will be sold. For details call 899-1635.

LIONS BALL WELL ATTENDED

Approximately 250 couples attended the second annual Grand Ball, Saturday evening, January 15 in the U.S. Hotel Ballroom. Those who did not attend this event missed an inspiring sight - the ladies with their elegant gowns and matching coiffure. Many of the gentlemen attending were also attired in period costumes.

Among the guests attending in dress of long ago were Mrs. Robert Byers, Mrs. Harlan Bosworth, Jr., Mrs. Theron Rust, Mrs. Richard Souzam Jr., Mrs. William G. Jones, Mrs. Gene Barlow and Mrs. Jim Cabler.

With proceeds of this ball being presented to Mercy Flight Inc. It is hoped that the other half of that ambulance plane may be purchased.

SITES FOUNDATION MEMBERS CONCESSION

Members of Siskiyou Pioneer Sites Foundation maintained the cloak check service and refreshment bar in the reception hall of the ballroom during the recent weekend event held in the ballroom. Members assisting were Mr. and Mrs. Art Chipman, Mrs. Wayne Maxson and Becky, Mrs. John Witteveen, Mr. and Mrs. George Brewer and Mr. O. W. Matheny. Mrs. Brewer was in charge of the fund raising event.

Mrs. R. E. Heim, Mrs. Floyd Wyatt, Mrs. Leona Salyer, Mrs. Patricia O'Manion.

U.S. National Bank Anniversary reception was attended by approximately 100 people on Tuesday.

Notice to Jacksonville property owners who are opposed to having trees planted in their parking strips please notify Mrs. Arthur Roberts at the Jacksonville Library. Phone 899-1665.

Joe Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Davis is confined at Crater Hospital with pneumonia.

DOG CONTROL WARNING

Again we wish to call to the attention of all dog owners of Jacksonville. There is an ordinance in force requiring all dogs by kept on owners premises at all times. It dogs are picked up by the Chief of Police, and, or, Dog Control officers, and placed at the Dog Control Center, Pacific Highway, Talent, owners will be charged lodging fee, and, or, license fee, plus penalties, should the dog(s) not be currently licensed.
