JACKSONVILLE AND APPLE-GATE VALLEY NEWS NOTES

IOOF #10 AND RUTH REBEKAH LODGE #4 HOSTS

Jacksonville Independent Order of Odd Fellows and Ruth Rebekah Lodge #4 officers and members were hosts to approximately 100 members of their respective member organizations of the state, Saturday, April 16, during the annual historical trek to Jacksonville.

Among those attending this session were James Ball, Portland Grand Master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows; George Hallet, Portland, deputy grand master; Oscar Beech, Portland, grand warden and D. M. Dyer, Myrtle Creek grand high priest. Mrs. Hazel Wainscott, Pendleton, Rebekah Lodge state president; Mrs. E. Mae Kafer, Glendale, vice president; Mrs. Arlene Hohn, Banks, LAPM president and Mrs. Sheryl Marshall, Central Point, Theta Rho assembly warden.

The Rogue Valley chapter, Sweet Adelines, under the direction of Robert Klusman, presented a musical program during the evening. Principal speaker was Dr. Frank Haines, SOC, whose very informative, provocative topic was "The History of the US Hotel" and a humorous skit was also presented by a Myrtle Creek lodge member. The evening meet-

Held in the US Hotel ballroom following the dinner hour in the lodge dining hall. A buffet lunch was served at noon in the dining hall and conducted tours of the local points of interest were made during the afternoon.

ROYAL NEIGHBOR OF AMERICA DELEGATE RETURNS HOME

Mrs. Pearl Jordan, 704 Sterling Road, recorder of Ling Road, recorder of Silver Maple Camp #265 of the Royal Neighbors of America, Jacksonville, represented the local organization at state convention, Albany, Saturday and Sunday, April 16 and 17. Mrs. Jordan made the trip to Albany by bus returning with the delegates of the Ashland organization.

Thirty-three delegates attended this convention session held once every four years preceding the national convention which occurs in the month of June. The district conventions occur yearly with the current one scheduled for sometime during the month of May in Medford. The next State Camp will be held in Medford, April, 1970.

The main project of this organization is giving assistance to the Schools for the Deaf. The Oregon State School for the Deaf is located at Salem. Money gift, the local organization's participation in the project, was presented by Mrs. Jordan.

A beautiful wood bowl made by the manual arts students of the state school for the deaf was presented to the organization in appreciation for their sponsorship of the school. Also, a lovely, large, serving plate of wood, accompanied the gift of the bowl.

The various money gifts of the convention groups were collected in the gift bowl and presented to Virginia Duvall, Portland, RHA Oregon supervisor. Mrs. Duvall will present these gifts to the RNA national supervisor at the national convention of the organization scheduled for sometime in June in the State of Florida.

Mrs. Jordan reported that during the entertainment program a young blind lady, Eugene, presented two vocal spiritual selections, "He" and "I Believe" playing her own piano accompaniment. And, among those who presented beautiful drills during the program were The Morning Star Drill Team of the Albany Grange Youth Group and the Medford RNA Mistletoe Camp Drill Team.

MEDFORD CRAFTSMAN DISPLAYS EXHIBIT AT LIBRARY

Mrs. Arthur Roberts, local librarian, announced that Mr. William Fontaine, Medford, craftsman in wood sculpting, has a display of his handicraft at the local library, this week, during National Library Week, April 18 - 23.

One exhibit of note, will be a six foot, carved, indian, in full regalia.

Mrs. Roberts also wishes to remind the public that Open House will be held Friday afternoon from 1:30 to 5:00 and again in the evening from 7:00 to 8:00, to give everyone an opportunity to attend this occasion. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Roberts and assistants.

VALLEYTTES RETURN

Mrs. and Mr. Ralph Gopen have returned to the Apple-gate Valley after an extended visit in and around Santa Barbara, Concord and other southern California cities. Mr. and Mrs. Gopen make their home with their son, The Rev. Thornton Gopen and Mrs. Gopen, during their residence in southern Oregon.

BERRIMAN HOME VISITORS

Houseguests this week at the home of Mrs. Job Beriman, Highway 238, are Mr. and Mrs. Grover Lovetcheck, Centralia, Washington.

MISS BARKER IN WILLAMETTE VALLEY

Miss Midge Barker, Hamilton Road, is now living in Salem, having accepted employment in the clerical division of the agriculture development office, State Department of Agriculture.

Miss Barker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Barker. She attended Ruch school and the Medford schools.

TREE FARM VISITED

The eighth grade students of the Applegate school participated in the Student Forestry Tour last week. They visited John Black's Timber Demonstration Tract, which is an annual event for Jackson county eighth grade students in conjunction with conversation classes.

The tour is sponsored by the Jackson County Intermediate Education District along with the participation of the State Forestry Department and various other federal and state affiliate departments.

THOMSON CREEK HOME VISITED

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. McDowell, Los Molinas, California were weekend guests at the home of the L. K. Stoners Thompson Creek.

FORMER RESIDENTS VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davies, 100 South Third Street, were weekend hosts recently to former residents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kirkland, Portland. Mr. Kirkland is affiliated with the regional office of forestry service in the accounting division. During their residence in Jacksonville, both Mr. and Mrs. Kirkland were active in community affairs. Mr. Kirkland was president of the local Lions Club for a period during that time. During their stay here they also visited with Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Griffin, and family, Cluggage Street.

Fair Board Asks For More Money; Seeks Expansion

The Jackson County Fair Board yesterday presented its budget of $63,912 to the county budget committee and indicated it intends to gradually work toward establishment of a general county fair at the present location in Medford.

Budget committee chairman E.H. Singmaster told the group it was his feeling the present location of the fairgrounds is too valuable for such use.

A.L. "Tex" Nash replied that the location was excellent since it was at the hub of valley traffic.
